ABOUT US

Are you looking for a quality storage barn or utility shed to give you years of faithful service? We—the Helmuth family from Statesville, North Carolina—have been in the barn industry for many years. As a family business, Pine View Buildings excels at building quality barns and providing top-notch service.

You can't beat quality + great service. We hear constantly from our customers that our materials are better, our delivery is better, and that our service is personal and friendly. Not only that, 9.5 out of 10 of them will buy a shed from Pine View Buildings even if it has a higher price.

You can count on us to stand behind our products. Whether you buy a Metal Garage, Portable Garage, Deluxe Playhouse, Utility Playhouse, or one of our many other products, we guarantee you will be satisfied with your investment. Our philosophy is to not make any bones about issues, but to just take care of them for you.

You have a wide selection of options. We understand that each of our customers has unique needs, and we deal with you on a personal level to make sure our product fits your situation and budget. We will build a custom barn, shed, or garage to your specs, or you can order one off the lot. You can choose the size, style, and color of your building to add the most value and the most appeal to your backyard or homestead.

You won't have to wait long for your new shed or barn. We strive to promptly fulfill orders. When you buy a Pine View shed off the lot, we will deliver it within one to five business days. For custom orders, we aim to deliver within fourteen business days.

You can rest easy as we deliver your building. We have successfully and safely delivered many portable sheds and barns throughout North Carolina over the years with our own trucking fleet, Five Star Transport LLC. We have the experience, the tools, and the respect to treat your property and your new storage barn with proper care.

We thank you for considering a Pine View building! We build our barns and sheds to serve you, and we build them to last for years in the North Carolina weather. When you deal with Pine View Buildings, we do our best to make sure our service exceeds your expectations!
