County approves $2M in CARES grants

Mike Wessinger
Staff writer

Citrus County spent about half what it expected in the first round of CARES Act grants to small businesses, and commissioners will decide at their Aug. 23 meeting how to proceed with the next round.

With Friday’s deadline to apply in the first round, the county approved about $1.9 million in one-time $7,500 grants to businesses that were either ordered shut or significantly restricted by government order to curtail the spread of COVID-19.

The county received 834 applications for the grants. Of those, 268 were approved, 201 denied and the remainder are still in the review process. Of those approved, the county spent out 251 checks, budget manager and management director Culson Scott said.

Officials had expected to spend close to $4.5 million in the first round, based on their estimates that 600 to 650 Citrus County businesses met the criteria for the first round.

No virus tests on Election Day

Testing at the Citrus Springs site is available on Monday, Aug. 17 and will resume on Wednesday, Aug. 19.

As a reminder, testing is FREE whenever a COVID-19 outbreak occurs to staff and children over 12, with or without symptoms. Registration starts at 1:30 p.m. Please bring a photo ID and plan to stay in your vehicle the entire time.

Company expanding fiber footprint in county

If you have been traversing the county roadways this past four to six weeks, you likely have seen a litany of orange utility work.

Zayo Group Holdings Inc. has been busy expanding its fiber network in central Florida. In total, the Colorado-based company is adding more than 2,900 high-mileage fiber count network, which will serve the Tampa and Orlando markets, including diverse connections and backhaul capabilities, the company said in a news release.

“We are excited about our investment in central Florida, including the opportunity to employ and resource the project as much as possible locally,” said Jack Waters, president of Zayo Networks and COO. “We look forward to giving enterprise businesses a differentiated diverse option for reliable, high-speed data connectivity to the world.”

Locally, the company installed fiber along State Road 44 in Inverness, east to Croft Avenue to County Road 486. It is currently in the process of installing fiber along U.S. 41, north of County Road 491. Zayo has installed miles of cable between county and state mapping agencies, according to county and FDOT records. Still, permitting/proposal to be stalled in Citrus County is 13.2 miles according to Ken Carter, FDOT spokesman.

De Wit said COVID-19 put a halt to manatee monitoring for two months in 2020, and although FWC was still recording increases.

"Unfortunately, we had a gap in our data set," she said. "With the pandemic still here, we may decide not to respond to very decomposed (manatees) because our chances of getting a cause of death are slim.

In-watercraft in Citrus County killed these manatees in 2015 and 2016, seven in 2017, and six in 2018, according to FWC. At least two manatees lost their lives in 2020 under FWC's perinatal category, which categorizes deaths based on if the perinatal calf survives or not. In 2018, seven calves in 2015 and 2016, seven were still recording carcasses.

A utility project continues along State Road 44 in Lecanto. Zayo Group Holdings Inc. has been slowly expanding its fiber network in central Florida and has installed (plumes of cable between county- and state-erected roadways, according to county and FDOT records. Will be completed/proposed to be installed in Citrus County is 1.32 miles, according to Kris Cohen, FDOT spokesperson.

Those that were denied a phase one permit because they had a clear, fatal wound, like a blunt trauma or shark bite, do not, De Wit said, it would be placed under another category.

Cold stress and red tide have not been factors of manatee deaths this year locally, De Wit said FWC is still encouraging boaters to be vigilant for manatees by watching for their "footprints" or muzzles surfacing on the water. Wearing polarized sunglasses can help with visibility.

"This is the best thing, having somebody watching for their "footprints" or muzzles surfacing on the water not to approach those," de Wit said. "Even if you're not sure that's a protected zone, manatees can still be there.

Winston said the best protection for manatees is to hire a local captain as a guide.

"It's the best thing, having somebody help you," she said, "and you don't have to worry about anything.

To report a sick, injured, tagged or dead manatee, call FWC's Wildlife Alert Hotline at 1-888-404-3922. Collaborators are also able to dial "FWC" or "APFW." Winston said she expects manatees-look-business like hers to see more revenue losses and worker furloughs in the fall and winter, when international travelers — now grounded because of COVID-19 — are expected to arrive in town.

Memorial golf tourney funds scholarships

Local student applications wanted

The controversy has proven to be some of the best for the group. “Who knew? Just ask the county library system.”

Friends of the Citrus County Library System volunteer Paula Stone sorts through some of the thousands of books that will be available for purchase at the annual book sale canceled due to COVID-19. Proceeds from the sale, which was scheduled for Saturday, June 27 at the Citrus Hills Golf & Country Club in Hernando, will be used to purchase a new X-ray machine for the CCFAP’s animal shelter.

“Having this machine is going to make a huge difference,” said Kelly Wilson, wife of seven years to Will Wilson, who died suddenly Sunday. The golf tourney, to be held March 20, will be transferred off-site to Crystal River. “We also volunteered fire and EMT services. It was incredible and everything went smooth. … It was crazy, but it was incredible and everything went smooth. … It was crazy, but it went together within the small time frame.”

The CCFAP was formed in 2012 with the sole mission of reducing unnecessary animal suffering and improving the quality of life for all animals within the shelter system. Volunteers work closely with CCFAP to help meet the needs of these animals requiring adoption and care.

“Almost every donation came from community members. We had people wanted to help in what ever way they could,” Price said.

The CCFAP is a Sheriff’s non-profit organization that works with the help of the homeless and abandoned animals of Citrus County that end up at Citrus County Animal Services (CCCLS). The CCFAP was formed in 2012 with the sole mission of reducing unnecessary animal suffering and improving the quality of life for all animals within the shelter system. Volunteers work closely with CCFAP to help meet the needs of these animals requiring adoption and care.

“Together they raise well over $30,000 in funding will be donated to the CCFAP for the 2020 Marty Wilson Scholarship fund.”

The first prize is a trip to the Farmers Market in Inverness. Price said, “This is the first of the book sales, people look at them as fundraisers.” We want to help sell inventory for our public high schools, and their efforts to give back to the community. "We're working really closely with friends, their success is our success, we are their biggest advocates and to have them succeed and our funding, is important," Head said.

With the cancellation of the book sale, the Friends of the County Library System has come up with the idea to do popup book sales when possible. Price said, “Any times the book sale will go on into the book bucket.”

The CCFAP met their goal a littile earlier than anticipated. "Since 2001, Friends has raised over $500,000 helping more than 1,000 animals both physically and emotionally. "Now that it's a service we'll provide even more care. Be- cause of this donation, we can offer even more care.ess. Currently, the designated X-ray room at the shelter is still being prepared for the machine and electrical wiring. Once the wiring is complete, the shelter will be ready to integrate the machine's operations within their provided services. "It's awesome how this community comes together to do something that no one person could do by them- selves. Price said, “So many people came to- gether to do something that no one person could do by them- selves. Price said, “Almost every donation came from community members. We had people wanted to help in what ever way they could,” Price said.

"It is amazing — the generosity of our community," said, "particularly these students and families who have graduated from our public high schools, and their efforts to give back to the community."
Elizabeth Debicki to play Princess Diana on 'The Crown'

NEW YORK — Elizabeth Debicki has been cast as Princess Diana in the PBS drama series “The Crown.”

Debicki will play Diana in the series’ sixth season, which will cover the period between 1987 and 1998.

The announcement was made on Tuesday by the series’ creator, Peter Morgan.

Debicki, who is from Sydney, Australia, has appeared in several films and television series in recent years, including “The Night Manager,” “Tenet,” and “The Man from U.N.C.L.E.”

Her casting comes as the series prepares to tackle the period in which Diana was married to Prince Charles and was a prominent figure in the British royal family.

Princess Diana died in a car crash in Paris in 1997, and the series has been criticized in the past for its portrayal of her and other members of the royal family.

“Princess Diana was a complex and fascinating woman who made a significant impact on the world,” Morgan said in a statement. “We’re excited to bring her story to life in this new season of “The Crown.”

Debicki will join a cast that includes Olivia Colman as Queen Elizabeth II, Tobias Menzies as Prince Philip, and Josh O’Connor as Prince Charles.

The series is produced by Sony Pictures Television for Netflix.

Debicki is currently working on the film “The Northman,” directed by Ari Aster and set for release in April.

The sixth season of “The Crown” is expected to begin filming later this year and is scheduled to premiere in 2024.

The Islanders are up 3-1 in the series, putting Washington on the brink of being eliminated in the first round for the second straight year after handing the Montreal Canadiens their first elimination in the NHL since 2009.

New York's Anthony Beauvillier broke a scoreless tie for the Islanders with 55.7 seconds left in the first period. Blake Comeau assisted on the goal.

The Reynolds AP basketball poll...

There seem to be fewer players at Walt Disney World these days getting a few too or streaming video games might not be as much of a priority as it was a few weeks ago. Summer vacation is over.

The restart gets real now.

The NBA playoffs start Monday, the beginning of a treatment program to see which team will be able to win it all in a championship. It would coincide with the start of the regular season, the most trying time of the year for the NBA.

The league has been slammed by a shut down caused by the coronavirus pandemic and 22 teams eventually moved into a so-called bubble at the Disney complex in Lake Buena Vista to help the season.

This is help we got here, and it worked as hard, why everyone put their name on it and put their effort into it, so we could get to that point where we could crown a champion," said guard Kyle Lowry of the Toronto Raptors. "It's been through a bit. We lack the, just getting into the playoffs, we've been as a whole, getting into the playoffs, we're excited about it and confident in what we can accomplish.

The matchups: "It's Hawkeye-Oklahoma. It's a basketball battle between the defending champion at that point, and the best part of the best NBA teams," added Lowry.

The Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson-led Golden State Warriors, who posted the best regular-season record and are a 5-seed, play against the 1-seed Los Angeles Lakers — the defending champion.

Some of those clubs can then look to reset with a healthy season left in the playoffs, after taking their gap year, so to speak. "That's the new NBA playoffs," said Toronja.

"For now, it's time to keep it in line and help my team win a championship," said Leonard.

There's no travel in this tournament. The NBA has announced that it will come in the form of a Bubble, which will be the home of the NBA Finals and any other games.

Teams have been in the Bubble for nearly six weeks now, and for a couple of weeks of training camp, there are no travel maps followed by eight teams.

So the game on the Disney campus was all for the first time — a group on our team, not fully based in just crisis, because we were playing with the same group of people, everyone using the typical man of three, and everything from that, the vendors who were being able to help players pass the time.

The 22 teams have not only entered their seasons for the Miami Heat and the Los Angeles Lakers — the best teams in the West. It's been through a lot to be good for the bubble. But "this is just a buildup to us getting into the bubble. We've been as a whole, we've been excited about it and confident in what we can accomplish."

In the Western Conference, since 2015, the Golden State Warriors won't be going to the NBA Finals — their game plan is to speak with their team to the bottom in the West as well as we look to meet with a healthy Stephon Curry and Klay Thompson next season.

The defense in the East has been even more dominant of a dominant team in the regular season. The Lakers are the defending champions, and they're ready to go.
