City of Biggs Appoints Rodney Harr as Interim City Administrator

Biggs, CA – June 25, 2025 – The City of Biggs is pleased to announce the appointment of Rodney Harr as the new Interim City Administrator. Harr, who recently retired as the Chief of Police for the City of Gridley, brings over three decades of public service experience to his new role in Biggs.

Harr served with distinction in the Gridley-Biggs Police Department from 1991 until 2024, rising through the ranks to become Chief of Police in 2020. He also served as the Interim City Administrator for the City of Gridley from 2021 to 2022, demonstrating his capability in municipal management and interdepartmental coordination.

"We are thrilled to welcome Rodney Harr to Biggs," said Bo Sheppard, Mayor of Biggs. "His extensive experience in public safety, crisis management, and city administration will be invaluable as we navigate the upcoming months and continue to serve our community effectively."

Harr holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice Management from Union Institute & University and possesses a wide range of certifications from the California Peace Officers Standards and Training. His commitment to community service and excellence in leadership has earned him numerous accolades and recognition from both local and state officials.

Harr will begin his role as Interim City Administrator on July 1, 2025, where he will focus on ensuring a smooth transition for the city's administration and continuing the implementation of key initiatives.
