

Allen Blake Willey

Allen Blake Willey, 74, of Dania Beach, Florida passed away on Thursday, March 9th, in the loving care of Seasons Hospice in Hollywood, Florida.

A graveside service for Mr. Willey will be conducted at 12 noon, Saturday, March 31st, at Mount Carmel Cemetery, in Middletown, Virginia.

Allen Blake Willey was born to Orville B. Willey, Jr. and Mattie Lee Manuel Willey, in Winchester, Virginia, on April 15, 1942. A 1960 graduate of James Wood High School, he went on to the University of Virginia and graduated in 1964 with a BS in Engineering. Allen answered the call of his Country in Vietnam, as a 2nd Lieutenant in the 101st Airborne, from 1967-1972.

Allen had a love for anything fast, fun and slightly dangerous, thus his love of skydiving, racing his speed boat, and as a member of the Bultaco Motorcycle racing team. Slowing things down a bit for his career, Allen successfully managed two automobile dealerships in Richmond, Virginia. In retirement, he headed to South Florida with his partner Nicholas Pappas, where they finally settled down in their home in Dania Beach. He is preceded in death by his parents, and survived only by his life-partner, Nicholas Pappas.
