Dear Annie:

I am 55 years old and have worked at my job for 25 years. A couple of years ago, they hired a 26-year-old guy. I have been training the end of my rope. I cannot understand what was said the minute he hung up the telephone. He doesn’t pay attention to what is going on in the office, and he never will. If you take on some new responsibilities, which draws the rest of us in completely. He just does his own work and then after that he relaxes. It seems that he’s only along for the ride.

Just married, and he’s also even an entire issue of mine. I hate talking to other people’s. Monday, March 18, 2013
