EDUCATION BRIEFS

Hennepin Tech sets one tuition rate for all students

Hennepin Technical College will charge resident tuition rates for all students beginning in the 2007-08 academic year.

This change takes effect for the fall semester. Formerly, some students were classified as non-residents and paid double the resident tuition rates.

Tuition rates are set by each college. The per credit tuition rate for fall semester at Hennepin Technical College is $130.50. Additional fees per credit are just under $10.

Hennepin Technical College is Minnesota's largest technical college, serving more than 10,000 students at campuses in Brooklyn Park and Eden Prairie and a Customized Training Center in Plymouth. To learn more, visit www.hennepintech.edu, or call 952-995-1300.

Primrose School enrolling students

Primrose School of Eden Prairie is now enrolling students for fall 2007. Open houses are planned for the following Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.: July 21 and 28; Aug. 4 and 11.

Primrose School is an academically accredited private preschool for infants, preschoolers and kindergartners, ages 6 weeks to 6 years, providing a unique blend of balanced learning and nurturing child care.

It is located at 7800 Eden Prairie Road, at the intersection of Highway 5. To learn more about the curriculum, accreditation, school building and staff, visit www.myprimroseschool.com/edenprairie, or call 952-937-9318.

Theater art classes offered

Homeward Bound Theatre Company is offering theater art classes Monday, July 30, through Thursday, Aug. 2.

"Young Actors Clinic," from 9 a.m. to noon at Cedar Ridge Elementary School, will help first-through fourth-graders learn theater skills in technique, projection, staging, characterization and role-playing. Children who like to put on plays, be a star or those who need to build self-esteem and self-confidence will enjoy this energizing experience.

"Performing on Broadway - Just for the Fun of it!," from 9 a.m. to noon at Central Middle School, is for seventh- through 12th-graders to learn the music, drama and dance of the Broadway musical. For more information and/or cost of registration, call the Eden Prairie Community Education at 952-975-6940.

Five with EP ties receive Merit Scholarship awards

National Merit Scholarship Corp. announced more than 2,300 additional winners of Merit Scholarship awards, including five with Eden Prairie ties, this week.

These Merit Scholar designees join more than 2,200 other college-sponsored award recipients this year who were announced in late May.

The five with Eden Prairie connections are:

■ Lucas S. Imes, a Chaska resident who attended Eden Prairie High School, received a National Merit University of Minnesota Scholarship. His probable career field is physics.

■ Brittany K. Bull received a National Merit Northwestern University Scholarship. Her probable career field is law.

■ Tracy M. Fuad received a National Merit Northwestern University Scholarship. Her probable career field is cognitive science.

■ Alexander S. Haines received a National Merit Claremont McKenna College Scholarship.

His probable career field is public service.

■ Andrew N. Kelly received a National Merit University of Minnesota Scholarship. His probable career field is finance/marketing.

Officials of each sponsor college selected their winners from among finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program who will attend their institution. College-sponsored awards provide between $500 and $2,000 annually for up to four years of undergraduate study at the institution financing the scholarship.

Winners had to submit a detailed scholarship application, have an outstanding academic record, be endorsed and recommended by a school official, earn SAT scores that confirm the qualifying test performance, and write an essay describing activities, interests, and goals.

About 15,000 semifinalists attained finalist standing, and more than half of this group were chosen to receive Merit Scholarship awards.

is a 2007 graduate of Eden Prairie High School and has been awarded the President's Distinguished Student Scholarship.

Adam will be a freshman in the fall at the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities in the Carlson School of Management.
