Notes/Narratives

NARRATIVE

On November 9, 2012 at 07:36 hours while on patrol I observed a moped fail to obey a traffic control device by making a left hand turn on to Thomas Street from Oconee Street. Chief Williamson was also in the area and observed the same traffic violation. Chief Williamson initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle and I provided back up for Chief Williamson.

The driver, Ra'ed Ali (GA OLN: [redacted]), advised that he did not have his driver's license on his person and that he knew it was suspended. I asked Ali for his name and date of birth so that we could run it through GCIC. I ran the name and date of birth through GCIC and it did not return. I explained to Ali that his name and date of birth did not return in GCIC and confirmed the spelling and date of birth with Ali. I ran Ali's name and date of birth multiple times through GCIC and was still not able to get a return. Ali advised that he could call his friend and have him bring his wallet to the scene that had a photo ID in it.

At this time Ali became very nervous and was shaking. Ali continued to try and call his friend that was on the way and kept looking around to different areas that were near us. When Ali saw his friend, he attempted to walk toward his friend. At this time I placed Ali in investigative detention and in double locked handcuffs behind his back. I explained to Ali that he was making us think that he was trying to flee. Ali stated that he was not trying to flee but understood our concerns. I informed Ali that he was not under arrest but in investigative detention.

Officer Alford received Ali's wallet from his friend. Once Officer Alford opened the wallet he noticed a Georgia Driver's license in the wallet. Officer Alford asked Ali if this was his driver's license. Ali stated that was his fake ID and that he used it to get into bars in downtown Athens. At 0809 hours I placed Ali under arrest for driving with a suspended license and possession of a fake ID. I read Ali the Miranda Warning and Ali stated that he did not want to answer any more questions.

I searched Ali and no contraband was found. Ali was placed in the back of our patrol vehicle and seat belted in. While searching Ali's wallet I was able to find an old driver's license that belonged to him. I ran his OLN through GCIC and his license did in fact return suspended with a violation date of March 3, 2012, a suspension date of May 1, 2012, and a serve date of October 26, 2012. I ran the OLN on the fake Georgia's Driver's License and it came back to a Ryan Lindsay out of Hephzibah Georgia which did not match the information on the ID found in Ali's wallet.

I transported Ali to the Clarke County Jail. Ali and his belongings were transferred to the Clarke County Jail. My MVR was in use during this incident. Evidence was placed in evidence locker # 014 to be held for trial.

On November 9, 2011 at 11:13 hours, Judge Makin signed the warrant's for Ali for possesion of fake ID (16-9-4) and Driving with a suspended license (40-5-12(a)).
