

STUDENT of the WEEK

NOAH BEARSS

Basketball all four years of high school while being the captain of the team his Junior and senior years of playing. Noah played baseball during his freshman and sophomore years while playing golf for his sophomore year.

Noah strives to serve the community in ways where he feels there isn't a lot of service. He is an active Wyldlife leader for the middle school Younglife program while also serving at the skatepark and cooks hotdogs for kids most Fridays, this is called Friday Dogz. Noah loves to skateboard and snowboard, he loves to be outdoors and go on adventures.

Noah plans on taking a Gap year once he graduates and takes a year to serve the Lord. He desires to get connected with an organization called YWAM and do a surf and skate ministry within that. After His Gap year, Noah desires to study Fine arts specifically photography. If that falls through Noah will go to a trade school and get his welding license. Note From Baseball coach and Social studies teacher Greg Perrin, "Noah's outgoing, pleasant, and positive personality is a shining example of treating people the right way. He is always quick to lift up others and is a young man who leads by example in our hallways, classrooms, courts, and fields, he is an exemplary student-athlete."

Noah Bearss, son of Catherine and Zachary Bearss, is a Buena Vista High School senior. Noah's favorite classes are in shops and history, and he has been a shop student all four years of high school. He is Co-President of the National Honor Society and has been an honor student for many years of high school. Noah has been a Link Crew leader in his Junior and senior years and a S.A.L.T leader for those years as well.

Noah played soccer for the first time his senior year and was an active contributor to the JV and Varsity teams throughout the season. He played
