Fleetwood, Bradley tied for lead at

ORLANDO, Fla. — Bay Hill provided a few dramatic turnarounds, good news for Henrik Stenson, not so much for Phil

Through it all, Tommy Fleetwood and Keegan Bradley kept a steady march of solid golf Friday and wound up tied for the lead at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, four shots clear of anyone else going into the weekend on a course that has been tough Fleetwood used two new clubs to produce two eagles, which carried him to a 6-under 66. Bradley, with the renewed confidence of a player who last year ended six years without a PGA Tour victory, made all but one of his six birdies on the par 4s and had a 68. They were at 9-under 135, the highest score to lead Bay Hill through 36 holes

Blaney qualifies on pole for Sunday's race outside Phoenix AVONDALE, Ariz. — Ryan Blaney turned the fastest lap in practice and never slowed down in qualifying, putting his No. 12 Ford on the pole Friday for this weekend's race at ISM Raceway. Blaney turned a lap of 141.287 mph to keep Penske Racing's early season success going. It was his sixth career pole but first of the season, and came on the heels of teammate Brad Keselowski's victory at Atlanta and Joey Logano's win last weekend at Las Vegas.

"It's nice to have Penske winning," Blaney said, "but I'm selfish and I want to win. It's nice to have our cars really fast. Our finishes haven't reflected how we've been running.

Blaney led 13 laps in the Daytona 500 before crashing out. He led 41 laps at Atlanta before a problem on pit road ruined the day. He had a tire problem on his first pit stop last week at Las Vegas, forcing his No. 12 team to play catch-up the rest of the Chase Elliott will start on the outside of the first row, while Denny Hamlin and Kyle Busch will start from Row 2. Keselowski rounded out the top five in another strong start to a weekend.

Serena Williams, Halep win, Stephens ousted at Indian Wells

INDIAN WELLS — Serena Williams beat Victoria Azarenka 7-5, 6-3 in just over two hours in the second round of the BNP Paribas Open on Friday night. Both players returned from maternity leave a year ago at the desert tournament. Since then, Williams has reached two Grand Slam finals and returned to the world's top 10. Azarenka is still seeking to restore order in her personal life, having been involved in a legal tussle over her young son. Williams needed just over two hours to close out the match in which she had four aces and nine double faults. She saved 11 of 15 break points. Earlier, Sloane Stephens lost to Stefanie Voegele of Switzerland 6-3, 6-0 in just over an hour.

The fourth-seeded American committed 32 unforced errors while Voegele had four aces playing in windy conditions. Voegele improved to 4-1 against the 2017 U.S. Open champion.

Rams sign veteran safety Eric Weddle to 2-year deal LOS ANGELES — Veteran safety Eric Weddle agreed to a two-year deal with the Los Angeles Rams on Friday, returning to his native Southern California to join the defending NFC champions' secondary.

of veteran personnel after going 13-3 in the regular season and reaching the Super Bowl last month.

where he spent the past three seasons. The six-time Pro Bowl selection was released Tuesday after starting all 16 games last year for the Ravens, who elected to get younger.

than Rams coach Sean McVay, but he could be exactly what Los Angeles' secondary needs. He is nearly certain to take the starting job held by Lamarcus Joyner, who is expected to leave as a free agent.
