EXHIBITIONISM

A peek at what's showing around town

Cy DeCosse: Argentine Giant Cactus, 2012, platinum/palladium print. Verve Gallery of Photography (219 E. Marcy St.) presents solo exhibits by photographers Cy DeCosse and Van Chu. DeCosse's The Midnight Garden is a series of luminous, pristine photographs of night-blooming flowers captured in gray scale. Photographic Brushstroke is an exhibit of Chu's large-scale, layered images of pigment spreading in water. The Midnight Garden and Photographic Brushstroke open Friday, May 2. A reception is scheduled for May 16 at 5 p.m. Call 505-982-5009.

Eric Wiswell: Torso, 2014, silver gelatin print. Unbounded: The Six Shooters + Two is an exhibit of photographs and drawings of the nude figure by six local photographers and two visual artists. Live figure drawing by Santa Fe University of Art and Design students takes place during the opening reception, at 5 p.m. on Friday, May 2, at Eggman and Walrus Gallery. Figure-drawing workshops are held in conjunction with the exhibit at 9 a.m. on three consecutive Sundays, beginning on May 4. The cost for one workshop is $50; each additional workshop is $35. Eggman and Walrus is at 130 W. Palace Ave., second floor. Call 505-660-0048.

Ricardo Gutierrez: Four Directions #5, 2014, acrylic. Liquid Outpost Coffeehouse & Art Space (211 Old Santa Fe Trail, Inn & Spa at Loretto) presents Four Directions, an exhibition of paintings by Ricardo Gutierrez. The show's title is taken from a series of 9-by-9-inch acrylic abstractions on view. The reception is May 10 at 4 p.m. The show is up through May. Call 505-983-6503.

Nancy Frost Begin: Mission Theatre, 2014, woodcut print. Marigold Arts (424 Canyon Road) presents New Woodcut Prints, an exhibit of works on paper and three-dimensional art by Nancy Frost Begin. Begin's woodcuts contain narrative elements, animals, and landscape imagery rendered in earthy colors and black and white. The exhibit includes her brightly colored, functional Monster Boxes as well as whimsical sculptures. The opening reception is at 5 p.m. Friday, May 2. Call 505-982-4142.

Michael Scott: 222, 2013, transparent pigment on stainless steel. Michael Scott explores the female figure in religious iconography in the exhibition Found. Scott's photographic montages of images of the Virgin Mary and contemporary women consider the role of Mary in a range of contexts: as saint, mother, cultural icon, and political figure. Scott's photomontages are printed on steel, burnished, and overpainted in a complex process. The show is on view at David Richard Gallery (544 S. Guadalupe St.) through June 7. Call 505-983-9555.
