Logano, Byron win Daytona qualifiers By JENNA FRYER

Associated Press

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. -Joey Logano and William Byron won the qualifying races that set the field for the Daytona 500.

The victory in the first 150mile race Thursday night earned Logano a spot in the second row for the season-opening Daytona 500. Byron will join Logano in the second row, behind pole-sitter Ricky Stenhouse Jr. and teammate Alex Bowman, who earned the front row in time trials at Daytona International Speedwav. Byron pulled out of line late, first race when Daniel Suarez received a push from fellow Chevrolet driver Kurt Busch and Hill got some breathing room cruised to the confidence-building win. "We are going to use this mo-
