DETAILS:

On 01/09/2018, Caitlin Denison traveled from Reno, NV, to Midland, TX, after first meeting a male subject in Reno. The identified male subject is known to have worked as a truck driver in the oilfield industry. It is believed Caitlin spent the night of 01/09/2018 with the male in his RV, which may have been parked in West Odessa. On 01/10/2018, the RV was moved to a location in Midland south of IH-20/Loop 250 (see map). Also, on 01/10/2018, Caitlin advised family and friends that she was at the Wal-Mart on 4517 N. Midland Drive in Midland with the male subject. Caitlin advised she was "afraid for her life." It is believed they visited Domino's Pizza in Odessa (on Linda Ave) and then went to Rick's Cabaret in an attempt to find employment. That day was the last time Denison spoke with family or friends. The attached photo of the Ford F-250 pickup is a photo of the actual vehicle Denison was last known to be in. Investigators remain hopeful that someone may have seen something or may have information to assist this investigation. Please contact the Texas Rangers, Midland Police Department, or Crime Stoppers with any information.
