

NASHVILLE'S MARK209 RETURNS TO JEFFERSON, NH

COUNTRY MUSIC WITH A JESUS KICK

Since 2011 ... Traveling Coast to Coast

The multi-award winning group MARK209 has been singing for audiences across the United States since 2011, with appearances ranging from presidential and television to opry and church platforms. Together, the approachable group of Christian country vocalists draw from their unique blend of voices to create a harmony which leaves an indelible mark of musical excellence on listeners, whether newcomer or longtime fan.

MARK209 carries the honor of Christian Country Group of the Year for four years as well as the Fan Favorite Group of the Year. They regularly have songs on the national charts including their number one on the Christian Country Music chart with the song "My Kinda People." MARK209's dynamic brand of Christian and Country music has become a hallmark and distinction for the group, endearing them to thousands of fans across the nation through personal appearances, radio interviews, and television appearances. The group's name, MARK209, comes from mile marker 209 on I-40 in Tennessee, the crossroad for the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Ryman Auditorium, Music Row and much more. It's the heart of Nashville and where all roads lead to home base for this versatile group. With the goal of reaching hearts through music, MARK209 continues to entertain all ages, paving a legacy with proven staying power.

MARK209 will be live in concert on Sunday, August 14, 2022, at 6:00 p.m. at E & R DAIRY FARM, 516 Meadows Road, Route 115A, Jefferson, NH. There will be no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken. Please bring your own lawn chair and adhere to the CDC requirements for Covid. Chairs will not be provided. Come and enjoy the fun, laughter and music in the country air. For more information contact Elaine LaLumiere at 603-586-7000.
