That defeat assured the Marlins (27-41) of a losing season at home, a day after clinching their 23rd sub-.500 record in the club's 30-year history.

Cubs 5, Mets 2

NEW YORK – Chris Bassitt had his shortest start in three months, failing to get through the fourth inning as NL Eastleading New York lost to Chicago.

New York began the day with a 11/2game edge over Atlanta, which played later in San Francisco. Rafael Ortega homered in the second

Bassitt (13-8) since he gave up Manny

Machado's round-tripper July 23, a stretch of 54.1 innings – and Zach McKinstry hit a two-run shot in the third before Ortega and Alfonso Rivas each had RBI singles in the fourth.

Bassitt gave up five runs in 3.2 innings – his quickest exit since he lasted a season-low 3.1 innings against San Diego on July 8.

The Mets stranded 10 runners – including seven over the first six innings against rookie right-hander Javier Assad (1-1), who allowed five hits in earning the first victory of his career. Brandon Hughes got the last five outs for his fifth save.

Pirates 6, Reds 3

CINCINNATI - Rodolfo Castro and Diego Castillo homered in a five-run fifth inning to power Pittsburgh. Castro hit a three-run home run off

Mike Minor in the fifth inning for his eighth of the season. Castillo, who was recalled from Indianapolis before the game, hit a two-run shot – his 11th – to cap the inning. Aristides Aquino broke an 0-for-8 slide with his eighth home run with a man on to put the Reds on top. The line drive off Bryse Wilson was Aguino's eighth of the season and fourth in his last eight Brian Reynolds started the scoring with his 22nd home run off Minor in the first inning. Minor (4-11) gave up six runs and seven hits in five innings. Wilson (3-8) left with the bases loaded in the sixth inning with a 6-3 lead. He allowed three runs and seven hits in 5.2

DETROIT – Framber Valdez pitched his first career shutout to lead Houston. Valdez (15-5) posted his 24th straight quality start, tying Mets ace Jacob deGrom (2018) for the longest singleseason streak. The All-Star left-hander gave up six hits and struck out eight with one walk.

The Tigers were shut out for the second day in a row and club-record 21st time this season, tying them with the 1973 New York Yankees and 1976 Chicago White Sox for most by a team with a designated hitter.

Jeremy Pena had three hits for the Astros and scored twice.

Tigers starter Eduardo Rodriguez (3-5) allowed five runs on 10 hits and a walk in five innings.

Giants 3, Braves 2

SAN FRANCISCO – Rookie starter Spencer Strider struck out nine over five innings but allowed a season-high nine hits as his winning streak ended at four, and Atlanta Braves missed a chance to gain ground in the NL East.

Dansby Swanson hit a two-run single with none out in the eighth against Zack Littell, who then induced Austin Riley's double play before Giants manager Gabe Kapler replaced him with Scott Alexander. An angry Littell then had words with the manager, who could be seen shortly after going with the pitcher down the tunnel.

Matt Olson flied out to end the threat. Strider (10-5) took his first loss in six starts since Aug. 7 at New York. He had won his previous three starts. Alex Cobb (6-6) struck out seven over seven scoreless innings for the Giants. Alexander finished for his first save. College Football
