EXHIBITIONISM

A peek at what's showing around town

Lee Akins: Round Vase, 2011, terra cotta. Santa Fe Clay (545 Camino de la Familia) presents an exhibition of work by Lee Akins, Marc Digeros, and Lilly Zuckerman. The artists use earthenware and terra cotta to craft functional, sculptural vessel forms. Akins, an instructor at Santa Fe Clay, incorporates figurative elements into his pottery, inspired by ancient fertility figures. Digeros makes angular, slab-built wares with colorful glazes and designs. Zuckerman's platters and bowls retain the finger impressions of the artist, giving the pieces an organic, textured appearance. There is an opening reception on Friday, Feb. 28, at 5 p.m. Call 505-984-1122.

Robert Motherwell (1915-1991): Hermitage, 1975, lithograph. View/ Review: Contemporary Masters at Zane Bennett Contemporary Art is an exhibition of work by Robert Motherwell, Frank Stella, Jasper Johns, Francis Bacon, and others who have had a major impact in the art world over the past 50 years. The show opens with a 5 p.m. reception on Friday, Feb. 28. The gallery is at 435 S. Guadalupe St. Call 505-982-8111.

Jerome Kuhl: New Orleans Diorama, paint and carved wood on canvas, 1995. Jerome Kuhl depicts airplanes, cars, erotica, and figures based on fictional and historical characters with wood carvings, dioramas, and embroidery. His work is influenced by folk art and antique toys. The Art of Jerome Kuhl: A Pop-Up Show opens with a reception at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 1, at Antiques and Interiors on Grant (136 Grant Ave). Call 505-983-0075.

Paul Pascarella: Dance (triptych), 2013, acrylic, oil stick, and collage on panel. Paul Pascarella uses paint, collage, and found objects in his compositions, capturing the dynamic energy of natural forces such as wind gusts and storms. New Moon West, an exhibition of recent gestural abstractions by the New Mexico-based artist, opens with a reception at 5 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 28, at David Richard Gallery (544 S. Guadalupe St., 505-983-9555). Tickets, $100, for an in-gallery dinner with Pascarella at 6 p.m. on Saturday, March 22, are available by calling the gallery. Proceeds benefit Santa Fe Gallery Association's Art Matters program.

DeeAnne Wagner: Tour Bus, steel, paint, and feathers. Red Dot Gallery (826 Canyon Road) presents Concept, Curves, and Whimsy, an exhibition of work by Cary Cluett, Tom Osgood, and DeeAnne Wagner. Cluett makes minimalist wall sculptures that play with light and shadow. Osgood's curvilinear polychrome steel sculptures are based on gestural doodles. Wagner's mixed-media enameled steel and paper sculptures reference common, everyday objects. The opening reception is on Friday, Feb. 28, at 5 p.m. The artists give a gallery talk at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 1. Call 505-820-7338
