

STUDENT of the WEEK

CORA DEWALT

co-president of National Honors Society. Throughout high school, she has been active in club and high school soccer, Odyssey of the Mind, and personal creative endeavors.

Cora enjoys many adventures in rafting, hiking, camping, paddleboarding, and skiing to stay active in the beautiful Colorado outdoors. She loves experiencing new things and meeting new people while travelling and taking road trips with family and friends.

To pursue her interests, she plans on attending college to seek out a degree in nursing. Mrs. Fritsch, an English teacher at the high school, speaks to Cora's character, saying, "Cora seeks growth through challenge and productive struggle while modeling superior intrinsic motivation. Her academic tenacity is surpassed only by her personal integrity. I hope to be her when I grow up."

Cora DeWalt, daughter of Brock and Brenda DeWalt, is a senior at Buena Vista High School.

She enjoys science, specifically life sciences, as well as creative projects such as metals. Cora has been active in BVHS's Student Athlete Leadership Team, National Art Honors Society, and is currently the
