Showstoppers

When it comes to stargazing, the place to be is the Dundee Theatre along Dodge Street in Omaha, where all the marquee names in Nebraska high school hoops showed up for a recent afternoon photo shoot. Theater owner Denny Moran welcomed Nebraska's best, popping the popcorn and handing out soft drinks. What was showing on the big screen? Well, nothing, actually — movie time wasn't for another couple of hours. The players were told to picture Benson's CJ Carter dunking on an opponent and to give us their best "dunk face" on the count of three. We gave the act two thumbs up.
