Women (San Antonio)

UConn 69, Baylor 67 SAN ANTONIO - Paige

Bueckers scored 28 points and top seed UConn used a huge run spanning the final two quarters to beat No. 2 Baylor and reach a 13th consecutive Final Four in the women's NCAA

"Each year that we do it, I still can't believe it," UConn coach Geno Auriemma said.

Tournament.

UConn has made the national semifinals every season since 2008 and won six titles during that span. The Huskies await the winner of Arizona and Indiana on Friday night. Neither of those teams has played in a Final Four.

It took a last-second stop to keep that streak going.

The Huskies (28-1) trailed 55-45 late in the third quarter before scoring 19 consecutive points, including 10 by the freshman phenom Bueckers, who became the third first-year player to make first-team All-America.

Oilers 3, Maple Leafs 2, OT

TORONTO - Darnell Nurse scored 17 seconds into overtime and the Edmonton Oilers defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs in the ninth and final regularseason meeting between the teams.

After Oilers goalie Mike Smith stopped Auston Matthews on a 2-on-1 break right off the faceoff of the extra period, the Oilers broke the other way, with Connor McDavid passing to Nurse for his 12th goal of the season, and second in as many games.

Josh Archibald and Kyle Turris scored in regulation for Edmonton, while Smith stopped 29 shots.

Penguins 2, Islanders 1 PITTSBURGH - Casey DeSmith made 19 saves after starter Tristan Jarry's mysterious exit and the Pittsburgh Penguins held off the New York Islanders.

Jarry left after the first period and DeSmith filled in by holding the Islanders at bay as Pittsburgh pulled even with New York for second place in the East Division by beating New York for the sixth time in eight meetings. Jared McCann scored his eighth goal of the season – and fifth in his last 10 games – and Anthony Angello got the first power-play goal of his career. John Marino had two assists as Pittsburgh finished off a scorching March with an NHL-best 25 points (12-3-1).

Flyers 4, Sabres 3, OT

BUFFALO, N.Y. – Ivan Provorov scored 42 seconds into overtime, and the Philadelphia Flyers overcame a threegoal deficit to pull out a win and extend the Buffalo Sabres winless skid to 18.

The Flyers scored three times in the third period to overcome a 3-0 deficit, with Sean Couturier forcing overtime by tipping in Provorov's point shot with 1:29 left, and Philadelphia's net empty for an extra attacker.

Provorov then scored by converting Couturier's pass on a 2-on-1 break and slipping a shot under goalie Linus Ullmark's pads after Buffalo's Rasmus Dahlin turned the puck over in the Philadelphia end.
