MACEE YOUNG

Panama during Spring Break in 2025. Macee is an active member of the National Honor Society and has been part of the Student Council since her freshman year.

In addition to her academic pursuits, she has been involved in 5th Quarter, a program sponsored by Family Youth Initiatives (FYI), since her freshman year. Macee is also a dedicated athlete, having been a member of the volleyball team since her freshman year, the baseball team since her sophomore year, and the cheerleading squad since her junior year.

After high school, Macee plans to attend Fort Lewis College in Durango, CO to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Language.

Mrs. Flowers, History and Student Council teacher, says of Macee, "Macee is reliable and steady in a way that is rare among high school students. She is defined by her strength of character and by her commitment to the things she cares about. She is bright and welcoming and thoughtful and exactly what the world needs."

Macee Young, the daughter of Matthew and Justine Young, is a senior at Buena Vista High School.

She genuinely enjoys her Spanish class and has had the opportunity to travel to Ecuador during her sophomore year. Additionally, she looks forward to visiting
