JIM HANIFAN

Arguably the finest offensive line coach in the history of professional football, Hanifan came to St. Louis for the third time in 1997, taking over a young, developing group that emerged as a vital component in the Rams' Super Bowl and playoff runs from 1999-2001

Hanifan's unit allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL in five consecutive seasons, beginning in 1974. In 1975, the Cardinals' eight sacks allowed represented the second-lowest total in NFL history. The 9 sacks is the lowest in NFL history for regular and post season play

Hanifan was NFL Assistant Coach of the Year as selected by coaches in 1977.

Following a one-year tenure as assistant head coach/offensive line with the San Diego Chargers (1979), Hanifan returned to St. Louis as head coach (1980-85), posting winning seasons from 1982-84. Jim was the Atlanta Falcons' offensive line coach for three years (1987-89) before moving to the Washington Redskins (1990-96). Washington won Super Bowl XXVI following the 1991 season, and the offensive line allowed only nine sacks in the Redskins' 17-2 season.

Jim Hanifan's ALL-PRO team consists of NFL professional players, coaches, and staff. This is a rare opportunity for St. Louis area High School athletes to be filmed, critiqued, and coached by Jim Hanifan and his ALL-PRO team.
