MLB results | Wednesday

Shawon, 19, Tigers 9

DETROIT — Carlos Brewers hit a grand slam and a solo home run in an eight-run eighth inning that turned his team’s eight-game losing streak into a three-game winning streak.

Brett Lawrie, Chicago’s leadoff hitter, hit an opposite-field double down the line that scored two runs. Lawrie then scored on a double by Daniel Murphy. Murphy drove in two runs with a double to right.

The Cubs scored three runs in the third inning, two on an error by a fielder in right field.

NBA results | Wednesday

Hawks 122, Celtics 120

ATLANTA — Jaylen Brown scored 32 points, including a three-pointer with less than a minute left, and the Boston Celtics rallied to beat the Atlanta Hawks 122-120 on Wednesday night.

The Celtics trailed by 11 points at one point in the fourth quarter, but Brown hit a three-pointer to tie the game and then hit another with less than two minutes left to put the Celtics ahead by two. Brown finished with 36 points, six rebounds and six assists.

The Hawks held a 110-106 lead with 30 seconds left but Brown hit a three-pointer to tie the game. The Celtics won on a 3-pointer by Brown with 7.9 seconds left.

NHL results | Wednesday

Lightning 2, Avalanche 1

TAMPA, Fla. — Steven Stamkos scored the go-ahead goal in the third period as the Tampa Bay Lightning beat the Colorado Avalanche 2-1 on Wednesday night.

Stamkos, who had an assist on the goal, scored his third goal of the season on a power play. It was the 23rd goal of his career.

The Lightning have won 13 straight games at home and are 14-0-0 when Stamkos scores.

Soccer | Wednesday

Twins 2-2 (6-5, 10) vs. Brewers

MINNEAPOLIS — The Minnesota Twins and Milwaukee Brewers entered the 10th inning tied at 2-2 but the Twins scored two runs in the top of the 11th inning to win 4-2.

The Twins scored two runs in the 11th inning after the Brewers made two mistakes on defense.

Twins pitcher Tyler Duffey allowed one run in the 10th inning, but Milwaukee’s Matt Albers allowed two runs in the 11th.

Golf

Paula Creamer wins

LUCAS, Ohio — Paula Creamer won the LPGA Tour Championship, leading a four-way tie for the title with four others.

Creamer finished with a 66 on Saturday and a 69 on Sunday to win the third major of her career.

Creamer won her first major in 2001 at the Kraft Nabisco Championship and followed it up with another major in 2002 at the U.S. Open.