

NEWS BRIEFS

PROP food shelf needs of the week

"August was the busiest month of the year at PROP; over 500 food orders were distributed to feed 1,700 individuals, including 800 kids. Our inventory is depleted in many areas," according to a news release.

PROP is currently in need of oatmeal, pancake mix and syrup, crackers, baked beans, coffee, fruit juice, canned fruit and snack foods.

Your cash donations enable PROP to use its buying power for food, supplies and financial support for clients. Your food donations keep shelves stocked. The group appreciates the support and invites you to volunteer and use your creativity to create a PROP-themed event. If you need services or support from PROP, visit its website at propfood.org, call (952) 937-9120 or stop by the office at 14700 Martin Drive Monday through Friday 9:30 to 1 p.m. or Monday and Wednesday evenings 4 to 6:30 p.m.

PROP Shop's needs of the week

The PROP Shop is looking for volunteers to help with its daily operations. Tasks range from sorting donations to arranging clothing and more. Times especially needed include Friday and Saturday afternoons and Tuesday and Wednesday evenings but other times are available. Contact Alicia at Alicia@propshopep.org or (952) 224-0362 to find out more!

The PROP Shop is a non-profit re-sale store, which sells new and gently used items to everyone in the community. It depends on donations of furniture, clothing and housewares. The PROP Shop also offers a separate Client Services Center which provides clothing, housewares and furniture to referred families and individuals in need.

The PROP Shop is at 15195 Martin Drive in Eden Prairie. Store hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday to Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday and noon to 4 p.m. Sunday. Donations are accepted from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Wednesdays and 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturdays. For more information, visit propshopEP.org or call (952) 934-2323.

Help bridge digital divide

Volunteer computer tutors are needed to help adults gain the digital literacy skills necessary to survive and thrive in today's world. Tutor one to two hours per week at a computer lab in St. Paul or Minneapolis. The Minnesota Literacy Council provides training and ongoing support. For more information, visit themlc.org/digital or contact Allison at arunchey@themlc.org or (651) 251-9110.

The latest episode of Democratic Visions

Journalist, columnist, author and adventurer Jim Klobuchar shares his perspectives on American politics during the current edition of Democratic Visions. In a three part discussion with host Tim O'Brien, Klobuchar also shares anecdotes about campaigning with his daughter, U.S. Sen. Amy Klobuchar, according to a news release.

The real and fictional figures in the satirical work of Star Tribune cartoonist L.K. Hanson are provided human voices by Eden Prairie's Doug Lind and others from a retreat he calls "The DFL Botanical Garden." Lind, a one-time joke writer and radio announcer is joined by DFLers Tommy Johnson and Norb Gernes.

Rounding out the program are Minnetonka City Council candidates Peggy Kvam and incumbent James Hiller.

Democratic Visions is produced by Eden Prairie, Minnetonka and Edina volunteers for DFL Senate District 42. Segments of the program are posted at dflsd42.org/.

In Eden Prairie, Democratic Visions can be seen on Comcast Channel 15 on Sundays at 9 p.m. and Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m.

Sibshop offered by The Arc

Kids in the west metro area who have a brother or sister with an intellectual or developmental disability can have fun and make friends at Sibshop Super Saturday from The Arc Greater Twin Cities from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Oct. 8 at Homeward Hills Park Barn, 12000 Silverwood Drive, Eden Prairie.

"Sibshop Super Saturday is a half-day session for kids ages

6-12. Like The Arc's monthly Sibshops, it has games, activities and discussion that help participants express their thoughts and feelings about having a sibling with a disability. It's a great option for families who don't have a monthly Sibshop in their area or who can't attend a Sibshop on a monthly basis," according to a news release.

Sibshop Super Saturday is free for members of The Arc Greater Twin Cities and $15 per child for non-members. The cost includes lunch. To register, call The Arc at (952) 920-0855.

Progressives group features demographer

The Progressives on the Prairie September program is scheduled to be Minnesota State Demographer Tom Gilaspay, speaking on "Minnesota, the New Normal."

His presentation will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 22, at Star Bank's Community Room, 250 Prairie Center Drive. A news release states that he will discuss ramifications of recent census data and its impact on Minnesota's future decisions.

Info: Pat Lind at plind33@comcast.net.

Back-to-school immunizations

Hennepin County Public Health offers low-cost immunizations to those without adequate health insurance and has added extra clinic to 3 p.m. Oct. 1 at Petco in Chaska off Highway 41 and Pioneer Trail. CSHS is without its own building and all pets are housed in foster care.

A rabbit, kittens, cats and dogs will be featured. Cats and dogs have been micro-ID implanted, vet checked, wormed, had shots updated, checked for friendly temperaments and age appropriately spayed/neutered. Adoption fees are $165-plus for cats and $195-plus for dogs.

PUBLICNOTICES

STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF HENNEPIN
DISTRICT COURT
FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
5. Dissolution without children
FILE NO. 27FA-11-6518
SUMMONS

IN RE THE MARRIAGE OF:
Leo Chilaka Ohaeri,
PETITIONER,

And Obianuju Joyce Njoku Ohaeri,
RESPONDENT.

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA
TO THE ABOVE NAMED
RESPONDENT:

Within thirty days after service of this Summons upon you, you must serve upon attorney for Petitioner your Answer to the attached Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. You may serve your Answer by mailing a copy to the address below. If you fail to do so, the Court may grant all of the relief asked for in the Petition.

NOTICE OF TEMPORARY RESTRAINING AND ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVISIONS

Under Minnesota Law, service of this Summons makes the following requirements apply to both parties to this action, unless they are modified by the court or the proceeding is dismissed:

1. Neither party may dispose of any assets except (i) for the necessities of life or for the necessary generation of income or preservation of assets, (ii) by an agreement in writing, or (iii) for retaining counsel to carry on or to contest this proceeding;

2. Neither party may harass the other party; and

3. All currently available insurance coverage must be maintained and continued without change in coverage or beneficiary designation.

If you violate any of these provisions, you will be subject to sanctions by the Court.

4. Parties to a marriage dissolution proceeding are encouraged to attempt alternative dispute resolution pursuant to Minnesota law. Alternative dispute resolution includes mediation, arbitration, and other processes as set forth in the district court rules. You may contact the court administrator about resources in your area. If you cannot pay for mediation or alternative dispute resolution, in some counties, assistance may be available to you through a nonprofit provider or a court program. If you are a victim of domestic abuse or threats of abuse as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 518B, you are not required to try to mediation and you will not be penalized by the court in later proceedings.
