Dr. Phinney retiring from Eye Surgeons

After 25 years of serving the vision needs of the Quad Cities, Dr. Richard Phinney will be retiring at the end of April. He joined Eye Surgeons Associates (ESA) in 1991. He and Dr. Peter Fries were the first to join the Arbisers, co-founders of Eye Surgeons, transforming ESA from a small practice to a multi-specialty group.

Dr. Richard Phinney

Dr. Phinney, a board certified cataract and LASIK surgeon, was the first to offer LASIK in the Quad Cities and has improved the vision of tens of thousands of refractive surgery patients. Dr. Frederick, President of ESA, adds, "It's been an honor and a privilege to work side by side with Rick. We all will miss the great talents he brought to the practice. We wish him and his family the best in retirement."

Dr. Phinney was distinguished as a Top 5 Surgeon in the U.S. by Sightpath Medical™ based on surgical excellence, and experience demonstrated through procedural volume, and delivery of exceptional patient care. The Global Directory of Who's Who honored Dr. Phinney as a Top Doctor in 2012 for dedication and contributions to the medical profession. Dr. Phinney, as a recognized thought leader in Ophthalmic surgery, was chosen to serve on the Sightpath Strategic Advisory Group. The SSAG represents a select group of Sightpath Cataract, Refractive surgeons working together to address clinical topics and trends, share current perspectives about the industry, discuss emerging trends and technologies, and to provide clinical review to peers. He served as past president of the Rock Island Medical Society and on their executive committee.

Dr. Phinney comments, "It's been a wonderful career. I'd like to thank my patients, the medical community and staff for their loyalty, positive word of mouth, and support. I'm going to miss hearing that "Wow" from a patient after restoring their vision. I leave knowing that the practice is in capable hands and that patients will continue to receive the best in eye care. Thank you for trusting me with your vision."

For over 30 years, Eye Surgeons Associates has been committed to providing people in the Quad Cities and surrounding communities their best vision for life through a comprehensive range of eye care dedicated to the preservation, enhancement, and restoration of vision at any age. In addition to routine eye exams and optical, surgical services include cataract and refractive, featuring LASIK and lens exchange. Patients with cornea and external eye disease, diabetic retinopathy, glaucoma, macular degeneration, pediatric eye disorders, strabismus and vitreoretinal disease, as well as those requiring oculoplastics and ocular oncology options, receive treatment in a private practice setting. Eye Surgeons Associates is a professional corporation owned by William Benevento, MD, Michael Boehm, MD, Tina Eckhardt, MD, John Frederick, MD, Peter Fries, MD, Michael Howcroft, MD, Martin O'Malley, MD, Nikhil Wagle, MD and James Wymore, MD.
