

Out and About

Out and About features photos of community members around the Valley and the world. Submit photos and details each week to photos@jewishaz.com by 10 a.m. Monday.

Where's your Jewish News?

A small group of Valley residents visited Israel last month on a Jewish National Fund mission. Pictured, from left, Steven Farber, Leesa Weisz, George Weisz, Susan Farber, Donna Troisi and Rudy Troisi read the Jewish News at an indoor playground in Sderot that was built by JNF.

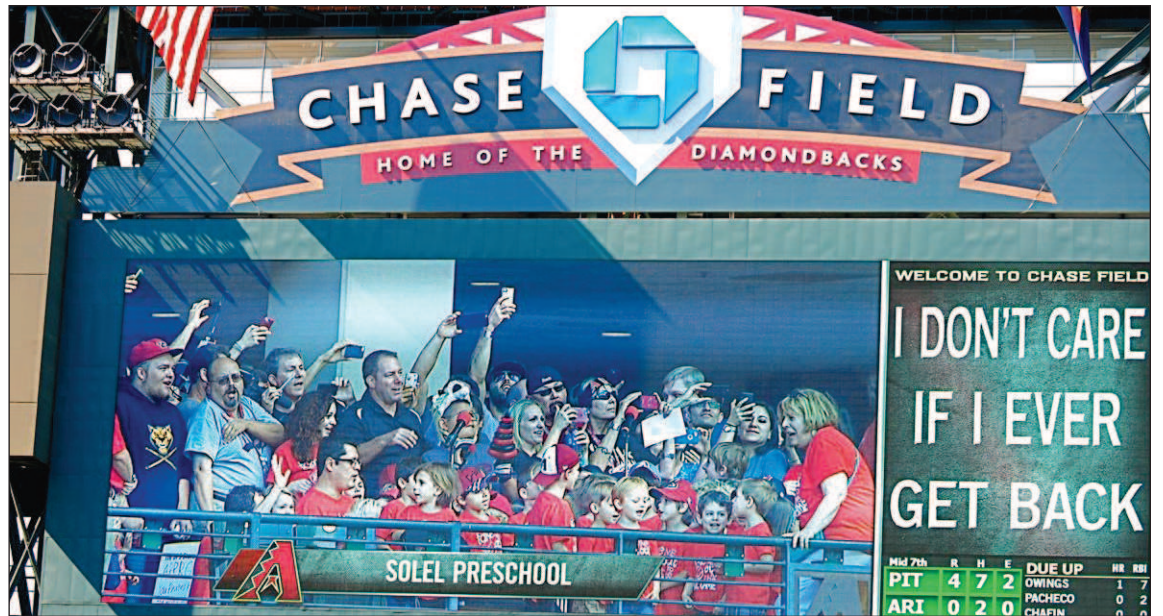

Photo courtesy of Susan Farber

Artistic legacy

Artist Helen Weisman displayed and discussed her paintings at a recent Chabad of the East Valley event. Her work is inspired by her mother's memories of the Holocaust.

Photo by Hershl Weberman

Solel sing-along

Solel Preschool students and their families attended a recent Arizona Diamondbacks game together, and were featured on the Jumbotron during the seventh-inning stretch.

Photo by Joel Zolondek

The great outdoors

Ladies from Congregation Beth Tefillah hiked Piestewa Peak, meditated and toured the purifying waters of Mikvah Chaya Mushka on April 19.

Photo courtesy of Esther Allouche

Special delivery

To help with the stress of finals week, Chabad at ASU prepared care packages to deliver to students. The packages, which included cookies, bubble wrap, a personalized note and more, were available at Chabad at ASU's outdoor table or by texting Rabbi Mendy Rimler. Pictured, from left, Brianna Bailey, Vahan Aivazian and Rabbi Rimler show off the packages.

Photo courtesy of Sarah Rimler

Brunch bunch

About 185 women attended the April 26 Phoenix Kollal Women's Division brunch. The event celebrated 10 years of dedication and learning throughout the Valley; Cindy Landesman, the director of the women's division, was the guest of honor.

Photo courtesy of Esther Bronsteyn

