Signs reminding parents to wear their masks while on campus their first day back, too, began their schooling online through Citrus Virtual — a district enrollment option for families who didn’t want to risk sending their kids back to school during the COVID-19 pandemic.

“I don’t really have any concerns,” said Audrey Huyer, who was dropping off her two sons, a first-grader and kindergartner. “I know the school has done a great job and they are doing a great job, the parents have been very helpful and staff with their own contact-tracing responses.

Many children were masked — a lot of the time — as they left their buses and filed onto the ramp. “I love you, back to their families, before they were even entered to class.

For district policy, students don’t have to wear face coverings if they’re from pre-kindergarten to second grade, at the higher grades only in eating or breaks in the lunch.

McHugh said with some student tested positive travel to Citrus High School.

“Something’s going to change after this thing is over,” he said while McHugh said with some students had tested positive, Manatee schools have been quarantined for 14 days.

Petition calls to lift bar exam requirement

The proposed constitutional amendment to county elections would result in the election of a county supervisor of elections and a county canvassing board. The county supervisor of elections would be elected by the voter, and the canvassing board would consist of the county supervisor of elections and the county commissioners. The amendment would also require the county supervisor of elections to hold a public hearing before making any changes to the election law.

NEW YORK — Big tech companies powered more gains on Wall Street Thursday, even as most stocks fell following more discouraging data on the economy. The S&P 500 rose 0.07% after ralling back from an earlier 0.6% loss as investors weighed new government data showing an increase in the number of Americans receiving unemployment aid last week. A separate report from the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia noted that manufacturing activity in its region is slowing. Like many investors, analysts had read too much into the improving economic data.

The discouraging report followed a government report showing more than 1.1 million U.S. workers filed for unemployment last week. That’s up from 915,000 the prior week and an indication that the pace of improvements for lay- offed workers is slowing. The number of jobless claims has already reached a three-decade peak and is expected to continue climbing through the fall across the country.

They are looking for signs for the stock market this year.

The futures for stocks showed a mixed opening on its sudden loss of momentum Monday after the stock indices dipped big in late trading on Friday, when the Federal Reserve Reserve lowered the interest rates at its annual meeting.

There are three main catalysts for the stock market this year: corporate earnings, the yield on the 10-year Treasury note and the dollar.

DAMIAN J. TROISE

I'd like to take this time to introduce myself to those of you who do not know me. My name is Vanessa Scott. I'm running for Crystal River City Council Seat 1. I've lived here permanently since 1993, since my husband retired from Crystal River High School. I am a small business owner for 26 years, mother of a number of members in this city, mayor's commission. I was even at the first mayor's meeting in 1989.

Alexander best choice for sheriff

I was thrilled to be able to accept the invitation to run for sheriff. This decision was a personal one, an internal reflection of my true feelings. It was the right decision for me. I am impressed with the work that the sheriff's office is doing. It is an honorable position and one that I feel I can do justice to.

Most people believe that the sheriff has an important role in the community. The sheriff is responsible for maintaining law and order and ensuring public safety. This is a complex and challenging job, and I feel that I am the best person to do it.

I have a lot of experience here and Crystal River is very special to me. It is a place I have never wanted to leave.

Now retired, I have contributed to my hom county in a number of ways. I have run for sheriff, contributed to candidates in the past. I have worked in various capacities, on the day and night shifts. I am a true supporter of the sheriff's department and I will always support it.

I am the one who truly understands the needs of the community. I am the one who is in the trenches, working hard for the people I represent. I am the one who is there when you need me. I am the one who will always be there for you.

I am the one who has the experience, the knowledge, and the understanding of what it takes to be sheriff. I am the one who will always be there for you. I am the one who will always be there for you. I am the one who will always be there for you.
Thursday there is no evidence that so-called ‘murder hornets’ have been found in part of Florida, our department has confirmed that there is no evidence of this species in Florida,” Agcubus Commissioner Mike Fiedel said in a prepared statement.

A news release from the department said the hornets, which feed on insects, wasp and honey bees, are native to Asia and soft fruits but rarely attack beehives, and said the U.S. Department of Agriculture is continuing to monitor the situation.

After suspected sightings, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services’ Division of Plant Industry issued an “alert” about Asian giant hornets.

Biden accepts nomination

President Donald Trump’s former chief strategist Steve Bannon speaks with reporters outside the courthouse, Bannon’s attorney, Dominic Maffei, said Thursday that his client had been turned over to immigration officers on $5 million bail, his lawyers on the telephone and in a holding cell with him insisted his midnight arrest was “an attack on the American people.”

Bannon, who ran Trump’s 2016 presidential campaign, was arrested in Wall Street insider trading case.

He is the latest addition to hundreds of thousands of former longshoremen and, along with scores of others, has been threatening legal action to leave the country and sue the company.

But according to the defense, the plundering continued.

California firefighters ‘taxed to the limit’

A startlingly long list of firefighters has been threatened with layoffs and furloughs by the state of California. The news comes as the state grapples with the long-term financial impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

As the state works to balance its budget, it is considering significant cuts to services, including the firefighting force. The proposed layoffs and furloughs are expected to affect thousands of firefighters across the state.

US demands restoration of UN sanctions on Iran

Trump administration on Thursday rejected the United Nations’ attempt to re-impose UN sanctions on Iran following Iran’s decision to resume enrichment.

The US is demanding that the UN Security Council restore sanctions imposed on Iran following its decision to resume enrichment.

Biden says US force in Iraq ‘should be there’

US President Joe Biden said that American forces in Iraq should remain as part of the US military presence in the region.

Biden’s decision to maintain a US military presence in Iraq is consistent with his administration’s broader approach of working with partners in the region to counter Iran’s influence.

Bridge

Who wants to play bridge? It's a game of skill, strategy, and luck. But it can also be a fun way to socialize and meet new people. If you're new to bridge, here are some tips to get you started:

1. Learn the basics: Before you start playing, make sure you understand the rules of the game. This includes understanding how to bid, how to play hands, and how to score points.
2. Practice: The more you play, the better you'll get. Try playing with friends or joining a bridge club to get more practice.
3. Watch and learn: Watch other bridge players in action to see how they make decisions and play their hands. This can help you improve your own game.
4. Learn from your mistakes: Everyone makes mistakes when they're learning a new game. Don't be afraid to make mistakes and learn from them.

Playing bridge can be a lot of fun and a great way to socialize. Give it a try and see if you like it!
