

EXPONENT 2021 FALL HOUSING GUIDE

The Exponent to host 2021 Fall Housing Fair

By: Exponent Advertising Department

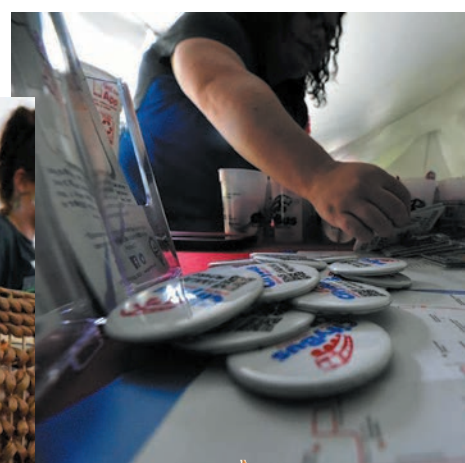

The Exponent, the independent student media organization serving Purdue and surrounding communities, is pleased to bring back the in-person fall housing fair after a year hiatus related to the pandemic. The event will take place from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m., Oct. 22 along Stadium Mall.

This year's event is conveniently scheduled on the Friday of Purdue's Parents' Weekend, making it easy for students and their parents to browse the fair and possibly make housing decisions for the spring on the spot.

The Fall Housing Fair will feature about three dozen vendors including off-campus housing companies, internet providers, furniture stores, transportation and shuttle services, and more. Many of the vendors provide leasing specials specific to the housing fair – deals that can't be found anywhere else.

As of Oct. 18, vendors planning to exhibit at the fair include: Alight West Lafayette, American Campus Communities, Aspire Discovery Park, City Bus, Collegiate Communities, Continuum, Cort Furniture Rental, Crestview Apartments, Evergreen Campus Rentals, Fuse, Granite Management, Hub West Lafayette, Lark West Lafayette, Launch, Metronet, Morris Rentals, Muinzer Management, Redpoint West Lafayette, Rise on Chauncey, River Market Apartments, The Century, The Cottages on Lindberg, The Lodge, University Crossing, University Residences, Village West Apartments, Weida Apartments, and Wintek by Tipmont.

The Exponent would like to thank Purdue University Women's Volleyball Club and Purdue Soundtracks A Capella Team for their assistance at the event and with stuffing the housing guide into our regular newspaper edition.

Invest in Local Journalism

Pulitzer-prize winning investigative journalists. Advertising executives and CEOs. Oscar nominees and Emmy-award winning creators. Peabody award winners. These are just a few of the titles that can be claimed by alumni of The Exponent.

The tradition and importance of this local journalism incubator is more important than ever.

The Exponent, published by The Purdue Student Publishing Foundation, is a 501(c)3 educational not for profit media company that is independent of the University, and primarily run by students.

Your gift of any amount to the Purdue Student Publishing Foundation will be used to support operational expenses and student staff as they continue to keep the more than 130-year tradition of The Exponent alive.
