Student's death under police investigation

By SAMANTHA VICENT

Managing Editor

The Stillwater Police Department and the Oklahoma Medical Examiner's office are investigating the death of an OSU student.

OSU Director of Communications Gary Shutt said David William Brumfield, 22, died Monday afternoon. He was an animal science junior from Plano, Texas, and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Brumfield's family was notified following the incident, Shutt said.

A Sigma Chi member said he died after being in a coma at an Oklahoma City hospital.

Stillwater police Capt. Randy Dickerson said a roommate found Brumfield unresponsive in his apartment bedroom just after midnight Sunday.

OSU Fraternity and Sorority Association manager Ival Gregory said Brumfield did not live in the Sigma Chi chapter house.

Shutt gave a statement about the incident Wednesday afternoon.

"Oklahoma State University is deeply saddened by the loss of one of our students," he said. "We extend our thoughts and sympathies to the family and friends of David Brumfield."

OSU Homecoming helps businesses boom

By JORDAN HARMON

General Assignment Reporter

Some people debate whether the time and money spent on Homecoming is actually going toward something that benefits the Stillwater community, but local businesses say it is.

Cristy Morrison, executive director of the Stillwater Convention and Visitors Bureau, said a study found that game days brought about $4 million extra in direct visitor spending to Stillwater for each Homecoming game since 2003.

"It's going to be more than that now," Morrison said. "Homecoming usually generates more than a regular gameday, but it won't be as much more this year because it's an 11 a.m. game." Morrison said people who would normally stay in town Friday and Saturday nights are leaving Saturday because of the early game time.

"Normally, we would be booked, so it's shocking that there are hotels with availability this weekend," Morrison said.

Gloria Short, director of sales at the Holiday Inn and Suites, said the Holiday Inn has been booked for Homecoming weekend for almost a year.

"We've been booked for 50 weeks," Short said. "We can only book 50 weeks in advance, and the minute the OSU football schedule comes out, we're almost full within 24 hours."

Short said the influx of people during Homecoming benefits all types of businesses in Stillwater.

"It's wonderful for Stillwater," Short said. "Businesses do very well on gameday. Everyone wants to see the greatest homecoming in the nation."

Adam Sisco, assistant manager at Louie's Grill and Bar, said Louie's is expecting double the sales as normal on Homecoming weekend.

"We spent more than twice as much on produce this weekend as we usually do, and we have about six more employees each day this weekend than we normally would," Sisco said.

Sisco said Homecoming has no negative impacts on the restaurant.

"This is why we're here," Sisco said. "We lost our air conditioning this summer. We had to redo some floors this summer, and this is how we pay for it: with extra revenue from the gamedays."

Tim Holland, general manager at Eskimo Joe's, said he is expecting almost twice as many people as normal on Friday because of Walkaround.

"Absolutely this weekend has a positive affect on the business," Holland said. "Our company has, for many years, recognized the economic impact of the Homecoming event."

Holland said the 11 a.m. game time has also affected Homecoming preparations at Eskimo Joe's. He said he is not expecting as many people on Saturday as he would if the game was at night.

Amy Jo Frazier, Stillwater business improvement district coordinator, said Homecoming significantly impacts local businesses.

"It's great for the economy," Frazier said. "I'm all about having as many people as possible in Stillwater, as an employee of the city of Stillwater, as a citizen and also as a previous employee of the athletic department. It's a little crowded, but it's only for a few days, and I think it's so exciting and well worth it."

SGA announces election dates

KIARA WALTON/O'COLLEGIAN

Mike Merit, Stephen Rogers and Kelli Grashel lead the SGA Senate meeting Wednesday evening.

By SAMANTHA VICENT

Managing Editor

On Wednesday night, the OSU Student Government Association Senate announced fall election dates for students wishing to represent OSU's eight colleges.

Fall elections for OSU college senators will take place Nov. 13 and 14, Senate Vice-Chairman Mike Merit said. An information session will be held Oct. 29 at 7:30 p.m., and campaigning will officially begin Oct. 30, he said.

Applications for Senate are available on SGA's website, osusga.okstate.edu. They are due Oct. 26, Merit said.

Also at Wednesday's meeting, Campus Life adviser Kent Sampson said Cowboys for Life, a student organization, will sponsor the "Justice for All" display exhibit from Oct. 24-26, which will be located between Library Lawn and the International Mall. The group deals with genocide and abortion, Sampson said.

"They have graphic pictorials, so we tell them to have a buffer zone so people who don't want to see the pictures don't have to," he said. "They will not be located by the Student Union."

Sampson also discussed the death of David Brumfield, a Sigma Chi fraternity member and animal science junior.

"Unfortunately a young man from one of our fraternities died over the weekend," he said. "His death had nothing to do with the fraternity, and it was not on university property...It's really a tough tragedy for the family."

After Sampson's report, Sen. Matthew Young opened discussion for two bills, which would grant registered status to the OSU Food Association and the National Science Teachers Association. Both were approved unanimously after information about each from their respective representatives.

Also, SGA Senators approved bills providing co-sponsorships for Theta Tau, a co-ed engineering fraternity ($700), the American Society of Biological Engineers ($1,000) and the Entrepreneurship Club ($1,000). The OSU Agronomy Club applied for a co-sponsorship of $280, but group representative Garrett Jones petitioned the Senate for an additional $720 to cover registration fees for a conference in Cincinnati, Ohio. The bill was tabled in order to increase the funding amount.

Senator and Budget Committee Chairman DJ Worth said the SGA co-sponsorship fund has $10,480.91 left to provide to student organizations this semester.

Countdown to Homecoming: OSU's best players

No. 2: Bob Fenimore

COURTESY OF THE OKLAHOMA STATE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT
Bob Fenimore running the football during his time at Oklahoma State. During Fenimore's career, he ran, passed and punted at different points in time and led the 1945 OSU team to a perfect 9-0 season.

By JAMES POLING
Senior Sports Reporter

Robert "Bob" Fenimore is not necessarily a name who resonates with the casual Oklahoma State fan because the era he played in, but his amazing talent to do everything on the field brought the program national prominence for the first time.

He played for OSU before it was even the Cowboys (Oklahoma A&M Aggies). The nation was more concerned about military action in Japan and Germany than him leading his team to an 8-1 record during his sophomore season.

Yet the Blonde Bomber was the one to set the first standards for future Cowboys in the record book.

What could he not do? He ran the ball, leading the nation in rushing during the 1945 season. He could pass the ball, eighth in the nation in 1944 and thus allowing him to be the national leader of total yards off offense from 1944-

45. He was also the punter, averaging 39 yards a punt in 1945. Fenimore could also play some defense, intercepting 18 passes, a school record he still holds.

As for team achievements, Fenimore's resume is arguably better than any other OSU player. OSU's 1944 team finished with a 34-0 victory against TCU in the Cotton Bowl (the bowl later inducted Fenimore into its hall of fame). Fenimore then led the Cowboys to a perfect 9-0 season in 1945, capped with a 33-13 victory against St. Mary's (Calif.) in the Sugar Bowl and a No. 5 final ranking in the AP poll.

Fenimore finished third in the 1945 Heisman voting. A knee injury hampered his senior season in 1946 and pro career, but the Chicago Bears drafted him with the first overall pick in the 1947 NFL Draft, the only OSU player with this distinction.

The Blonde Bomber was the first football All-American in OSU history. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

After retiring after the 1947 season, Fenimore lived in Stillwater for more than 50 years before he passed away on July 28, 2010 at 84.

First gala to be held Thursday

By KCHRIS GRIFFIN
Multicultural Reporter

The African American Student Association will host its first Homecoming Gala on Thursday from 8-11 p.m. in the OSU Alumni Center.

The gala has free admission and will be open to all students. Desmond Harvey, coordinator of African American affairs, said the ball will have a dinner, alumni speaker and a dance to conclude the event.

"The students thought it would be a good idea to host something for Afro-AM during homecoming week," Harvey said. "We are going to crown a homecoming king and queen, announce the new executive board for the freshman action team and have a dance for the students. It's going to be a good look for the students and I am excited."

Students can expect to have a good time and celebrate homecoming at the event. Harvey said the program is open to anyone who wants to attend.

"Anybody and everybody can come to the gala," Harvey said. "Doors open at 8, there is free admission and everyone is welcome."

Harvey said the gala will help the African American Student Association.

"I think that the gala will start a first class tradition for Afro Am," Harvey said. "The ball will help Afro Am host a nice formal event to celebrate homecoming and welcome back our Alumni back home."

Harvey said the students put a lot of work into the event, and he was pleased with the effort.

"I thought the idea was great itself," Harvey said. "The idea to host a formal event, which will showcase students in their best attire, was excellent. The students put a lot of work in to creating the event and all indications point to a successful event."

Harvey said the gala should be a fun experience for all.

"I hope everyone will come out and enjoy the festivities," Harvey said.

BRUMFIELD:

STUDENT'S FUNERAL IS 2:30 P.M. ON SUNDAY IN PLANO, TEXAS.

There were no obvious signs of foul play or indications of self-harm at the scene, Dickerson said.

Police will not be able to definitively answer whether alcohol or drugs played a role in Brumfield's death until the medical examiner and toxicology reports are complete, he said.

OSU will provide buses for students who want to attend Brumfield's funeral, Shutt said.

"Student Affairs is paying for the cost of one bus and Sigma Chi will pay for any additional buses," he said. "Providing the buses shows support to family and friends during a time of great sorrow...His friends want to attend the service to show their respect, and a bus is safer than numerous cars driving to the service."

Shutt said the university expects two buses to travel to the funeral.

The service is tentatively set for 2:30 p.m. on Sunday in Plano.

SGA:

SGA ANNOUNCED ITS ELECTION DATES WEDNESDAY.

In SGA President Flint Holbrook's executive report, he announced SGA is sponsoring a bus trip to Waco, Texas on Dec. 1 for the OSU's football game against Baylor.

The $80 fee would include a ticket and transportation, and those interested can register online at SGA's website, Holbrook said.

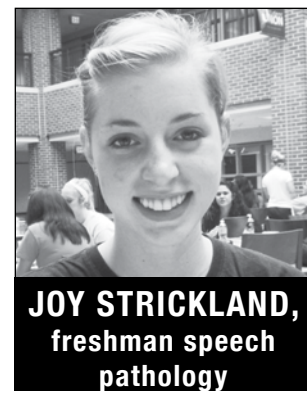

SGA's next meeting is Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Case Study One of the Student Union.

Today's Birthday (10/18/12). Gain new power around money and values this year, as you realize that you don't need as much as you thought. Focus on expanding skills, passions and talents by soaking up educational experience through travel, communication and the arts. Level up significantly this year. Celebrate!

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

Aries (Mar. 21-April 19) -- Today is a 7 -- Check the big picture for the next few days, and take a leap into the next adventure. You don't want to regret not having followed your heart. Resist the urge to splurge.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) -- Today is a 5 -- Too many circumstances threaten to get in the way, but you find inspiration and rise to the occasion. Balance idealism with realism. Costs may end up higher than expected.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) -- Today is a 7 -- Play well with others, compromise, and win on many levels. Previous plans come to fruition. Intuition illuminates career matters. Check and double-check the data. Accept an unusual request.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) -- Today is a 6 -- Focus on work to tie up loose ends. Your energy may be scattered, so direct it toward priorities. Plan an outing.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) -- Today is an 8 -- Romance, games and relaxation take priority. But continue to build your reserves and remain flexible. You have what you need. Dreams reveal a major change.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) -- Today is an 8 -- You're entering a two-day domestic phase. Put a plan on paper to save time. You're getting impatient to start. Don't try it alone. A friend can put you in touch with the perfect partner.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) -- Today is a 7 -- Manage all that's possible, and then some, with some help from innovations. There's no time to complain, and it wouldn't do you any good anyway. Adapt with grace.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) -- Today is a 6 -- Scratch out the things you can't afford, or that you're never going to complete. Romance is a definite possibility ... full speed ahead. Go for what you want most.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) -- Today is an 8 -- You get a head start, thanks to your focus and determination. Use your power for good. Give up something you don't need and surge forward.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) -- Today is a 5 -- You're under pressure with deadlines for the next few days. Big spending is not the correct answer. Let partners do the heavy lifting. Stay rested, and it flows.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) -- Today is a 7 -- What you've learned comes in very handy during the temporary confusion. Listen carefully to one who doesn't say much. Friends really help over the next few days.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) -- Today is a 7 -- Expect more from others and yourself. It's not time to be slacking off ... every moment counts. Change the itinerary as needed. Do the job you've been thinking about.
