Oklahoma State University's award-winning student newspaper has served Stillwater and the campus community since 1895. The O'Colly is a real newsroom that prepares students for a professional career in journalism.

We publish newspapers on Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays, during the school year. We are online 24/7 with fresh content daily, breaking news, sports and more. The O'Colly is independent from the university and entirely student run, with more than 100 students on payroll. A staff of four professionals advise, guide, educate and provide support.

The O'Colly is governed by the Student Media Board, which is made up of faculty, staff, students and Oklahoma media members.

In 2014, the O'Colly was honored for the third year in a row as Oklahoma's best college newspaper by the Oklahoma Press Association.

Errors of fact reported to the editor-in-chief will be corrected promptly. Please direct all concerns to the editor-in-chief at 744-6365 or editorinchief@ocolly.com.

Letters to the editor must include name, contact info and class/affiliation to OSU. Non-university individuals must also include hometown. Letters are subject to editing for libel and clarity, or to eliminate statements of questionable taste. Letters may be delivered to room 108 Paul Miller Bldg., or emailed to letters@ocolly.com

The views offered by O'Collegian employees are not necessarily those of the university administration or Oklahoma State University Board of Regents. Columns are the opinion of the author. Columns and letters to the editor do not necessarily reflect the views of the editorial board or The Daily O'Collegian.

The newspaper derives 74% of its revenue from advertising sales, 24% from student subscriptions and 2% from other sources.

The Daily O'Collegian is a member of Associated College Press, College Media Association, College Business and Advertising Managers, Oklahoma Press Association, Society of Professional Journalists, Student Press Law Center and Stillwater Chamber of Commerce.
