

OMAHA FALL PRIMER

Our noncomprehensive guide to the sea of October activities

WHAT KIND OF ATMOSPHERE DO YOU WANT?

SCARY

Thrill me, chill me, scare the pants off me.

SPIRITED

I want to make the most of Halloween.

CHILL

Let me relax and enjoy a little foliage, man.

DO YOU REQUIRE PUMPKINS?

YES

NO

HAUNTED HAYRACK RIDE

Head to Yutan on Oct. 17 for a scary ride — and pumpkin painting!

DO YOU REQUIRE PUMPKINS?

YES

NO

JACK O' LANTERN

Show your family who's boss with a carving workshop Oct. 17 at Lauritzen Gardens.

DO YOU REQUIRE PUMPKINS?

YES

NO

PUMPKIN PATCH

Walk through the vines, maybe hit up a corn maze. Ditmars Orchard in Council Bluffs even lets you pick your own apples. Fall, amirite?

HOW ABOUT A MOVIE?

YES

NO

HAUNTED HOUSE

There's nothing like ax-wielding clowns for giving you a good fright. See Omaha.com/fallfun for a list of area haunts.

LOVE CLASSIC MOVIES?

YES

NO

GHOSTBUSTERS

Film Streams gives us the best way to celebrate Halloween.

HORROR MOVIE TRIVIA

Test your knowledge Wednesday at The Waiting Room Lounge.

DO YOU WANT TO BUY STUFF?

YES

NO

KITE FESTIVAL

Fly your own or just watch others Sunday during the One Sky, One World Fly at the La Vista Soccer Complex.

DO YOU WANT TO BE OUTSIDE?

YES

NO

NIGHTMARE THEATER

Head to Camp Fear at RiverWest Park on Friday and Saturday nights for scary movies. Highlights this weekend: "The Hills Have Eyes" Friday and "Saw" Saturday.

SYMPHONY SPOOKTACULAR

Show up in costume for Halloween music, from the Symphony.

THE VISIT

M. Night Shyamalan proves he can still scare us with this horror comedy. Showing at various theaters in the Omaha area.

JUNKSTOCK

You've been looking forever for that perfect wine rack made from an old barn door. Find it this weekend at this festival at 315 S. 192nd St.