G Team snowboarder near top of the pack

G Team snowboarder Ricky Dorn is once again edging out his competition in local United States of America Snowboard Association events across Minnesota.

Dorn competes in the youth men (14-15) age group for both Boardercross and Slopestyle. The age group is one of the largest and most competitive in the association's regional competition series, and Dorn has been landing himself in the top third of the pack.

Dorn has trained for the events since early September with the Midwest's premiere snowboard team, The G Team. He has qualified for this year's national competition at Copper Mountain, Colo., where he would face off with the nation's top snowboarders.

For more information, visit www.usasa.org or www.thegteam.com.
