SERIOUS WINE. SERIOUS FUN!

Caressed by Atlantic breezes, the vineyards that cover the rolling hills along the rivers of Aquitaine have for centuries produced France's most remarkable wines: Saint-Émilion, Pomerol, Sauternes, Médoc and Margaux are but a handful of the appellations that make Bordeaux wines world-famous. At the region's heart, the city of Bordeaux stretches along the river bank, inviting visitors to savor its grand architecture, tempting cafés and superb museums. Celebrate joie de vivre in this land of wine and oysters, truffles and cognac, as you cruise the Dordogne, Garonne and Gironde Rivers. While in Bordeaux (also known as "Petit Paris") you can experience Bordeaux's Marché de Noël - or Christmas Market. These markets are a traditional Advent event throughout Europe and feature Christmas goods from 100s of merchants set up in charming wooden stalls along the Allee de Tourny.
