OfficerID: jklasey, Narrative

On 08/18/2017 at approximately 8:22 p.m., Reporting Officer (R/O) was dispatched to Dollar General at 545 S. Washington Ave. in reference to a subject with a gun. Upon arrival, R/O spoke to Sheldon Grundy, an employee, who stated that he was just robbed. He stated a light skin male, either White or Hispanic, came into the store with a dark colored mask over his face and pointed a black semi-automatic handgun at him and demanded money. Grundy stated that he gave him all the money in his register and the subject ran out. Two other employees, Sarah Whitaker and Ciearra Pulliam, stated that they were in their vehicle on a break and saw the subject running away from the store. They stated that they attempted to confront him, but he jumped on a bike and went northbound on S. Washington Ave. They also advised that he pointed the gun at them. As officers were checking the area, it was advised that Detective Andersen had been in a struggle with a Hispanic male in the alley of 300 S. Washington Ave. The subject then fled the area. After a foot chase, the subject, later identified as Jose Gonzalez, was eventually taken into custody. R/O then secured the scene at Dollar General until it was released to Detective Hunter.
