Entertainment

THE AUBURN CITYFEST COMMITTEE HAS A SPECTACULAR LINE-UP FOR THIS YEAR'S FESTIVAL. LIVE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE PLAYING AT THE ENTERTAINMENT PAVILLION THROUGHOUT THE DAY.

Be sure to check out this year's featured entertainment!

Medicine Tail Singers

10am | Noon | 2pm

The Medicine Tail Singers are the headlining entertainment for Auburn CityFest 2018. Coming from many tribal backgrounds, The Medicine Tail singers and dancers were established in 2001 and have been performing together for 15 years. They have traveled all across the United States performing at various celebrations and cultural functions. Many members of the Medicine Tail singers are active learners, teachers and participants of their traditional heritage. The group is composed of many tribes including the Creek, Coushatta, Alabama, Choctaw and Houma. Some of their travel highlights include performing for the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festivals as well as the Midnight Sun Powwow in Fairbanks, Alaska. They have released five independent albums. They will perform in the C.I.S.

Tony Brook Band

10:45am - 12:15pm | 2:15 - 3:45pm

Alabama native Tony Brook and his band have brought their unique blues sound to venues across the country. Tony Brook has opened up for acts such as Willie Nelson, Ray Charles and Government Mules. This group plays original blues hits, true to their Alabama roots. Their lineup of blues will keep you moving and captivated throughout CityFest. Tony Brook Band will be performing in the Entertainment Pavilion.

Georgia Irish Frisbee Dogs

9:30am | 11:30am | 3pm

With eight world championship titles, 10 national championship titles and seven world records, the Georgia Irish Frisbee Dogs are an elite group of disc dogs based out of Clayton County, Georgia. The team of eight pups are owned by Mark and Stacey Muir, who have a passion for animals. We are so excited to have the Georgia Irish Frisbee Dogs with us for Auburn Cityfest 2018! The Georgia Irish Frisbee Dogs will perform in the Children's Imagination Station.

Lew-E the Clown

9am | 11am | 1pm | 3:30pm

Auburn CityFest 2018 is proud to welcome back Franklin William Lee Andrews, better known as Lew-E the Clown. Since Lew-E started clowning around in 2003, he has performed over 2,000 live shows including the Georgia State Fair, Rockdale County Fair and the Conyers Cherry Blossom Festival. Lew-E is from Georgia and has been named one of Central Georgia's top children's entertainers.

Adam Lowe Comedic Juggler

9:30am | 11:30pm | 3pm

Atlanta based actor, juggler and comedian Adam Lowe has been entertaining crowds young and old for over a decade. He is the managing director for Thimblerig Circus, a vaudeville-style comedy troupe that tours around the country.

Dogwood Lung

9 - 10:30am | 12:30 - 2pm

Dogwood Lung is a local band who plays original folk dream pop songs that are a definite crowd-pleaser. This young band is popular among Auburn University students and each band member has ties to the university as well. Dogwood Lung recently released a five-track album called Gestures. Don't miss their live performances on Saturday morning and afternoon. Dogwood Lung will be performing in the Entertainment Pavilion.

Korea Fest

9am - 4pm

Korea Fest, presented by Auburn University's Office of International Programs and Korea Center, includes many fun activities such as Korean calligraphy, arts and crafts, traditional dance and drum performances, a photo booth with traditional Korean clothing and more! Korea Fest has been a highly anticipated annual event at the University since 2012, and we are thrilled to bring the festivities to the City this year. The whole family is sure to enjoy this fun and diverse attraction.

It's time for one of Auburn's favorite spring traditions!
