Barbara Comstock (R)

Age: 57
Office sought: U.S. House of Representatives, Virginia's 10th District
Position’s salary: $174,000 annually
Party affiliation: Republican
Race and/or role: First female member of Congress from Northern Virginia

Senior staff member for former 10th District Rep. Frank Wolf from Jan. 13, 2010, to Nov. 10, 2014. Also was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates representing the 38th District from 2002 to 2009.

What makes you the most qualified candidate for this position? I’ve worked in public service for over two decades in the private sector and as a legislator in the past 5 years. In the State House and in Congress, I’ve fought to ensure that Virginia businesses can compete, expanded access to pre-K education and higher education, and worked with our federal partners to ensure that our military personnel and veterans have the care they need.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in psychology from George Mason University (1990).

Community/religious affiliations: Catholic

What makes you the most qualified candidate for this position? I’ve spent my entire career in the private sector working to create a successful family business that has been the backbone of my community for over 20 years. During that time, I’ve led over 200 employees, generated millions of dollars in economic development for our region, and understand how our economy works because I’ve lived it.

In my public service, I’ve brought people together to tackle big issues. Ten years ago, I joined a bipartisan group to support the Affordable Care Act (ACA), which is why I’m challenging those who have left the ACA uninsured, and helping to protect those who have. I’ve also worked to discourage violence and support our public safety departments.

What is your campaign platform? I’ll always support legislation that builds our economy and creates jobs, and that makes our communities safer and more prosperous. I’ll always stand up to those who attack our values and that’s why I fought to re-open our government.

How long have you lived in Winchester? For 35 years.

Susan Davis (D)

Age: 56
Office sought: U.S. House of Representatives, Virginia’s 10th District
Position’s salary: $174,000 annually
Party affiliation: Democrat
Race and/or role: First female member of Congress from Northern Virginia

In Congress, I fought to ensure that Virginia businesses can compete, expanded access to pre-K education and higher education, and worked with our federal partners to ensure that our military personnel and veterans have the care they need.

What makes you the most qualified candidate for this position? I have a long record of fighting for common sense solutions for our economy and public safety. As the only member of Congress from Northern Virginia with experience negotiating with the White House, I know how to get things done. I also have a strong record of protecting our most vulnerable citizens and defending our most sacred values.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in communication from George Mason University (1987) and a master’s degree in education from Eastern District University.

Community/religious affiliations: Christian

What makes you the most qualified candidate for this position? I’ve spent my entire career in the public sector and have a strong record of working with both parties to help secure Virginia’s economic future. I’ve worked closely with industry, local leaders, and federal partners to promote smart growth, increase job opportunities, and protect our most vulnerable citizens.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in psychology from George Mason University (1981).
