BOCC to chew on dog park idea for Citrus Springs

MICHAEL D. BATES Staff writer

County commissioners Tuesday will vote on a proposed dog park at Citrus Springs Community Center, to be paid for through impact fees.

Citrus County has just one public dog park and it's in Homosassa. But that's 15 miles away from Citrus Springs and a resident asked Commissioner Ruthie Davis Schlabach to look into building another on 2.5 acres.

Schlabach asked staff to crunch the numbers. Their estimate: $64,322. Of that, 82% of the cost was for clearing land and fencing the property, which would be divided into two separate sections for large and small dogs. Plus, about $3,800 would go into annual operation costs.

Staff said the park could be hen Dr. Charles Li came to Chicago in 1974 after serving as a surgeon in Taiwan, he may not have imagined he'd wind up in practice in a small town along the Gulf Coast of Florida, from where he's retiring 43 years later at 76.

But Dr. Li, a family practitioner, has found that "Crystal River is a good town to live in, and it's growing ... I like the living style.'

Dr. Bhadresh Patel has purchased Li's clinic along West Gulf-to-Lake Highway in Crystal River, and Dr. Jerome Carolino, a family practitioner, is the new doctor. Dr. Patel now owns four clinics — in Beverly Hills, Inverness, Floral City, and Crystal River — that are part of West Florida Medical Associates.

"Dr. Li has done a service to Crystal River for over 40 years, serving the nursing homes and the hospital," Dr. Patel said. "He's a very dedicated physician ... and is very professional in his approach to taking care of patients," according to Dr. Patel.

Dr. Li immigrated to Chicago, and after three years as a resident physician there, he moved to Florida. A friend in Ocala told him about "a good opportunity," Li said, and urged him to apply when Seven Rivers Community Hospital opened in 1978. He did, and he's been tending to the medical needs of Citrus County residents ever since.

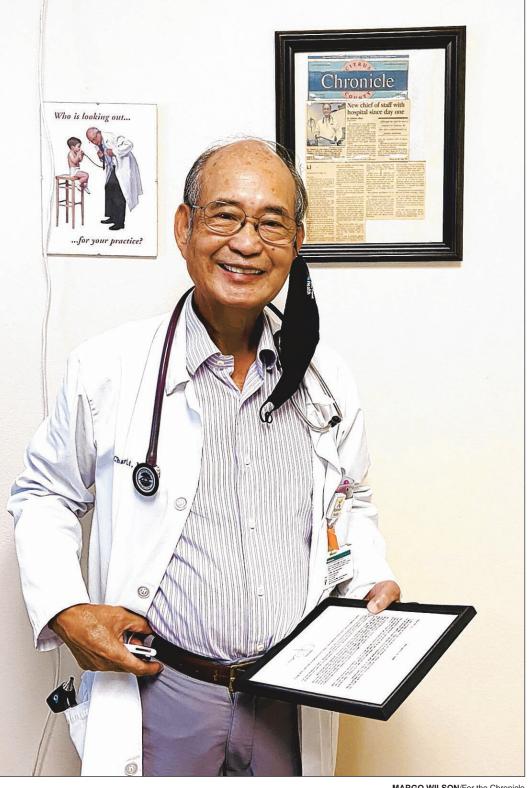

His wife, Su-Jan, who was trained as a chemist and taught high school physics in Taiwan, helped run Li's office.

"She's a good person," he said, smiling. Li recalled when he first moved to Crystal River, "You could see fish. You could see the bay from Highway 19.'

As Crystal River grew up, Li worked to become a good counselor and friend to his patients.

Compared to other medical specialties, a family practice doctor, he has found, has "more patient interaction. We provide the frontline care.'

He said he also has gotten to know his patients' family members.

Longtime Citrus County physician Dr. Charles Li has sold his practice in Crystal River and retired. Dr. Li has served area families for three generations and is a former chief of staff of Seven Rivers and See DEDICATION/Page A7 medical director of three nursing homes.

Poll: Most want parent control in school mask debate

JOHN HAUGHEY The Center Square

A slight majority of recently polled Floridians agree with Gov. Ron DeSantis that parents should determine if their children should wear masks in school, but a majority disapprove of the governor's stance in banning businesses from requiring proof of vaccination from patrons and employees.

The school mask and "vaccine passport" issues have embroiled Florida in controversy this summer winter in the form of litigation, court rulings and legislative action when lawmakers convene in January for their 2021 legislative session. On Tuesday, the state's Board of Education determined the Alachua and Broward county school districts' mandatory mask mandates violate state law and DeSantis' June 30 executive order that allows parents to decide if their students wear masks at school.

Both districts face sanctions that may include withholding the allowing parents to decide if their

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Don Everly, one-half of the pioneering Everly Brothers whose harmonizing country rock hits impacted a generation of rock 'n' roll music, has died. He was 84.

Everly died at his home in Nashville, Tennessee, on Saturday, according to his attorney and family spokesperson Linda Edell Howard. His brother, Phil Everly, died in January 2014 at age 74.

"Don lived by what he felt in his heart," a statement from the family said. "Don expressed his appreciation for the ability to live his dreams ... living in love with his soul mate and wife Adela, and sharing the music that made him an Everly Brother. Don always expressed how grateful he was for his fans."

In the late 1950s and 1960s, the duo of Don and Phil drew upon their rural roots with their strummed guitars and high, yearning harmonies, while their poignant songs — many by the team of Felice and Boudleaux Bryant — embodied teenage restlessness and energy.

Their 19 top 40 hits included "Bye Bye Love," "Let It Be Me," "All I Have to Do Is Dream" and "Wake Up Little Susie," and performers from the Beatles to Simon & Garfunkel cited them as key influences.

"The Everly Brothers are integral to the fabric of American music," said Jerry Lee Lewis in a statement. "With my friend Don's passing, I am reflective ... reflective on a life full of wonderful friends, spectacular music and fond memories. There's a lot I can say about Don, what he and Phil meant to me both as people and as musicians, but I am going to reflect today."

Songs like "Bye Bye Love" and "Wake Up Little Susie" appealed to the postwar generation of baby boomers, and their deceptively simple harmonies hid greater meaning among the lighter pop fare of the era.

The two broke up amid quarreling in 1973 after 16 years of hits, then reunited in 1983, "sealing it with a hug," Phil Everly

Although their number of hit records declined in the late 1980s, they had successful concert tours in the U.S. and Europe.

They were inducted into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame in 1986, the same year they had a hit pop-country record, "Born Yesterday." Two years earlier, they had success with the uptempo ballad "On the Wings of a Nightingale," written by Paul McCartney.

Their career breakthrough came when they moved to Nashville in the mid-1950s and signed a recording contract with New York-based Cadence Records.

Their breakup came dramatically during a concert at Knott's Berry Farm in California. Phil Everly threw his guitar down and walked off, prompting Don Everly to tell the crowd, "The Everly Brothers died 10 years ago."

The disputes between the brothers even went to court, when Don Everly sued the heirs of Phil Everly in 2017 over the copyright to three of their songs, including "Cathy's Clown."

grew up in Barrington, IL In his senior year, he was tapped by the Evans University of Chicago. With his artistic talent as an Art Major, UCI enabled Wayne to spend a semester of study in Europe. After receiving his Masters in Fine Art in 1960, Wayne moved about a bit from Cape Cod to St. Thomas, Mexico and finally Manhattan. It was in Manhattan where Wayne joined the evolving stroke and a old back inabstract expressionism movement. His artwork was exhibited throughout the United States and Europe.

According to the FAU BEPI survey, however, 66% of respondents said they agreed with federal Centers for Disease Control & Prevention (CDC) recommendations that all public school students, staff and teachers wear masks in school, regardless of vaccination status, while 30% disagreed and 4% were unsure.

In addition, two-thirds of respondents — just over 67% — said universities should require vaccinations for students, especially those who chose to live in campus housing.

More than 85% of respondents who identified themselves as of parents with children ages 6-11 said they would get their child inoculated when a vaccine is approved for children.

Of respondents who identified themselves as ages 12-18, 76% said their children has received at least one COVID-19 vaccine shot or plans to receive it soon; 24% say they do not plan to get their children vaccinated.

During the 2021 legislative session, lawmakers adopted Senate Bill 2006, which bans businesses from requiring proof of vaccinations for entry of services or face $5,000 fines for each violation.

Norwegian Cruise Line challenged the law in a federal lawsuit and secured a temporarily injunction blocking SB 2006's implementation.

A significant majority of respondents in the FAU BEPI survey say they disagree with the ban on businesses requesting proof of vaccination as a violation of property rights.

For businesses requiring their employees being vaccinated, 65% said they support such measures while 30% were opposed and 5% were unsure.

For passengers on airlines, 68% support "vaccine passports" while 29% oppose and 4% were unsure, according to the survey.

When it comes to cruise ships, 70% said they support vaccination proof while 25% are opposed and 5% unsure.

A slight majority - 53% said restaurants and of parents with children other retailers should be allowed to bar the unvaccinated if they chose with 40% disagreeing and 7 % unsure.

Another 61% of FAU BEP survey respondents said they support vaccine mandates for those attending large sports and entertainment events while 33% said they disagreed with such measures.

NOTICE OF HEARING TO IMPOSE AND PROVIDE FOR COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

2139-0823MCRN

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council of the City of Crystal River, Florida, will conduct a public hearing to consider creation of the Indian Waters, Phase I Sewer Expansion Project Assessment Area ("Assessment Area"), as shown above, and to impose special assessments against certain parcels of property located therein. The hearing will be held at 5:30 P.M., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard, on September 13, 2021 in the Council Chamber, City Hall, 123 N.W. Highway 19, Crystal River, Florida for the purpose of receiving public comment on the proposed assessment area and assessments. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, persons needing a special accommodation or an interpreter to participate in this proceeding should contact the City Manager at 352/795-4216 at least two (2) days prior to the date of the hearing. All affected property owners have a right to appear at the hearing and to file written objections with the City Council within 20 days of this notice. If a person wishes to appeal any decision made by the City Council with respect to any matter considered at the hearing, such person will need a record of the proceedings and may need to ensure that a verbatim record is made, including the testimony and evidence upon which the appeal is to be made.

The Assessments have been proposed to fund design and construction of the Sewer Expansion Project that will provide the properties within the proposed Assessment Area with central wastewater collection services. These facilities include the pipes, mains, lift stations, vacuum stations, and other facilities required for the City to provide wastewater collection services to all properties located in the Assessment Area. The assessment for each parcel of property will be based upon the number of "Lots" on the parcel on which a dwelling unit has been or can be constructed. Each tax parcel will be assigned these assessment units based on the number of existing dwelling units plus the number of buildable lots on the parcel.

A more specific description is set forth in the Initial Assessment Resolution adopted by the City Council on August 10, 2021. Copies of the Initial Assessment Resolution and the preliminary assessment roll are available for inspection at Clerk's Office, City Hall, 123 N.W. Highway 19, Crystal River, Florida. Copies of the plans and specifications for the Sewer Expansion Project are available for inspection at the Utilities Department, 123 N.W. Highway 19, Crystal River, Florida.

The assessments will be collected on the ad valorem tax bill, as authorized by Section 197.3632, Florida Statutes. Failure to pay the assessments will cause a tax certificate to be issued against the property which may result in a loss of title. The City Council intends to collect the assessments in twenty (20) annual assessments, the first of which will be included on the ad valorem tax bill to be mailed in November 2021. Future annual assessments may be prepaid at the option of the property owner.

But now a Fort Myers legislator is trying to re-introduce political parties into school board races by proposing that the constitutional amendment making school board elections non-partisan be repealed and elections become partisan again.

The proposal faces some procedural headwinds, including a requirement that it get legislative approval to be on the 2022 ballot, and then be approved by 60% of Florida voters. If it receives this approval it would be in effect in the 2024 election.

In defending the proposal, Rep. Spencer Roach of Fort Myers, a frequent critic of "liberal" policies adopted by school boards, said there is now a partisan divide on issues facing school boards, and voters should know the political positions of board members when they are running.

We should be clear. Partisan political elections for local office may be justified on the grounds that local officials are exercising political power in carrying out their duties.

The same cannot be said for local school boards. Their mission is adoption of policies and hiring staff to educate the young people in our society. Like judges, their mission should be nonpartisan.

Making school board elections partisan would only serve to widen cultural divides and exacerbate political tensions by introducing partisan politics into the

Sensible policies will control pandemic

COVID-19 cases are soaring to their highest levels since the pandemic began. Here in Florida, we have the highest infection rates in the country. And yet our governor refuses to act, apparently for political reasons. It doesn't make sense.

Gov. DeSantis has blocked school boards from making their own decisions regarding mask requirements. He has also prohibited businesses from requiring their customers to be vaccinated. Whatever happened to local control?

Our high infection rates are affecting the economy. Tourists are discouraged about coming to Florida. I personally know people who have changed their vacation plans, entirely due to our status as the worst COVID hotspot. Their dollars will be spent somewhere else this Folks say that DeSantis has presidential ambitions. Then why is he willing to let his constituents die? Dead people don't contribute to our economy ... and they certainly can't vote.

We need sensible policies to get the "pandemic of the unvaccinated" under control now. Please governor, help us to live and maybe vote for you in the future.

Li carried this sense of camaraderie with him when he was named chief of staff at Seven Rivers Hospital, 22 years after joining the facility's medical team.

As chief of staff, he found himself busy with meetings and paperwork. And he endeavored to make the hospital environment seem more professional.

For example, under his tenure, nurses wore white uniforms to distinguish them from other hospital staff. They previously had blended in with everyone else.

As if supervising the hospital employees didn't keep him busy enough, Li also was medical director of three nursing homes. And he carved time out of his calendar to actively participate with Rotary of Crystal River, a group of which he's

She said Li's been named a Paul Harris Fellow three times. Fellows are honored for contributing at least $1,000 to the Rotary Foundation or other Rotary causes, and sometimes are honored for other activities.

Haitians return to churches, gangs offer aid 'All for one,

one for all' EVENS SANON

AND

MARKO ALVAREZ

Associated Press

LES CAYES, Haiti — A Haitian gang leader on Sunday offered a truce and help for communities shattered by a devastating earthquake — potentially offering a break for a relief effort that has been plagued by hijacked aid trucks and disorder.

The offer came as many Haitians resumed services in or outside damaged churches, sometimes for the first time since the magnitude 7.2 quake of Aug. 14. The country's Civil Protection Agency also raised toll of dead to 2,207.

It wasn't immediately clear how much impact the truce offer might have: While powerful, Jimmy Cherizier, alias "Barbecue," is far from the only gang leader in Haiti and widely repeated social media reports of an earlier gang truce failed to prevent attacks on the expanding relief effort.

Gangs have blocked roads, hijacked aid trucks and stolen supplies, forcing relief workers to transport supplies by helicopter. In places, desperate crowds have scuffled over bags of food.

Cherizier addressed a Facebook video on Sunday to the nardest-nit parts of the Haiti's southwestern peninsula, saying "We want to tell them that the G9 Revolutionary Forces and allies, all for one and one for all, sympathize with their pain and sorrows."

"The G9 Revolutionary Forces and allies ... will participate in the relief by bringing them help. We invite all compatriots to show solidarity with the victims by trying to share what little there is with them."

The increase in the death toll was the first since late Wednesday when the government put it at 2,189. The government said Sunday that 344 people were still missing, 12,268 people were injured and nearly 53,000 houses were destroyed by the quake.

In Les Cayes, many attended church to mourn those lost and give thanks for their own survival.

At an evangelical church in the Bergeaud neighborhood, parishioners sang hymns under beams of sunlight streaming through holes in the roof and walls.

Pastor Sevrain Marc Dix Jonas, said Sunday's service was special because until now his congregation had been unable to meet since the quake.

'Today was a must,'' Dix Jonas said, standing below a gaping opening high in his church's facade. "To thank God. He protected us. We did not die."

His church was one of the few where congregants could worship inside. At many others, services were held in the street outcollapsed side sanctuaries. Taking that into account, Roman Catholic church in Les Cayes moved its morning service to 6:30 a.m. to avoid the heat of day.

Tropical Storm Henri makes landfall in Rhode Island

Associated Press

WESTERLY, R.I. — Tropical Storm Henri hit the coast of Rhode Island Sunday, packing high winds that knocked out power to tens of thousands of homes and bands of rain that led to flash flooding from New Jersey to Massachusetts.

The storm was downgraded from a hurricane to a tropical storm, and made landfall near Westerly, R.I., Sunday afternoon with sustained winds of about 60 mph and gusts of up to 70 mph, according to the National Hurricane Center. Henri has since weakened and now has sustained winds of 50 mph as it moves inland.

As the winds and rain gave way to sun and blue skies, some who lost power in Westerly began clearing debris or took a stroll to survey the effects of the storm.

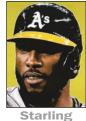

Sisters Carolyn and Meredith Mase were visiting cousins in Westerly this weekend when Henri hit. The storm knocked out power to their beach house, but they were undeterred and planned to spend the afternoon walking the beach and playing board games.

Most of their neighbors stayed through the storm, too. Carolyn Mase said the storm's approach was apparent on Saturday as the waves built in strength through the day. The water, she said, seemed unusually warm, making it an especially nice day to swim. Saturday night, she said, someone set off fireworks on the beach.

"We were not worried," said Carolyn Mase, who now lives in Providence, R.I. "We figured it probably wouldn't be that bad,

Cabrera hits his 500th

Tigers slugger reaches vaunted home run mark

Associated Press

TORONTO — Detroit Tigers slugger Miguel Cabrera became the 28th major league player to hit 500 home runs, reaching the milestone in the sixth inning Sunday against the Toronto Blue Jays.

The 14,685 fans at Rogers Centre rose for a standing ovation as Cabrera rounded the bases. After celebrating with his teammates, the Tigers slugger came out of the dugout to accept a curtain call, taking off his helmet and bowing to the crowd behind Detroit's dugout.

Cabrera, who won the Triple Crown and the first of back-to-back MVP awards in 2012, is the first Venezuelan to hit 500 homers. He is hoping to become the first hitter to reach 500 homers and 3,000 hits in the same season.

His 500th home run was hit No. 2,955 of his career, and he can reach that 3,000 milestone this year, too, if he can stay healthy and average one hit per game. Only six players have 3,000 hits and 500 homers: Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez and Eddie Murray.

His pursuit of these big numbers has become a bright spot for a Detroit team that finally seems to be emerging from a difficult rebuild, approaching a

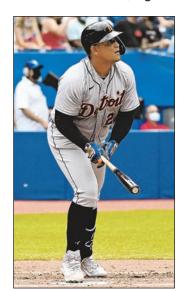

.500 record. Cabrera is the sixth player born outside the United States to reach 500 homers. He joins Pujols, Palmeiro, Sammy Sosa, Manny Ramirez and David Ortiz, who reached the mark in 2015 and was the last to pull off the feat before Cabrera. He is also the first player to reach the mark in a Tigers uniform. In 2012, Cabrera became the first player in 45 years to win the Triple Crown by leading the league in batting average, home runs, and

MICHAEL MAROT AP sports writer

BROOKLYN, Mich. — Ryan Blaney needed a push to pass William Byron on Sunday.

Kyle Busch provided the boost.

With Busch's help, Blaney took the lead on the final restart, then bobbed and weaved his way around Michigan International Speedway to beat Byron by 0.077 seconds. It was the narrowest victory margin in a Cup race at this track since electronic scoring began.

"I wouldn't say we had the best car," Blaney said. "We got pretty good, to a point where I thought we could run fourth or fifth and it just worked out to where he could give us a push and it just worked out."

Blaney won for the second time this season and sixth overall, capping a big weekend for Team Penske, which won Saturday's IndyCar race in suburban St. Louis and then this victory, not far from Roger Penske's Detroit roots. Ford also has won seven straight at Michigan.

IN BASEBALL

THIS DATE

1906 — On their way to the American League pennant, the Chicago White Sox beat the Washington Senators 4-1 for their 19th straight victory.

1931 — Lefty Grove of the Philadelphia Athletics was beaten 1-0 by Dick Coffman of the St. Louis Browns, snapping a personal 16-game winning streak. A misjudged fly ball by outfielder Jim Moore led to the winning run.

1936 — In his first major-league start, 17-year-old Bob Feller struck out 15 Browns as the Cleveland Indians beat St. Louis 4-1. Feller gave up six hits and allowed four walks.

1952 — During a game against the Cardinals at the Polo Grounds, the Giants' Bob Elliott complained and kicked dirt arguing over a called strike. Umpire Augie Donatelli ejected him from the game. Bobby Hoffman finished the at-bat by being called out on strikes and was also ejected by Donatelli for arguing the 1982 — Seattle pitcher Gaylord Perry was ejected in the seventh inning for allegedly throwing a spitball against the Red Sox. It was the first ejection for Perry, who was subsequently suspended for 10 days.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Ugás beats Pacquiao by unanimous decision

LAS VEGAS — Yordenis Ugás beat Manny Pacquiao by unanimous decision on Saturday night, putting on an impressive technical performance on 11 days' notice and retaining his WBA welterweight title.

Ugás (27-4) seized his opportunity as the late injury replacement for Errol Spence Jr., frustrating Pacquiao (67-8-2) throughout what might be the final fight of the 42-year-old Filipino senator's career.

The 35-year-old Ugás threw roughly half as many punches as Pacquiao, but his blows were more precise and more effective. Pacquiao was the solid favorite before the bout, but the eight-division world champion struggled to get inside on Ugás' effective jab while Ugás landed his right hand to increasing effect in the later rounds.

"I'm very excited, but most of all, I want to thank Manny Pacquiao for giving me this moment in this ring today," Ugás said through a translator. "We only had two weeks of training, but I listened to my corner and it all worked out."

Two judges scored it 116-112 for Ugás, and a third had it 115-113. The Associated Press also scored it 116-112 for Ugás.

A visibly disappointed Pacquiao said he hasn't decided whether he will fight again after an unimpressive performance in his return from the longest layoff of his quarter-century in professional boxing. He also wouldn't confirm whether he will enter the Philippines' presidential race, as is widely expected. He intends to make an announcement next month.

Titans coach Vrabel tests positive for COVID-19

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Tennessee Titans coach Mike Vrabel said Sunday he has tested positive for COVID-19 and has quarantined pending further testing.

Vrabel told reporters he woke up with a sore throat and an earache. He went to the team headquarters Sunday morning to be tested, and the result came back positive. Another rapid test also turned up positive, so Vrabel was given a PCR test, which he expects will return Monday as positive.

"This isn't the first time that we've gone through this, so whatever the protocols are we'll follow them exactly how they're laid out," said Vrabel, who disclosed this spring that he was vaccinated.

The Titans beat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 34-3 in a preseason game Saturday night.

Barty, Zverev notch efficient wins in finals

MASON, Ohio - Ash Barty bounced back from a disappointing loss at the Tokyo Olympics. Gold medalist Alexander Zverev carried over his momentum from Tokyo.

Both are in fine form heading into the U.S. Open, which begins a week from Monday in New York.

The top-ranked Barty won her fifth title of the season, taking eight of the last nine games from wild card Jil Teichmann for a 6-3, 6-1 victory in the Western & Southern Open final on Sunday.

Zverev, too, had a relatively easy time in the Cincinnati final, winning the first four games en route to a 6-2, 6-3 victory over seventh-ranked Andrey Rublev.

"Just made a couple of bad moves, I guess," Larson said. "A little too impatient behind the No. 12 and allowed William to get by me and then I was hoping they would get racing and I thing," Blaney said. "So thanks, Kyle." Blaney also ended Kevin Harvick's winning streak at Michigan at three. But the consolation prize wasn't bad -clinching the 15th spot in the 16-car playoff that begins in two weeks.

Elliott beat Larson to the finish line to win the first stage, and Busch took the second stage over Joe Gibbs Racing teammate Christopher Bell.

ON THE OUTSIDE

Austin Dillon heads into the regular-season finale in 17th place after finishing third in the first stage but his day ended with a nasty crash as the second stage ended.

Dillon was trying to move up from below the white line when the No. 3 Chevrolet appeared to make contact with Brad Kesewlowski, sending Dillon hard into the outside wall and briefly airborne in the front straightaway. Keselowski apologized immediately on the radio. "I think we would have a shot for something there at the end with that race car," he said. "I thought we had a little room to come up but he just held me down a little bit.'

NEW DEAL

> Jones didn't divulge terms of the deal, which keeps him in the No. 43 Chevrolet. The announcement comes during a busy week in which he threw the first pitch at a Detroit Tigers game, stared a new charitable foundation and made an appearance for Chevy in Detroit.

> "It's cool to have it done," he said on a video call. "Happy to have it done at this point of the season not only so I can focus on the rest of this season but also so I can focus on next year."

TALKING IT OUT

Denny Hamlin said he's moved on from last week's tangle with Chase Briscoe at Indianapolis. Briscoe spun out the No. 11 Toyota with less than two laps left — and after Briscoe's team had been told he would be penalized for cutting off the second turn by driving through the grass.

They first spoke on pit road then engaged in a Twitter spat when Briscoe's radio transmissions were broadcast. It appeared to show the team was aware of the penalty before the contact. Briscoe then urged Hamlin to call him.

"We talked," Hamlin said. "We talked on pit road and we talked after that, so yeah, I'm good. He can't go back and change it. Would we do things differently next time? Probably. It was a bummer for me, yeah. I had as much at stake as he did." Hamlin hasn't won yet this season but has clinched a playoff spot. Briscoe can make the playoffs with a

ST. PETERSBURG — Briean Boddy-Calhoun returned a fumble 42 yards for a touchdown and the Tennessee Titans beat the Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers, who played without Tom Brady and several starters, 34-3 in a preseason game Saturday night.

Browns 17, Giants 13

CLEVELAND — Case Keenum showed why Cleveland invested in him to back up Baker Mayfield, throwing a touchdown pass and leading the Browns to a 17-13 win over the New York Giants in an exhibition game Sunday.

Keenum tossed a 7-yard TD pass to wide receiver KhaDarel Hodge to end Cleveland's opening possession. He finished 9 of 12 for 74 yards with an interception while playing most of the first half.

The Browns (2-0) rested Mayfield, running back Nick Chubb, All-Pro defensive end Myles Garrett and most of their starters for the second straight week.

So did the Giants (0-2), who got a 1-yard TD plunge from Devontae Booker in the first half when both teams played second- and third-stringers.

New York's No. 3 QB Brian Lewerke threw a TD pass to David Sills in the fourth quarter to pull the Giants within one. Instead of kicking the PAT, New York coach Joe Judge went for 2, but the Browns stuffed running back Gary Brightwell at the

The Giants had another late chance, but rookie safety Richard LeCounte III intercepted Lewerke in the end zone on the final play.

49ers 15, Chargers 10

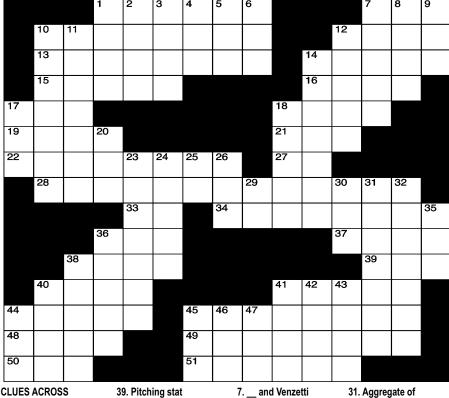

INGLEWOOD, Calif. — Trey Lance threw two touchdown passes and continued to make his case to be San Francisco's Week 1 starter as the 49ers rallied for a 15-10 victory over the Los Angeles Chargers on Sunday night.

Lance, the third overall pick in April's draft, had a rough start. He completed only one of his first six passes and was picked off in his first three series before settling down. Lance was 7 of 8 for 93 yards on his final three drives, which included the two TDs.

Lance, who finished 8 of 14 for 102 yards, also won the duel of former North Dakota State quarterbacks. Easton Stick, who mentored Lance in 2018 when the Bison won their seventh FCS title in eight years, got the start for the Chargers and was 10 of 14 for 85 yards and a touchdown.

When playing rubber bridge, declarer's primary aim should be to make his contract.

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

If there is a chance for an overtrick or two without risking the contract, fair enough — go for it. But if the contract is put in jeopardy, forget those overtricks.

It takes a lot of overtricks to equal the value of a game bonus.

overtrick. But anytime you go down in a contract that you could have had safe and sound, it will be hard to look your partner in the eye as he sees his wealth decreasing instead of increasing.

Without glancing at the East-West cards, decide how South should play in three no-trump after West leads a low club.

The careless declarer wins the first trick with the club jack and immediately takes a diamond finesse. It loses, and back comes a club to dummy's king.

South plays a spade to his hand and leads another diamond, but when West discards, declarer has that sinking feeling. He tries a heart, but both honors are offside, and West establishes and cashes his club suit.

The more careful South starts by counting his top tricks.

Given the club lead, he has eight: four spades, one diamond and three clubs.

Only one more trick is needed, and it is guaranteed if he attacks

Declarer should lead a low heart from his hand at trick two.

Even if West wins with the queen and plays another club, South leads a second heart, establishing his ninth trick while he has all of the suits stopped.

Annıe offers advice ear Annie: I have had many odd symptoms over the years that got worse, and it has taken much research to finally get help. I have deficiencies in vitamins D and B12 that require more than a multivitamin.

Doctors don't learn nutrition in medical school and are unaware of what deficiencies look like. Vitamins aren't part of rout i n e bloodwork. Please advise readers to request their vitamins, as well as their children's, be checkedwhen having blood drawn. If deficient, it is important to educate oneself on the possible cause, symptoms and where to get help. Deficiencies don't go away on their own and they have health consequences over time. Thank you. — Vitamins Can Be Vital

Dear Vitamins: Thank you for your letter. You bring up a very important point about nutrition. You can get many of your vitamins if you eat a well-balanced diet, but knowledge is power. Learning from your doctor what vitamins you are deficient in could really help your overall health.

Dear Annie: I read with interest and sadness the letter from "Forgotten Daughter," who believes her mom is developing dementia or Alzheimer's disease like their grandfather had. I know this process firsthand.

My maternal grandmother had this dreaded disease, and now my mom has it. Like the writer's mom, my mom showed signs earlier than her parents did. I agree with your advice that it is important to get the person to see their doctor. However, they should know that it is often difficult to get the loved one to agree, because they believe (or want to believe) there is nothing wrong with them. It is also important to see a doctor who is knowledgeable about dementia, or you can end up worse off than you started. Finally, as to the loved one telling the same stories over and over, and the defensiveness—these are parts of the disease that all caregivers and family have to learn to cope with. The one piece of advice that has been the most fruitful for our family and caregivers is not to argue.

If she wants to say the same thing more than once, I have to practice the skill of patience, which is not my favorite - nor most people's — but it comes in handy. Likewise, trying to be understanding when they get frustrated and working on not taking it personally.

Watching someone you love fall victim to dementia is a challenging and sometimes brutal journey. But there are good moments, too; good and tender moments of connection. These are what keep us (relatively) sane, and I wish many such moments to the letter writer and their mom. Thank you for being an advocate for good attention to dementia patients and their families. — See It Firsthand

Dear Firsthand: Thank you for your wonderful advice. You clearly have experience with the disease and are handling it with grace. Best of luck to you and your family.

Dear Annie: As a caregiver and a daughter-in-law, I would just like to say your advice for "Forgotten Daughter" is spot on. This daughter is in a very hard position, but she should try to remember that our reality can't be forced onto her mom. Sometimes, you have to live in her reality and pretend you have never heard that story or just go along with what she says.

Enjoy every moment and story that you can, because when they are gone, you will wish you could hear them one more time. I have to remind my husband of this all the time. Don't regret not taking the time you have to build good memories now. — Understanding Caregiver

Dear Understanding Caregiver: I love the idea of enjoying every moment, memory and story with those we love. Cherishing those we love each day is the biggest gift we can give to them and to ourselves.

Nordqvist wins Women's British Open, 3rd major title

Associated Press

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland -Anna Nordqvist kept her ball out of trouble to make a routine par at the last and win the Women's British Open for a third major title.

For playing partner Nanna Koerstz Madsen, her 72nd hole of the tournament could hardly have been more traumatic.

The Scandinavians were tied for the lead on 12-under par as they made their way down the famous No. 18 at Carnoustie on Sunday, with even their tee shots unable to really separate

After Nordqvist landed her approach from the middle of the fairway safely on the green and 25 feet from the pin, Koerstz Madsen turned away in disgust light rough on the left into a horseshoe-shaped greenside bunker on the right

Three players — Lizette Salas (69), 2018 champion Georgia Hall (67) and Madelene Sagstrom (68) — tied for second place, with a double bogey at the last dropping Koerstz Madsen (71) into a tie for fifth with Minjee Lee (66).

By adding the Women's Open to her victories at the 2009 LPGA

Championship and the The 51-year-old Australian won 2017 Evian Championship, the 34-year-old Swede became just the third European woman after Annika Sorenstam and Laura Davies — to have won three or more majors. She received a check of $870,000 from the $5.8 million purse, the largest in women's golf.

When it was all over, Nordqvist was joined on the 18th green by her husband, Kevin McAlpine, a former Scottish Amateur champion who is from Dundee, a city barely 20 minutes from Carnoustie. On Christmas trips back to Scotland, the couple play the storied links course that can often bring players to their knees but was defenseless Sunday because of little wind and almost balmy temperatures.

A third round of 65 — the lowest round of the week — set up Nordqvist's first win in four years, since the Evian Championship. But the title was up for grabs midway through the final round when, at one stage, there were six players in a share of the lead on 9 under, including the overnight leaders in the final group.

In the end, what transpired on the 18th hole over a stretch of couple of hours decided the championship. First, Lee, who started five shots back but briefly moved into outright first place, made bogey to drop to 10 under overall after nearly going into the Barry Burn that runs in front of the green.

Sagstrom, playing in the thirdto-last group, also bogeyed the last to fall out of a three-way share of the lead.

Salas missed a 15-foot birdie putt in the next-to-last group and couldn't get to 12 under, leaving Nordqvist and Koerstz Madsen to duel it out.

While Nordqvist played the 72nd hole perfectly, Koerstz Madsen lost her nerve as she sought to become the first Dane — male or female — to win a major.

'On 18, I tried to not make a mistake," she said, "and that was the only thing I shouldn't do.'

It was the first year since 2010 that a South Korean failed to win a major.

The last 13 LPGA majors have been won by 13 different

Rod Pampling takes Boeing Classic for first Champions crown

SNOQUALMIE, Wash. — Rod Pampling won the Boeing Classic for his first PGA Tour Champions victory when Jim Furyk and Woody Austin failed to get up-and-down for birdie from greenside bunkers on the par-5

Pampling, playing five groups ahead of Furyk and Austin at Snoqualmie Ridge, shot a 6-under 66 to finish at 12-under 204.

three times on the PGA Tour, the last in 2017 in Las Vegas, and has two PGA Tour of Australasia wins.

"It's fantastic," Pampling said. "You look at all the Hall of Famers are just phenomenal out here. There's so many and they still play really good golf, which people think they don't, but I'll tell you what, they play so good. It's just not quite as far off the tee anymore, but everything else is still really good. To get a win you've got to play good and thankfully I did today."

Furyk dropped a stroke back with a bogey on the par-3 17th after hitting well short of the green and chipping 8 feet past. He hit left into a greenside bunker on 18, sent his third across the green nearly to the fringe and missed a 20-footer.

'Today on the way in everyone kind of ended up making some bogeys and went the other way," Furyk said. "It's just kind of that type of golf course. There's some holes where there's just no bail-out, so you fly it at the pin and if you hit a good shot, great. if not, you make bogey. There's a few of those holes.'

Austin, the second-round leader, took two to get out of a right-side bunker and made a bogey to drop to 10 under.

Furyk had a 70 to tie for second with Tim Herron (67) and Billy Mayfair (69). Austin's closing 72 left him tied for fifth with Alex Cejka (66).

Pampling opened eagle-birdie, birdied Nos. 7 and 9, bogeyed the 10th, birdied Nos. 11, 12 and 14 and bogeyed the 16th.

"Just obviously come out of the gates quick, eagle-birdie start, that sort of got me right there," Pampling

Colin Montgomerie, playing in the final group with Furyk and Austin, shot a 74 to tie for 11th at 7 under. He had a double bogey on 17 after hitting into the water.

Local favorite Fred Couples closed with a 71 to tie for 26th at 4 under.

American Veerman claims Czech Masters for 1st Euro Tour title

VYSOKY UJEZD, Czech Republic — Johannes Veerman closed with a 4-under 68 to win the Czech Masters for his maiden European

The American finished two strokes ahead of Tapio Pulkkanen of Finland and another American Sean Crocker for a 15-under total of 273 at Albatross Golf Resort near Prague.

Veerman's previous best European Tour finish was third at the Irish Open earlier this season.

"It's unbelievable. I mean, I played with two great players today, both of them played really well the whole entire way," Veerman said. "At one point there were four of us all tied for the lead and I just stuck to my game. I can't believe I won. I'll wake up tomorrow and then I'll really feel it."
