

STAFF SERGEANT JACOB M. GALLIHER

Staff Sergeant Jacob M. Galliher distinguished himself by meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight as a Direct Support operator, 43rd intelligence Squadron, Detachment 1, Operating Location – Alpha, 363rd Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance Wing, at Kadena Air Base, Japan, on 29 November 2023. On that date, in support of special operations, Sergeant Galliher's airmanship and expertise in the execution of the largest and most complex iteration of a joint training exercise with partners from Special Operations Command Pacific, 353rd Special Operations Wing, and Carrier Strike Group One. His skill and devotion to duty by performing direct support operations for Gundam 22 aircrew, provided air domain awareness and real time treat warning through specialized intelligence and electronic capabilities integration. His actions allowed special operations and conventional forces agile combat training opportunities to advance power projection tactics, techniques, and procedures critical to the nation's Pacific theater objectives. The professional skill and airmanship displayed by Sergeant Galliher in the dedication of his service to his country reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.
