Notice of Availability

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Naval Nuclear Propulsion Program (NNPP) announces the availability of the Final Environmental Impact Statement for the Recapitalization of Infrastructure Supporting Naval Spent Nuclear Fuel Handling (DOE/EIS-0453-F). The Final EIS evaluates the potential environmental impacts associated with recapitalizing the infrastructure needed to ensure the long-term capability of the NNPP to support naval spent nuclear fuel handling until at least 2060.

The NNPP is committed to manage naval spent nuclear fuel in a manner that is consistent with the Department of Energy (DOE) Programmatic Spent Nuclear Fuel Management and Idaho National Engineering Laboratory Environmental Restoration and Waste Management Programs Final Environmental Impact Statement (DOE/EIS-0203-F), and to comply with the Settlement Agreement, as amended in 2008, among the State of Idaho, the DOE, and the Navy concerning the management of naval spent nuclear fuel. Consistent with the Record of Decision for DOE/EIS-0203-F, naval spent nuclear fuel is shipped by rail from shipyards and prototype facilities to the Expended Core Facility (ECF) on the Idaho National Laboratory (INL) for processing. The proposed action is needed because significant upgrades are necessary to the ECF infrastructure and water pools to continue safe and environmentally responsible naval spent nuclear fuel handling until at least 2060.

To allow the NNPP to continue to unload, transfer, prepare, and package naval spent nuclear fuel for disposal, three alternatives were identified and analyzed in the Final EIS.

1. No Action Alternative – Maintain the naval spent nuclear fuel handling capabilities of ECF by continuing to use the current ECF infrastructure while performing only preventative and corrective maintenance.
2. Overhaul Alternative – Recapitalize the naval spent nuclear fuel handling capabilities of ECF by overhauling ECF with major refurbishment projects for the ECF infrastructure and water pools to provide the needed long-term capabilities of transferring, preparing, and packaging naval spent nuclear fuel.
3. New Facility Alternative – Recapitalize the naval spent nuclear fuel handling capabilities of ECF by constructing and operating a new facility at one of two potential locations at the Naval Reactors Facility.

The preferred alternative to recapitalize the infrastructure supporting naval spent nuclear fuel handling is to build a new facility (New Facility Alternative).

The NNPP published a Draft EIS in June 2015 and held three public hearings in Idaho. The NNPP considered all public comments received in preparing the Final EIS, which includes the NNPP's responses to those comments. The Final EIS highlights changes that were made to address these comments as well as changes that have resulted from additional design and planning for the New Facility Alternative.

The Final EIS is available for review at www.ecfrecapitalization.us and on the DOE's NEPA Web site at <http://nepa.energy.gov>.

For further information about this Final EIS, contact:

Mr. Erik Anderson (08U-Naval Reactors)
Naval Sea Systems Command
1240 Isaac Hull Avenue, SE
Stop 8036
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20376-8036

The NNPP will publish a Record of Decision no sooner than 30 days after publication of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Notice of Availability in the Federal Register.
