

ALL-COUNTY GIRLS BASKETBALL

Player of the Year

KENDALL BRESEE

URBANA SENIOR FORWARD

■ After earning Player of the Year honors as a junior, Bresee once again was a force. She was Frederick County's top scorer and ranked among county leaders in rebounds and assists. Forming a formidable one-two punch with Regan Lohr, she helped the Hawks win the Central Maryland Conference championship.

■ Averaged 22.5 points, 11.8 rebounds and 3.6 assists a game. All led a Hawks team that ranked as one of Frederick County's best.

■ She will continue her career at Division I George Washington.

FIRST TEAM

MAKAYLA DANIELS FRESHMAN GUARD FREDERICK

■ Made an immediate impact to help the Cadets reach the Class 3A state semifinals. With a quick first step that allowed her to drive by defenders, she averaged 13 points a game.

DAJAH GEE SENIOR GUARD FREDERICK

■ All-around player who was a driving force for the state tournament-bound Cadets. She drove hard to the hoop, hit jumpers and battled in the paint for rebounds. She averaged 12.2 points and 6.1 rebounds a game.

JACKIE LAMONT SENIOR GUARD OAKDALE

■ Despite playing most of the season with a broken finger on her shooting hand, she set team single-game records for points with 30 and 3-pointers with 8 and the team season record for 3s with 50. Averaged 10.6 points a game and was adept at taking charges.

REGAN LOHR SENIOR GUARD URBANA

■ Another major force for the Hawks. She was deadly from 3-point range, making 31 this season. She mixed it up in the paint for rebounds and raced down the court for fast breaks. Averaged 17.5 points and 9 rebounds a game.

MCKENZIE MATHIS SENIOR GUARD WALKERSVILLE

■ Led one of Frederick County's top teams in points (10.4) and assists (4.4) and was a tough perimeter defender. The Shenandoah University-bound player holds team records for assists in a season (162) and career (401).

NICOLE RICKETTS SENIOR GUARD ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC PREP

■ This point guard was a stellar distributor who finished with a Frederick County-best 7.2 assists a game. She was the floor general who helped the Vikings win the IAAM B conference title.

CAROLINE WARD JUNIOR GUARD LINGANORE

■ She ranked high on the Frederick County scoring leaders list, averaging 16.4 points a game. She provided the Lancers with leadership, clutch baskets — including 3-pointers — and tough defense.

SECOND TEAM

Pos.	Name	School	Grade
G	TYRAE BYRD	THOMAS JOHNSON	SENIOR
G	MADLINE CEDERDAHL	URBANA	SENIOR
F	ADELE DANIELS	MSD	SENIOR
C	ARIONA JOHNSON	WALKERSVILLE	SENIOR
F	HANNAH GRAY	CATOCTIN	SENIOR
F	NADIA MIRICH	OAKDALE	JUNIOR
F	JESSICA MITCHELL	LINGANORE	SOPHOMORE
G	ANDREA MWANDO	FREDERICK	SENIOR
G	JANA PHILLIPS	BRUNSWICK	SENIOR
G	TAYLOR STAFFORD	ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC PREP	JUNIOR
G	PAIGE TARLETON	MIDDLETOWN	SENIOR
G	CHANTE WEEEDON	THOMAS JOHNSON	SOPHOMORE
G	MACKENZIE WHITE	WALKERSVILLE	SENIOR

HONORABLE MENTION

Brunswick—Alexis Stone, Destiny Brooks, Daisy Gardner, Olivia Heaton.
Catoctin—Meghan Jenkins, Taylor Crum, Allison Laroche.
Frederick—India Keene, Kyrsten Linthicum.
Frederick Warriors—Bethany Carstens, Abby Howett.
Linganore—Sophia Heitzig, Karly Johnson, Sarah Roerty, Ashleigh Bonanno.
Maryland School for the Deaf—Karita Lewis, Cassidy Perry.
Middletown—Brianna Crutchfield, Peyton Weaver.
Oakdale—Emma Bowman, Sara Parnes, Tara Butler, Jacqueline Mitchell.
St. John's Catholic Prep—Tayler Hill, Mariama Keita, Sydney Clayton, Paige Holston, Tanaisia Jow, Tori Geitner.
Thomas Johnson—Darlene King.
Tuscarora—Maya Allmond, Ayanna Hawkins.
Urbana—Christine McKee.
Walkersville—Ana Taylor, MaKenna McSweeney.

ShortTakes

from wire reports

Coach Kapologizes to Altman for postgame chat with Brooks

DURHAM, N.C. — Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski says he has apologized to Oregon coach Dana Altman for his postgame conversation with Dillon Brooks.

In a statement issued Saturday, Krzyzewski said "it is not my place to talk to another team's player" and he hoped he "did not create a distraction" for the top-seeded Ducks.

They fell to Oklahoma on Saturday night in the West Regional final.

Brooks hit a long 3-pointer with the shot clock expiring in the final seconds of the Ducks' 82-68 victory over Duke on Thursday night. In the handshake line, Krzyzewski had a prolonged discussion with the Oregon guard — and video of it immediately went viral.

In the statement, Krzyzewski said that chat "took the focus away from the terrific game that Dillon played."

The Hall of Fame coach also apologized for responding "incorrectly to a reporter's question about my comment to Dillon."

Brooks said in the locker room after the game that Krzyzewski told him "I'm too good of a player to be showing (off) at the end."

In his news conference, Krzyzewski disputed Brooks' version of events and appeared angry when it was brought up. "I didn't say that," Krzyzewski said. "You can say whatever you want. Dillon Brooks is a hell of a player. I said, 'You're a terrific player. And you can take whatever he said and go with it, all right?'"

A day later, Altman defended his leading scorer, saying Krzyzewski should have approached him — not Brooks — and that he gave the order to shoot because the shot clock was winding down.

Mark Cuban calls out refs on Twitter during Mavs-Warriors game

Mavericks owner Mark Cuban has never been shy about ripping into officials after a game. This season he's been particularly critical of inconsistencies in flagrant foul calls across the league.

But Cuban took things to another level Friday night after a traveling call went against the Mavericks in the first half of their game against the Golden State Warriors, not to mention some no-calls that Cuban thought should have gone against the Warriors.

Cuban took to Twitter to criticize the whistle and call out official Derrick Stafford by name.

"Derrick Stafford has mailed it in. That travel was not a travel and the no calls. Rick needs to get a tech," Cuban tweeted.

Cuban has never been shy about paying up in order to speak his mind on officiating but to call the referee, who is in his 28th season in the NBA, by name and ask for his head coach Rick Carlisle to yell at the refs and earn a technical foul? That's a new one.

Nadal retires in 3rd set at Miami Open

KEY BISCAIYNE, Fla. — Rafael Nadal slumped in a change-over chair, the blood pressure gauge strapped to his mighty left arm serving as a scoreboard.

He was on the verge of defeat, and a few points later he retired from a match for the first time in six years.

Nadal faded in the subtropical heat and conceded after falling behind in the third set of his opening match Saturday at the Miami Open against Damir Dzumhur.

The No. 5-seeded Nadal trailed 2-6, 6-4, 3-0 when he called it quits after losing a point to fall behind 30-15. He had earlier consulted with a trainer between games three times, and had his blood pressure checked.

Nadal said he started feeling badly at the end of the first set. "It was getting worse and worse and worse," the Spaniard said. "I get a little bit scared — too dizzy. I felt I was not safe, so I decided to go. I wanted to finish the match, but I seriously couldn't."

FC Dallas cruises to win over D.C. United

Michael Barrios scored his first two goals of the season Saturday to help FC Dallas beat D.C. United 3-0. Barrios opened the scoring in the 14th minute, taking advantage of a miscommunication between two United defenders and putting away a left footer from the top of the box.

WASHINGTON — Michael Barrios scored his first two goals of the season Saturday to help FC Dallas beat D.C. United 3-0.

Barrios opened the scoring in the 14th minute, taking advantage of a miscommunication between two United defenders and putting away a left footer from the top of the box.

Fourteen minutes later, Barrios broke free on a breakaway and poked the ball past charging goalkeeper Travis Worra to give Dallas (3-1-0) a 2-0 lead.

Maximiliano Urruti added an insurance goal in the 52nd minute.

United (0-2-2), which has scored just two goals in four games this year, is winless in its last six matches, dating to last season. D.C. finished the game with 10 men after Marcelo Sarvas got a straight red card for an elbow in the 65th minute.

Brewers reliever tears knee ligament while taking shoes off

PHOENIX — The Milwaukee Brewers will start the season without reliever Will Smith, who tore a ligament in his right knee while taking his spikes off after a game.

Smith, who was set to share closer duties with Jeremy Jeffress, received the diagnosis Friday night. He's awaiting test results to determine if surgery is necessary.

Milwaukee manager Craig Counsell said Smith will miss "significant time."

Smith injured himself Thursday in the clubhouse.

Smith, who was 7-2 with a 2.70 ERA in 76 appearances last season, was having an outstanding spring. He had allowed only two hits in seven innings, striking out five. Counsell named Smith and Jeffress, good friends and roommates this spring, as the co-closers last week.

Augustana wins Division II men's basketball championship

FRISCO, Texas — Alex Richter scored 26 points and Daniel Jansen had 25 to lead Augustana of South Dakota to the NCAA Division II championship, 90-81 over top-ranked Lincoln Memorial of Tennessee on Saturday.

Casey Schilling added 20 points and 19 rebounds. He scored eight points early in the second half to help second-seeded Augustana take an eight-point lead after Lincoln Memorial pulled to 45-43.