

ALL-AREA BOYS LACROSSE

Offensive Player of the Year DANIEL ROSS

LINGANORE Junior Midfielder

■ Main cog of a high-powered Linganore offense that averaged 13.2 goals per game, significantly increasing his production from last season and consistently showing the ability to create scoring chances for himself and others.

■ County's second-leading scorer (72 points), piled up 48 goals and 24 assists for the 9-4 Lancers.

■ Two-time first-team All-Area player was selected to participate in the Nike Blue Chip Lacrosse Camp — an event that showcases the nation's best players — and he also earned a spot on the US Lacrosse All-American first team. Has committed to play lacrosse at Army.

Defensive Player of the Year KELLER FALKENSTEIN

MIDDLETOWN Senior Defenseman

■ In addition to disrupting opposing offenses by forcing mistakes, rarely committed turnovers — a big reason why Middletown dominated possession and allowed only four opponents to score 10 goals or more. Also served as the engine for the Knights' potent transition game.

■ Collected 83 ground balls and caused 22 turnovers in addition to scoring eight goals.

■ A two-time first-team All-Area selection for a Knights team that made its first state tournament appearance in four years. Has committed to play lacrosse at Hood College.

FIRST TEAM

JIMMY ALLEN SENIOR MIDFIELDER URBANA

■ One of the Hawks' most consistent players and a two-time All-MVAL Piedmont first-team selection. Finished with 23 goals, four assists and 26 ground balls for an Urbana team that went 11-5.

MATT BEVERIDGE JUNIOR DEFENSEMAN OAKDALE

■ Hard-nosed, physical defenseman who also served as a ground ball specialist for a much-improved Oakdale team. Scooped up 65 ground balls and amassed 22 caused turnovers in addition to recording a goal and two assists.

MATT BOWMAN JUNIOR MIDFIELDER ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC PREP

■ A two-time first-team All-Area player, continued showing versatility while teaming with Bryce Johnson to form a solid 1-2 punch in the Vikings' attack. Collected 26 goals and 28 assists.

PATRICK CLEVELAND SENIOR ATTACK WALKERSVILLE

■ Sheer athleticism allowed him to consistently shake defenders and create numerous scoring chances, helping him earn US Lacrosse first-team honors. Led the county in goals (60) and points (77) while also compiling 17 assists.

LOGAN EISENHART SENIOR GOALKEEPER LINGANORE

■ Consistent goalkeeper on one of the county's most complete teams. Ranked third in the county in save percentage (.630) in addition to grabbing 45 ground balls. Will play college lacrosse at Georgian Court University.

T.J. ELLIS JUNIOR GOALKEEPER OAKDALE

■ In just his second season as a goalkeeper, routinely thwarted opponents' one-on-one chances with high-quality saves. Led the county in save percentage (.636) and posted a 6.25 goals against average.

JORDAN EMAMAN SENIOR ATTACK FREDERICK

■ One of the county's most prolific scorers, regularly applied pressure on opposing goalkeepers, peppering them with a barrage of shots. A first-team MVAL All-Piedmont selection for the Cadets, collected 31 goals and 13 assists.

RYAN HAYES JUNIOR ATTACK OAKDALE

■ A transfer from Thomas Johnson, immediately jelled with his new teammates and asserted himself as a distributor for the Bears. Led the county with 35 assists, also scoring 14 goals while picking up 30 ground balls.

BRYCE JOHNSON JUNIOR MIDFIELDER ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC PREP

■ After flourishing as a quarterback on the Vikings' football team, made great strides as a midfielder, evolving into the lacrosse team's top scoring option. Tied for second in the county with 51 goals and also handed out five assists.

WIN MCKEEVER SENIOR DEFENSEMAN URBANA

■ Rock of the Hawks' defense earned All-MVAL Piedmont first-team honors for the fourth straight season and landed on the All-Area first team for the second time. Collected 44 ground balls, 18 takeaways and two goals.

PATRICK MOORE SENIOR DEFENSEMAN MIDDLETOWN

■ Another stalwart on a stingy Knights defense that surrendered just seven goals per game. Two-time All-Area selection compiled 61 ground balls and caused 19 turnovers for Class 3A-2A West champ Middletown.

ANTHONY ORSINI SOPHOMORE ATTACK MIDDLETOWN

■ Became even more of a scoring threat after earning first-team All-Area honors as a freshman. His 51 goals tied for second in the county, and his 69 points ranked third. Also dished out 18 assists.

BAILEY PREMO JUNIOR MIDFIELDER BRUNSWICK

■ A do-it-all player who played attack and midfield for the Railroaders, landed on the All-MVAL Antietam first team. Led Brunswick in scoring with 52 points, tallying 38 goals and 14 assists.

STEVEN RAMSBURG SENIOR MIDFIELDER URBANA

■ Emerged as one of Urbana's top scoring threats during his senior season, collecting 21 goals and 22 assists. Continued asserting himself defensively, grabbing 73 ground balls notching 11 takeaways.

KYLE RIDGELY SENIOR DEFENSEMAN LINGANORE

■ Alternating between defenseman and long stick midfielder, often drew the assignment of defending the opposition's most potent threat. Towson commit had 52 ground balls, 14 caused turnovers, four goals and three assists.
