

is looking for a:

CIN Program Coordinator

The Clinically Integrated Network (CIN) Program Coordinator serves as the central liaison between the CIN and all other entities and stakeholders including, but not limited to, health care facilities and leaders, physicians and providers, payers, and the Board of Directors. The Program Coordinator oversees and facilitates the operations and implementation of requirements for participation in the network, implementation of programs and activities, including Board directives, communication, practice engagement, patient engagement, and business/financial management.

This individual will ensure ongoing development of a patient centered health network that supports improvements in care through broad active participation in a wide range of aligned groups. BA in healthcare administration or related field preferred.

Full Time, Salary is Competitive (DOE) + Benefits.

APPLY AT:

www.umpquahealthcareers.com