Holiday shopping may set record high

Staff writer

The Christmas shopping season has begun and retail analysts believe previous spending records could be shattered.

The National Retail Federation (NRF) predicts holiday sales during November and December will grow between 8.5% and 10.5% over last year to $843.4 billion and $859 billion.

The numbers, which exclude automobile dealers, gasoline stations and restaurants, compare with a previous high of 8.2% in 2020 to $777.3 billion.

"There is considerable momentum heading into the holiday shopping season," NRF President and CEO Matthew Shay said. "Consumers are in a very favorable position going into the last few months of the year as income is rising and household balance sheets have never been stronger." Man accused of battery, assault, mischief

Report: After singing 'Happy Birthday,' he threatened to set couple on fire

Staff writer

After a dispute, a Hernando man entered the home of two adults and one child, doused them in gasoline and threatened to set them on fire, according to a Citrus County Sheriff's Office arrest affidavit.

Scott Peterson, 50, was arrested and charged with hinder/delay/ prevent communication to law enforcement, criminal mischief, false report/information of any crime to law enforcement, aggravated child abuse, two counts of aggravated battery — use of a deadly weapon and aggravated assault with a deadly weapon without intent to kill. Bond was set at $19,000.

On Nov. 9, deputies responded to a domestic disturbance at a Hernando residence. Peterson, who was reportedly sitting in the driveway, told deputies he was armed prior to their arrival. He said he placed the fanny pack

According to the report, deputies found a large knife and a Glock model 26 semi-automatic pistol inside the fanny pack. The gun was loaded with an unspent round in the chamber and two additional loaded magazines.

Peterson alleged he was a former resident of the home and not in favor of the male victim who lives there. He also said he consumed an undisclosed amount of alcohol, including multiple pina coladas, but was not drunk.

According to Peterson's account, he entered the victims' bedroom while singing happy birthday, when one of them began squirting gasoline at his face. which he deflected with an inflatable whale.

He alleged the male and female victims then left the bedroom, locking him inside with the juvenile victim.

Throughout Peterson's stateedged there would be a strong presence of gasoline on the victims and inside the bedroom. Deputies found inconsistencies in Peterson's statement, which were disclaimed by the evidence.

While interviewing the female victim, deputies located a Zephyrhills water bottle containing what appeared to be gasoline. She reportedly told deputies about a dispute between Peterson and the male victim, which resulted in Peterson's arrival.

The female victim said she didn't hear Peterson enter and woke up to being squirted with something, which she realized was gasoline. She alleged Peterhouse or he would set them on fire as he was holding a lighter.

According to the report, the gasoline doused both adult victims, the juvenile and a large area of the bed linens and carpet.

The male victim reportedly told containing his firearm inside the ment, he reportedly acknowl- deputies Peterson "came into the room singing happy birthday" and proceeded to spray them with gasoline while threatening to set them on fire.

> The male victim also alleged he tried to separate himself from Peterson, who locked himself inside the bedroom with the victim's phone and refused to give it back. He told Peterson he was calling the cops to which Peterson replied, "no."

According to the male victim, Peterson also produced a "shovel handle," which he threatened him with. The victim was able to remove the weapon from Peterson.

Deputies attempted to speak to son told them to get out of the the juvenile, but determined her statement was of no evidentiary value due to her age and lack of understanding of what occurred.

Peterson was transported to the Citrus County Jail for booking and Type 4 grant: Freshwater Resources Educational Program.

According to the SWFWMD website, the goal of this grant type is for students to learn about the importance and protection of regional water resources

Grant recipients are to visit a facility that offers hands-on environmental education for freshwater or estuarine studies.

Rohan told the Chronicle she will be taking her IB environmental systems and society and AP environmental science students to the Homosassa Springs Wildlife Park in the spring.

"Prior to this field trip, we would be conducting water-quality testing through the Marine Science Station and their waterways, wildlife park to compare the data sets. This will allow us to analyze real-life data and discuss the differences in the protection and conservation of the two of the waterways in our county," Rohan

By testing water, Rohan said students will learn about freshwater sources, pollution and biodiversity. In addition, the field trip will give students access to our area's historical background, along with information about water conservation, native plants animals, laws and regulations.

Along with field trip expenses, Rohan said the grant money will toward

Disney's 'Eternals' tops domestic box office for 2nd weekend

Disney and Marvel's "Eternals" took a steep drop in its second weekend in theaters, but it's still hanging on to first place ahead of newcomers like "Clifford the Big Red Dog."

"Eternals" added $27.5 million over the weekend, bringing its domestic total to $118.8 million, according to studio estimates Sunday. The film, directed by Oscar-winner Chloé Zhao and starring Angelina Jolie, Kumail Nanjiani and Gemma Chan, fell 61% from its debut. Though not uncommon for a big superhero tentpole, it was significantly steeper than the 52% drop seen by the last Disney and Marvel offering, "Shang-Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings.'

Both played exclusively in theaters, but the main difference is that "Shang-Chi" simply got better ratings from audiences and critics. "Shang-Chi" also became available to stream on Disney+ this weekend. "Eternals" has made $281.4 million globally to Second place went to "Clifford the Big Red Dog," which opened in theaters during the week and was also available to stream at home for Paramount+ subscribers. It made an estimated $16.4 million from 3,700 theaters over the weekend and $22 million across its five days in release.

Though critics were not impressed (it has a 48% on Rotten Tomatoes), audiences were more forgiving, giving it a promising A CinemaScore. And "Clifford" managed to do this in the face of uncertain moviegoing conditions for families.

"There's been a lot of talk about family audiences and whether or not they want to go to the movie theater," said Paul Dergarabedian, Comscore's senior media analyst. "I think this is a really solid debut. It shows there is a demand for family films on the small screen and the big screen."

Blockbusters rounded out the top five with "Dune" in third place with $5.5 million, "No Time to Die" in fourth with $4.6 million and "Venom: Let There Be Carnage" in fifth with $4 million. Notably, "Venom 2" this weekend became only the second pandemic-era film to cross the $200 million mark at the domestic box office. The other was "Shang-Chi."

More and more awards hopefuls are entering the specialty box office as well, and many are making their way into the top 10. This weekend Kenneth Branagh's semi-autobiographical film "Belfast" made $1.8 million from 580 screens in its debut. In its second weekend, "Spencer," featuring Kristen Stewart as million from 1,265 screens. And even in its fourth weekend, Wes Anderson's "The French Dispatch" continues to do well, adding $1.8 million and bringing its total to $11.6 million. Outside the top 10, the Julia

Princess Diana, pulled in $1.5

Child documentary "Julia" opened on five screens to $20,796.

"These films are in fewer theaters, but there is a demand for independent film which is one of the categories that everyone thought would be really hurt by the pandemic," said Dergarabedian. "We're really seeing signs of a much more normalized marketplace."

Next weekend, "Ghostbusters: Afterlife" faces off against the Will Smith awards hopeful "King Richard."

Estimated ticket sales for Friday through Sunday at U.S. and Canadian theaters, according to Comscore.

Final domestic figures will be released Monday.

Make America more secure

My hourly wage at my first high school job (picking cotton) was $1.10 an hour. This was 1970, and I knew for summer work, textile mills in South Carolina paid more. Sadly, cotton fields and textiles mills are a thing of the past.

American jobs have been shipped overseas. We have learned during the pandemic that this makes us less secure. Many components for our medicines, weapons, computers, etc. are produced in other countries.

We should have never let this happen. Biden has also halted the Keystone Pipeline. This has made us more dependent on oil from Middle Eastern nations. This is not in our best interests.

"Made in America" does not mean 100% material and domestic labor. Domestic content requirements and legal waivers can allow a product to be as low as 51%. Consumers do not know the difference. Thus, domestic content calculations should be effective and transparent on all products. Tax incentives for those 100% American-made products.

Many companies work to gain government contracts. These contracts should also be based on domestic employment impact. A company has the lowest bid (60% domestic labor). Yet, another company with a higher bid (100% domestic labor) gets the job. In the long run, it may actually cost the American people less. More jobs and security.

Another security risk is that some manufactured parts for our military are produced in foreign countries. Through the Treasury Department, 48 CFR Subpart 225.7 prohibits the sale of certain items or technology to certain countries (China, Russia, North Korea or terrorist countries). This law needs to be reevaluated annually.

The world today is more interwoven and dependent on manufacturing from other countries. We can not correct every flaw. But perhaps stockpiling major components which could prevent a major disruption in case of a world war or disaster. Trying to develop newer technology which uses materials readily available in the U.S. A good example, lithium is found mainly in only six countries around the world. Many equipment uses lithium batteries. Development of a replacement metal could be the answer. Tax incentive and government funded research could help get this accomplished.

A more secure America is one that relies more on itself than on others. COVID taught us that we are more vulnerable today. The president and Congress need to focus more on this issue.

In my mind, I would have been in Scotland yesterday with all of those amazing young people in the Fridays for the Future March.

One can only hope that the older (but not wiser?) leaders will begin to comprehend the depth of the issue of climate and the world they/we will leave for them to inherit.

Down the rabbit hole

There are some days I feel like Alice, falling into a rabbit us, I was grateful to the CDC and the scientific community, for telling us that we could mitigate COVID-19 by wearing masks. However, I felt like I fell into the rabbit hole when politicians like Florida's Gov. DeSantis hijacked all this work and fought the universal use of masks. No mask mandates in Florida.

Like most Americans, I waited for the scientists to discover a vaccine for the disease. We fast-tracked the research, and before a year, we had a vaccine that would prevent the disease in adults and children. However, I fell deeper into the rabbit hole when politicians like DeSantis decided they knew everything about the science of infectious diseases and decided to fight the efforts to stop the pandemic. The problem with vaccines is that for them to be most helpful, everyone must be vaccinated, but in DeSantis' mind, you have a right to infect your fellow citizens by not wearing a mask and not getting vaccinated. He calls it personal freedom.

I fell deeper into the rabbit hole when Florida legislators took an election they won, called it the "gold standard," and then passed laws that would make it harder for minorities to vote and said it would secure future elections. It doesn't make sense to me. Is there a standard higher than gold?

Unfortunately, DeSantis now wants to establish a voting police force to ensure our "gold standard of elections" stays that way. That makes even less sense to me.

I look at President Biden's Build Back Better and Infrastructure bills and wonder what happened? At one time, the Republicans wanted to fix our roads, bridges, harbors and railroads, and now they won't even talk to Democrats about what is best for the nation. Polls say that Republican voters support the various parts of the BBB Plan but not the Republicans in Congress. Am I having tea with the Mad Hatter?

I feel like I live in Wonderland, and things don't look like they are getting better.

Attend to Florida's business

Good grief! I hope the state of Florida has enough money to pay for all the lawsuits Gov. Ron DeSantis has amassed.

Our state legislators recently passed an onerous law that limited the ability of minorities, seniors and the poor to vote. These groups generally, but not always, vote Democratic. That's offensive for Florida's Republican governor, so under his leadership, Florida legislators passed a bill to limit participation in one of America's most fundamental rights, the right to vote.

As a result, groups like the When the pandemic first hit League of Women Voters of Florida, the Florida Alliance for Retired Americans, and others sued the governor to reestablish those rights.

> As part of the lawsuit, the plaintiffs secured the testimony of three University of Florida professors, Dan Smith, Michael McDonald and Sharon Austin, as expert witnesses. However, the university stepped in and told the professors they could not testify against Florida. So the professors are suing the university for violating their right to free speech and academic freedom.

The university backed off and is now allowing the professors to testify, but the issues are so crucial to the professors and their colleagues that the lawsuit

I've lost count of the number of lawsuits DeSantis has brought upon Florida in his bid to be reelected. When will he stop running for president and attend to the work Florida elected him to do?

Florida ends 7-game skid vs FSU

Gators dedicate win to Johnson

MARK LONG AP sports writer

GAINESVILLE — When the final buzzer sounded, Florida coach Mike White and sidelined forward Keyontae Johnson jumped toward each other and shared an emotional embrace.

This one was for "Coach Key," and everyone knew it. Even Florida State.

Colin Castleton had 15 points, a career-high 16 rebounds and six blocks, and the Gators knocked off the 20th-ranked Seminoles 71-55 on Sunday to end a seven-game losing streak in the series 11 months after Johnson collapsed on the court in Tallahassee.

"We just played our heart out for him," Castleton said. "Everything was for him. ... We knew how bad he wanted to play in 15 points and seven rebounds that game. Talked to him before the game. We could tell maybe

"Everything was for him and Coach White. It's been a long drought. But we flipped that narrative. It was a big win for Key for sure."

Florida (2-0) won its first game against its biggest in-state rival since 2013 and took a huge step forward in White's seventh season.

"You could tell that this game meant an awful lot to them," FSU coach Leonard Hamilton said. "Coach really had them ready mentally and emotionally, and I thought that they played with a tremendous amount of togetherness."

White revamped his roster with four additional transfers. and three of them came up big against the Seminoles (1-1). Brandon McKissic and Myreon Jones scored 12 points apiece and Phlandrous Fleming added nine off the bench.

Alabama jumps to No. 2

Cincy at No. 3, OU falls to 12th

RALPH D. RUSSO AP college football

Alabama jumped Cincinnati to No. 2 behind Georgia in The Associated Press college football poll on Sunday and Oklahoma dropped eight spots to No. 12 after losing for the first time this season.

Georgia is a unanimous No. 1 in the AP Top 25 presented by Regions Bank for the sixth consecutive week and the Southeastern Conference has the top two teams in the poll for the sixth time this season.

Alabama and Georgia were flip-flopped at Nos. 1 and 2 for five weeks in September and early October.

The switch from Cincinnati to Alabama at No. 2 was more about the Bearcats than the Crimson Tide, which closed the gap on UC to four points last surprise there. Cincinnati remained unbeaten after winning at South Florida 45-28 on Friday night. It was the fourth straight week the Bearcats played a team with a losing record and found themselves in a competitive game in the second half. That tipped a few more voters to drop Cincinnati.

"It was an evaluation of their overall resumes," said voter Ryan Aber from The Oklahoman. "Alabama's win over New Mexico State didn't do much on the surface, but other factors — Ole Miss' win over Texas A&M as well as Cincinnati's less-than-dominant performances against lesser competition in recent weeks — led me to raise the Crimson Tide ahead of the Bearcats.

Matt Baker of the Tampa Bay Times made the switch to put Alabama ahead of Cincinnati last week and then further separated the Tide and Bearcats after this week's games.

"I've seen Alabama and Cincinnati both with my own eyes," Baker said. "Neither one is on Georgia's level, but I see a gap between 'Bama Cincinnati."

Taylor's big day, blocked punt lead Colts over Jaguars

INDIANAPOLIS - Jonathan Taylor rushed for 116 yards and a touchdown, Indianapolis returned a blocked punt for a score and the Colts' defense held on for a 23-17 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Indy (5-5) has won four of five to reach .500 for the first time this season.

The Jaguars (2-7) have lost 12 consecutive road games and nine straight against AFC South foes.

Elliott, Cowboys get back on track. rough up Falcons

ARLINGTON, Texas -Ezekiel Elliott ran for two touchdowns, Nahshon Wright recovered a blocked punt for a score a week after touching one kept Dallas from getting the ball, and the Cowboys routed the Atlanta Falcons 43-3.

Dallas (7-2) looked much more like the NFL's No. 1 offense with Dak Prescott throwing two TD passes to CeeDee Lamb and Elliott finishing two drives kept alive by fourth-down conversions, all before halftime.

Comedy of errors as Steelers, Lions slog to tie

PITTSBURGH — Playing without star quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, who entered the COVID-19 protocol on Saturday night, the Steelers slotted their way to a 16-16 tie with the Detroit Lions in an ugly nearly fourhour marathon that produced more comedy than highlights. Mason Rudolph completed

30 of 50 passes for 242 yards with a touchdown and an interception, but struggled with consistency while making a spot start. Najee Harris ran for 105 yards and at times appeared to be Pittsburgh's only legitimate offensive weapon as the Steelers (5-3-1) saw their four-game winning streak halted in the dank mist at rainy Heinz Field.

De'Andre Swift ran for a career-high 130 yards for the Lions (0-8-1), who relied heavily on the run to avoid a ninth straight loss with quarterback Jared Goff rendered almost completely ineffective.

Newton returns, pushes Panthers past Cardinals

GLENDALE, Ariz. — Cam Newton provided a flashback to his Superman days in his second debut with the Panthers, throwing for one touchdown, running for another and sparking Carolina to a 34-10 win over the Arizona Cardinals

Newton — the 2015 NFL MVP who was signed by the quarterback-thin Panthers earlier in the week - made his presence felt on his first play of the game, entering on third down and screaming "I'm back!" after barreling into the right corner of the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown.

On Carolina's next drive, Newton threw a 2-yard TD pass to Robby Anderson as the Panthers (5-5) built a stunning 17-0 lead in the first quarter and a 23-0 advantage by halftime.

Titans' NFL-best winning streak now 7, edge Saints

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Ryan Tannehill ran and threw for touchdowns as the Tennessee Titans held off the New Orleans Saints 23-21 for their NFL-best sixth straight victory.

The Titans (8-2) also became he second team in NFL history to win five straight over playoff teams from the season before, joining the 2003 Philadelphia Eagles. Tennessee improved to 7-0 overall against 2020 playoff teams this season.

The Saints (5-4) dropped their second straight since losing quarterback Jameis Winston to a season-ending ACL injury.

Slay's scoop-andscore keys Eagles' win over Broncos

DENVER — Cornerback Darius Slay returned a fumble 82 yards for a touchdown and rookie DeVonta Smith hauled in two TD passes from Jalen Hurts in the Philadelphia Eagles' 30-13 win over the Denver Broncos.

The Eagles (4-6) won for the fourth time on the road and prevented the Broncos (5-5) from sweeping the NFC East teams on their schedule iust one week after Denver dominated Dallas in one of the biggest upsets of the

Packers blank Seahawks as star QBs return

GREEN BAY, Wis. -Aaron Rodgers was uneven in his return from COVID-19 but did more than enough to support a standout Green Bay Packers defense in a 17-0 victory over the Seattle Seahawks

A.J. Dillon rushed for two fourth-quarter touchdowns for the Packers, who handed the Seahawks their first shutout loss in a decade.

A week after he was forced to sit out a loss at Kansas City because of a positive COVID-19 test and the subsequent revelation that he was not vaccinated, Rodgers went 23 of 37 for 292 yards and threw an interception in the end zone in the third quarter.

Seattle's Russell Wilson also struggled in his return after missing three games with an injury to the middle finger on his throwing hand. He went 20 of 40 for 161 yards with two interceptions.

SEATTLE — Washington fired head coach Jimmy Lake on Sunday, less than two years after he was chosen to succeed Chris Petersen.

Lake's firing concluded a stunningly fast fall with a team that began the season ranked in The AP Top 25 and stumbled through embarrassing losses that raised discontent in the fan base.

Athletic director Jen Cohen said the school will honor the terms of Lake's contract, which puts Washington on the hook for more than $9 million dollars.

"No one wanted Jimmy to succeed more than I when I hired him in 2019, but ultimately, this change is necessary for a variety of reasons, both on the field and off," Cohen said in a statement. "I am grateful for Jimmy's service to Washington, and we wish him the very best of luck moving forward."

Lake was suspended without pay for Saturday's 35-30 loss to Arizona State after a sideline incident the previous week against Oregon, when Lake swatted at and then shoved one of his players. The incident only added to the heat on Lake and the suspension seemed a precursor to an eventual separation. Including Saturday's game, the Huskies went 7-6 under Lake. Defensive coordinator Bob Gregory will serve as interim coach the remaining two games, including the Apple Cup rivalry against Washington State.

No. 5 NC State women top Florida; Moore gets 750th

RALEIGH, N.C. — Elissa Cunane scored 18 points, Kia Crutchfield had 17 and No. 5 North Carolina State routed Florida 85-52 on Sunday.

The Wolfpack (2-1) closed the first quarter on a 19-3 run for a 29-15 edge and kept pulling away.

N.C. State coach Wes Moore earned his 750th career victory. Now in his ninth season with the Wolfpack, he's 750-235 with previous stops at Maryville College, Francis Marion and Chattanooga.

Kayla Jones scored 10 points for N.C. State, which connected on 11 of 18 attempts Malek Green had 14 points and eight rebounds to lead Canisius in the 169th meeting since 1920 between western New York's "Little 3" rivals.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Olivier Nkamhoua scored a career-high 23 points and Kennedy Chandler added 16 as No. 18 Tennessee beat East Tennessee State 94-62 on Sunday.

Nkamhoua, a 6-foot-8 junior, shot 9 for 14 and also had eight rebounds for the Volunteers (2-0).

John Fulkerson, in his first action of the season, had 10 rebounds to go with six points. Justin Powell had 11 points. Jordan King scored 15 of his 20 points in Castleton led the way, notching eight points, nine rebounds and four blocks in the second half.

Florida led by as many as 19 points, getting the O'Connell Center rocking for the first time in a long time.

"They started feeding off that energy," said Malik Osborne, who led FSU with 18 points and six rebounds. "They clearly wanted the game more than us and had more pride than us." Matthew Cleveland added 11 points and six boards for the Seminoles, who didn't think Ngom would have made a difference.

Castleton dominated inside, though. He made 5 of 9 shots, 5 of 6 free throws and got half his rebounds on the offensive glass.

Johnson celebrated every one of the court on Dec. 12, becoming a trauma patient in front of shocked teammates, coaches, opponents and everyone else in attendance. Johnson hasn't played since, and there's been no announcement as to what caused him to fall face-first to the court after an early timeout. He remains part of Florida's team as he decides whether to try to play professionally or cash in a $5 million insurance policy.

Johnson was right in the middle of the celebration after Sunday's victory. He and teammates doused White in the locker room so much that the coach had to change into a T-shirt before his postgame news conference.

"They got me. I have the shivers," White said.

POLL IMPLICATIONS

BIG PICTURE

Florida State: Hamilton lost his top played without 7-foot-2 center Tanor three scorers from last year's team Ngom (concussion). Hamilton said he but still looks like he has a young group capable of growing and competing for the Atlantic Coast Conference title and making another deep run in the NCAA Tournament. Florida: White has five transfers two newcomers and three holdovers - in his starting lineup and, after them from the bench. He collapsed on some games and weeks to gel, it should be a much more formidable unit by the time the Southeastern Conference schedule begins in late December.

UP NEXT Florida State: Hosts Tulane on

Wednesday night. Florida: Hosts Milwaukee on Thursday night.

Alabama has the longest current streak of top-five appearances in the AP Top 25 at 29. Georgia is second after running its streak to 12 this week. Cincinnati is third at seven straight polls. Oklahoma had been next coming into this weekend at five straight, but with that snapped, the next best top-five streak is Oregon with two straight polls. Alabama holds the all-time record for top-five appearances with 68 from 2015-19.

The three teams entering the rankings this week have all been there earlier in the season.

No. 21 Arkansas is back after beating LSU. The Razorbacks had a five-week run in the Top 25, reaching as high as No. 8 before three straight losses knocked them out. Three straight wins later, they're back.

- No. 23 San Diego State returned after winning a crucial Mountain

West game against Nevada. The Aztecs had a four-week stint in the rankings but have been out the last two.

– No. 24 Utah was preseason

the regular season and has been back and out a couple times. The Utes are back again after winning six of seven.

Mickelson wins finale; Langer takes 6th Schwab Cup title

Associated Press

PHOENIX — Phil Mickelson stood on the 18th green at Phoenix Country Club, a wide smile across his face as he held yet another PGA Tour Champions

Next to him was 64-year-old Bernhard Langer, grinning just as broadly as he hoisted the Charles Schwab Cup trophy at an age when most players are playing from the front tee boxes, not fighting for championships.

One ceremony, two champions with vastly different styles.

Mickelson birdied three of the final holes Sunday to win the season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship, and Langer held on to win his sixth PGA Tour Champions season points

"It's so fun for us to come back and play in front of everyone and then to come out on top here was a special week," said Mickelson, who played collegiately at nearby Arizona State. "I want to congratulate Bernhard because he really is the gold standard for work ethic, discipline as well as talent and a great golf game. At 64, to win the season-long championship, that's pretty impressive, pretty inspiring.

For Mickelson, it's always been about flash and creativity, pulling off shots few others would consider attempting. He did it through six major titles and 45 PGA Tour victories, and has kept it going on the senior Mickelson was at his creative best at Phoenix Country Club, shooting a bogey-free 6-under 65 in the final round to join Jack Nicklaus as the only player to win four of his first six starts on the 50-and-over tour.

Lefty showed off his shortgame skills to avoid bogeys and poured in six birdies in Sunday's final round, the last an upand-down from short of the par-5 18th to reach 19 under.

'It's been fun for me to play out here and see so many guys that I grew up and spent decades with life-long friends,' Mickelson said. "Then to play well and have some success is very meaningful."

Langer made a name for himself with precision and toughness through a stellar career, winning two Masters and 64 times internationally. The German star became unstoppable once he turned 50, winning 11 major championships and 42 tournaments overall.

toughness to get through four Scottie Scheffler and Martin Trainer rounds at Phoenix Country Club. He nearly withdrew two holes into the tournament due to intense back pain and battled as the discomfort lessened slightly each day.

Langer shot under his age for the first time in the third round, a sterling bogey-free 63 with bookend eagles that moved him within six shots of Jim Furyk's 16-under lead. He pulled within two shots with birdies on Nos. 1 and 4, then rolled in a 15-foot eagle putt on the 306-yard par-4 fifth to reach 14 under.

Langer struggled getting putts to fall the rest of the way, laboring through a 2-under 69 to around the golf course. I just tried to finish at 12 under. He finished 17th, but was still in position to win the Schwab Cup after playing all 39 PGA Tour Champions events.

'I'm just overwhelmed, you know, at 64 to win this thing six times," Langer said. "It will probably be my last one, I'm almost sure of that, but it's very, very special."

He had to wait a bit to get it. Furyk needed to win the tournament or tie for third and have Langer end up worse than eighth to win his first PGA Tour Champions series title. He dropped in a long birdie putt on the par-4 17th to pull within two of the lead, but Mickelson's birdie on No. 18 made it three Needing an eagle to win the Schwab Cup, Furyk pulled his second shot into the grandstand left of the 18th green and and had to drop in mulch. His next shot across the green into the rough and he got up and down for par. Furyk shot 71 to tie for fifth at 16 under.

"How exciting was it coming down the stretch?" Langer said. "Literally, came down to the last shot. If he would have eagled 18, he would be standing here lifting the Charles Schwab Cup trophy and he would be the winner. overwhelmed emotion." New Zealander Steven Alker, a PGA Tour Champions qualifier just three months ago, shot 67 to finish second at 18 under. Darren Clarke had a 64 and David Toms a 65 to tie for third at 17 under.

Alker had no status after turning 50 in July and qualified for the Boeing Classic in August. He strung together top-10 finishes every week to keep playing and become eligible for the postseason, including a win last weekend at the TimberTech Championship in Florida.

Alker kept the roll going on Sunday, overcoming a bogey on the par-3 second with five birdies to finish one behind Mickelson.

Kokrak rallies with 4 straight birdies and takes Houston Open

HOUSTON — Jason Kokrak had reason to believe he shot himself out of the Houston Open on the back nine Saturday morning. He played it 10 shots better when it counted, making four straight birdies for a 5-under 65 and a two-shot victory.

Two shots behind with six holes to play, Kokrak delivered all the right Langer needed to lean on that shots to pull away from a fading and win for the third time in the last 13 months.

> "Very blessed to be standing here," Kokrak said.

Kokrak couldn't help but think back to Saturday morning, when he returned to complete the second round and went the other direction. He played seven holes in 7-over par for a 41 that left him 10 shots behind after 36 holes.

"I tried not to let that bug me," Kokrak said. "I knew I was playing some fairly good golf. I was playing really good in spots and really bad in spots, so I just tried to limit my mistakes and kind of plot my way hit the green or give myself a putter in hand to limit my mistakes.

"So that was the club that really saved me this week.'

What a turnaround on Sunday. Kokrak holed a 12-foot birdie putt on the 13th to get in the mix and then made a 25-foot birdie putt on the 14th hole, the toughest at Memorial Park, to get within one shot. He hit wedge on the 115-yard 15th hole with a front pin to 6 feet to tie for the lead.

He had enough mud on his golf ball from rain earlier in the week that he chose to lay up on the par-5 16th, even though he could have reached with a mid-iron. Kokrak hit wedge to 5 feet for a fourth straight birdie.

By then, he was on his way and finished at 10-under 270.

Scheffler, going after his first PGA Tour victory, had a two-shot lead when he made the turn. He didn't hit a green in regulation until the 15th, making three soft bogeys that left him too far behind to make a late Scheffler had a long two-putt birdie on the 16th to get within three shots and nearly drove the green on the par-4 17th, only to hit a pedestrian chip and fail to make birdie. He birdied the final hole for a 69 and tied for second with Kevin Tway (68).

"I saw Jason made a little move there on the back nine. I just did my best to stay in it," Scheffler said. "I wasn't swinging my best today on the back nine. Outside of that, I gave myself opportunities, just wasn't able to hole enough putts. An odd break here or there that maybe goes my way and it's a little different story." Trainer, who made only his ninth cut in 71 starts since his victory in the 2019 Puerto Rico Open, took the lead on the 11th hole by rolling in a 70-foot birdie across the green, and then he calmly saved par with an 8-foot putt.

But he couldn't make up ground on the some of the scoring holes, took a bogey on the 14th and then fell back for good with bogeys on his last two holes for a 70.

Matthew Wolff was among six players who had at least a share of the lead in the opening hour, courtesy of five players being within one shot of Scheffler to start the final

He fell back with bogeys, and then made a hole-in-one with a 9-iron on the par-3 ninth to get back into the mix, but only briefly.

Kokrak went 232 starts on the PGA Tour before his first victory, and now has three in his last 27 starts dating to the CJ Cup at Shadow Creek north of Las Vegas a year ago in October. He also won at Colonial in the spring.

He moves to No. 22 in the world ranking.

He shot 41 on the back nine to complete his second round Saturday morning, when it was cold and "I really didn't have my best stuff." Kokrak was bogey-free and shot 31 on Sunday afternoon.

"I made some putts," he said. "That's what kept me in it."

Dane Hansen captures Dubai Championship, 2nd European Tour win

DUBAI — Danish player Joachim B. Hansen hit a 4-under 68 to hold off co-overnight leader Francesco Laporta and a soaring Bernd Wiesberger by one stroke to win the Dubai Championship.

The 31-year-old Hansen had four birdies to finish at 23 under overall having opened with a 9-under 63 in the first round.

"The first two rounds were of the best of my life. Yesterday wasn't great, and I have really struggled to find the middle of the club on my woods," Hansen said. "But my putter helped today, I putted a lot better than yesterday. That kept me in the game."

Despite his appearance, he was getting very nervous near the end.

"I've heard that before about me looking calm, but no way. I said to my caddie Adam 'I'm struggling here mate, we need to talk about something else' because I was thinking too far ahead and that was hard," Hansen said. "I'm very proud of myself to get it done because I wasn't playing great out there. But I managed to keep the ball in play and give myself some good chances."

Hansen and the Italian Laporta are both outside the top 150 in the world and this was only the 170thranked Hansen's second European Tour win. The other was at the Joburg Open in November 2020.

"It means a lot, especially with family and friends here this time. There was no one there in Joburg," Hansen said. "When I saw Jeff Winther win in Mallorca, I was very jealous because he had the family and friends celebrating with him and I really wanted all of that, so I'm really glad I get to experience that."

Nelly Korda overcomes triple bogey to lock up LPGA event in playoff BELLEAIR — Nelly Korda made such a mess of the 17th hole that missing what amounts to a tap-in barely registered. She made triple bogey and part of her couldn't help but think she had thrown away her chances in the Pelican Women's Championship.

"I honestly lost hope," Korda said. "I was like, 'OK, just try to make a solid par' — 18 is a really tough hole If you have a chance or birdie, then try and go after it.' My caddie really kept me in the moment and I didn't give up.

"Thank God I didn't."

She birdied the 18th and got a cond chance when I exi son had another late collapse, this time going bogey-bogey, that turned an epic duel between Korda and Thompson into a four-way playoff.

Korda ended it quickly, making a 12-foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole at No. 18 to win for the fourth time this year on the LPGA Tour. None were this wild.

Korda fell out of the lead on the 17th hole at Pelican Golf Club by chopping her way to a triple bogey to fall two shots behind. She answered with an 18-foot birdie putt on the final hole for a 1-under 69 and got into a playoff when Thompson missed another par putt and shot 69.

No. 12 Ole Miss beats No. 11 Texas A&N

Associated Press

OXFORD, Miss. — Mississippi beat one of the best defensive teams in the Southeastern Conference with a shut-down performance of its own.

A.J. Finley returned an interception 52 yards for a touchdown and Matt Corral threw for 247 yards and a touchdown to lead No. 12 Ole Miss to a 29-19 win over No. 11 Texas A&M on Saturday night.

"The defense just had an amazing day," Ole Miss coach Lane Kiffin said. "That came against one of the hottest teams in America. Just an unbelievable great day overall."

Rebels The 3-3 Southeastern) held a 15-13 lead in the fourth quarter before Ashanti Cistrunk's interception set up a 13-yard touchdown run by Snoop Conner with 6:32 left.

"I just walked right into it. That's all there was to it," Cistrunk said. "We tied up on the ball, but I knew I had it."

Finley provided an insurmountable cushion on the next series, grabbing Zach Calzada's throw and returning it down the Texas A&M sideline.

"It was a crazy moment," Finley said. "It was my first pick-six since I've been here, so that was really big for me." Texas A&M (7-3, 4-3), which came in second in the SEC to Georgia in yards per play allowed, trailed 15-0 at half, but whittled the lead to two in the fourth quarter on a 24-yard scoring run by Devon Achane and field goals by Seth Small.

Achane ran for a 9-yard touchdown to finish the scoring with 3:11 left.

Corral completed 24 of 37 passes and Caden Costa kicked field goals of 33 and 32 yards. Chance Campbell and Keidron Smith added a safety by tackling Isaiah Spiller in the end zone in the first

"That was a disappointing thing coming up here," A&M coach Jimbo Fisher said about the scoreless first half. "We put ourselves behind the eight ball. Give Ole Miss credit. They played a really good

The Rebels finished with 504 yards of total offense, highlighted by Jerrion Ealy with 24 carries for 152 yards and added 34 yards on four receptions.

Achane had 110 yards on 12 carries. Calzada was 24 of 41 passing for 237 yards.

No. 5 Oregon 38, Washington St. 24

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon defensive end Kayvon Thibodeaux says it's at that point of the season where every team wants to knock off the Ducks.

Anthony Brown Jr. threw for 135 yards and a touchdown while rushing for 123 yards and another score as No. 5 Oregon beat Washington State 38-24.

Oregon, ranked No. 3 in the State's second play from College Football Playoff rankings, has won five straight and 77-yard touchdown pass from extended its winning streak at Autzen Stadium to 18 straight games, including 14 straight victories at home over Pac-12 half of a game Saturday, in Oxford, Miss.

"Every game is a playoff game," Thibodeaux said. "Us having this target on our backs, it makes every team want to play their best. You know, one thing that we had a problem with was playing down to teams. And now I feel like we're in that mode where Oregon (9-1, 6-1 Pac-12) needed to win and for Stanford to beat Oregon State up the road in Corvallis earlier on Saturday to clinch the Pac-12 North. The Beavers didn't hold up their end, winning 35-14 over Stanford.

teams have to play up to us."

Washington State (5-5, 4-3) tied the game at 14 before halftime but Oregon pulled away in the third quarter. The loss snapped a four-game winning streak over Pac-12 opponents for the Cougars, who fell to BYU on Oct. 23 in a midseason nonconference

The Cougars still need one more win to become bowl eligible and perhaps redeem a season that has been marked by turbulence. Washington State dismissed head coach Nick Rolovich on Oct. 18 after his refusal to get vaccinated against COVID-19. "Our guys aren't going to quit. They're gonna keep fighting," WSU interim coach Jake Dickert said. "They're gonna keep battling. I think the biggest thing we were looking for in this game is just improvement and keep progressing in our program, keep moving forward."

Saturday's game got off to a strange start. Washington scrimmage appeared to be a Jayden de Laura to Calvin Jackson Jr. But on review, Jackson stepped out of bounds at the Oregon 7-yard line. On the next play, de Laura fumbled out of the end zone for an Oregon touchback.

Travis Dye plowed his way into the end zone from a yard out to give the Ducks a 7-0 lead. Verone McKinley III got his fifth interception of the season and three plays later Dye scored on an 11-yard pass from Brown.

The Cougars closed the margin on de Laura's 14-yard pass to De'zhaun Stribling midway through the second quarter. De Laura's 1-yard keeper with 11 seconds left in the half tied it at 14.

Oregon scored on Brown's 17-yard scramble on their first series of the second half to pull back in front. The Ducks extended the lead on Camden Lewis' 22-yard field goal.

It appeared that Washington State's George Hicks III recovered a fumble by Brown in the end zone early in the fourth quarter and ran it back 50 yards. After review, the play stood.

De Laura hit Travell Harris with a 38-yard pass to get to the Oregon 11, but the Ducks' defense held and the Cougars settled for Dean Janikowski's 34-yard field goal to make it 24-17.

"I think it was another chance for us to kind of show our resilience and show that we're gonna keep coming," Thibodeaux said. "I feel like we've trained for sudden changes. Things happen in this football so just being able to come back and play the next play, that's all you have to do."

Thibodeaux, considered a top pick in the 2022 NFL draft if he chooses to go pro, had a pair of sacks and six tackles, including two tackles for loss.

Byron Caldwell ran for a 27-yard touchdown with 5:52 left before a 22-yard scoring run with 2:07 to go for the Ducks. De Laura's 2-yard

TD pass to Harris ended it. "I think this team's getting better and better every single week, in a lot of different areas, a lot of different phases," Oregon coach Mario Cristobal said. "So the sky's the limit." Dye ran for 88 yards and a score, and had 25 yards receiving and another TD. Oregon had more than 300 yards on the ground for the second straight game.

De Laura threw for 280 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars. He was intercepted twice.

No. 7 Notre Dame 28, Virginia 3

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. Jack Coan threw three touchdown passes and Notre Dame beat Virginia to extend its regular-season winning streak against Atlantic Coast Conference schools to 23 games.

Coan connected with Michael Mayer from 6 yards,

Braden Lenzy from 4 yards and Kevin Austin from 15 yards for the Fighting Irish (9-1, No. 9 CFP), who also stretched their road winning streak against teams from the ACC to 11 games.

Virginia (6-4) played without quarterback Brennan Armstrong, who leads the nation in total offense with an average of 425.3 yards but did not dress after sustaining a rib injury in a loss to No. 14 BYU two weeks ago.

Jay Woolfolk, the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Virginia since Bryan Shumock in 1977, was ineffective. He completed 18 of 33 passes for 196 yards, two interceptions and was sacked seven times.

No. 10 Oklahoma

State 63, TCU 17 STILLWATER, Okla. -Jaylen Warren ran for three touchdowns and Oklahoma

State rolled past TCU. The Cowboys took control by outscoring the Horned Frogs 21-0 in the second quarter. They closed out the first-half scoring with a 46-vard touchdown pass from Spencer Sanders to freshman

Blaine Green. TCU (4-6, 2-5) couldn't carry the momentum from a stunning win over then-No. 14 Bay-

No. 13 Wake Forest 45, No. 21 NC St. 42

lor the previous week.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. Sam Hartman accounted for four touchdowns while Justice Ellison ran for a short score with 1:47 left to help Wake Forest beat North Carolina State for a critical Atlantic Coast Conference division win.

The win allowed the Demon Deacons (9-1, 6-0) to take a huge step toward claiming the Atlantic Division championship won by Clemson each year on the way to winning the past six league titles. Wake Forest now must win one of its last two games, both on the road, to secure the division winner's ticket to the ACC championship game.

Fittingly, in a matchup of the division's top two teams, the Demon Deacons had to grind to the final minute to hold off the Wolfpack (7-3, 4-2) and quarterback Devin

Hornets end Warriors' streak

Associated Press

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Terry Rozier had a big and Carmelo Anthony and jump-ball win and made two late free throws to help the Charlotte Hornets snap the Golden State Warriors' winning at streak seven, 106-102 on Sunday night.

Draymond Green tied up Rozier at midcourt with 17 seconds left, forcing a jump ball at midcourt. The 6-foot-1 Rozier outleaped 6-foot-6 Green and the Hornets controlled the jump, bringing the crowd to its feet.

The Warriors were forced to foul and Rozier and he made both free throws with 12.7 seconds to make it a two-possession game. Golden State missed its final two shots.

Rozier finished with 20 points, Miles Bridges had 22, LaMelo Ball added 21, and Cody Martin had 12 points and eight rebounds. The Hornets have won three straight after a five-game skid.

Andrew Wiggins scored 28 points for Golden State, and Stephen Curry added 24 points and 10 assists in his annual homecoming game. Coming off an eight-game homestand, the Warriors dropped to 11-2.

Lakers 114, Spurs 106

LOS ANGELES - Anthony Davis had 34 points and 15 rebounds and Los Angeles beat San Antonio.

Talen Horton-Tucker scored 17 points in his season debut for the Lakers, Wayne Ellington each had 15 points.

Nets 120, Thunder 96

OKLAHOMA CITY -Kevin Durant scored 33 points to help Brooklyn beat Oklahoma City. Patty Mills scored 29 points and made a career-high nine 3-pointers, and James Harden added 16 points and 13 assists.

Hawks 120, Bucks 100

ATLANTA — Trae Young scored a season-best 42 points and Atlanta snapped a six-game losing streak, beating Milwaukee in an Eastern Conference final rematch.

Suns 115, Rockets 89

HOUSTON — Devin Booker had 26 points and six assists and Phoenix won its eighth straight game and handed Houston its 11th loss in a row.

Nuggets 124, Trail Blazers 95

DENVER - Nikola Jokic just missed out on his third straight triple-double, finishing with 28 points, nine rebounds and nine assists, and Denver spoiled Chauncey Billups' hometown return as Portland's coach.

Rangers outlast rival Devils

Associated Press

NEW YORK — Chris Kreider scored the deciding goal in the seventh round of a shootout and the New York Rangers beat the New Jersey Devils 4-3 Sunday night.

Kaapo Kaako had a goal and an assist, and Adam Fox and Alexis Lafreniere also scored to help the Rangers win their third straight and beat the Devils for the seventh straight time. Alexandar Georgiev made 24 saves Pavel Zacha and Jesper Bratt each had a goal and an assist, and Dougie Hamilton also scored for New Jersey. Mackenzie Blackwood had 30 saves before leaving in the third period and entering concussion protocol. Jonathan Bernier made eight saves in relief of Blackwood.

the shootout, and Bratt, Hamilton and Andreas Johnsson scored for New Jersey.

Ducks 5, Canucks 1

ANAHEIM, Calif. — Trevor Zegras had two goals and an assist and Troy Terry extended his scoring streak to 14 games in Anaheim's seventh straight victory — this one over Vancouver.

Sonny Milano also scored and John Gibson made 26 saves for the Ducks, who remained in second place in the Pacific Division while staying perfect since Adam Henrique and Sam Steel added goals in the final minute for Anaheim, which has earned a point in nine straight games and scored at least three goals in a franchise-record 11 consecutive games.

Nils Hoglander scored and Jaroslav Halak stopped 33 shots for the Canucks, who have lost four straight and eight of

Capitals 6, Penguins 1

WASHINGTON — Garnet Hathaway scored his third goal in two games, Alex Ovechkin added two assists and Kaako, Artemi Panarin and Ryan New York Rangers winger Chris Kreider (20) celebrates his winning goal in a Strome also scored for New York in shootout against the New Jersey Devils during Sunday's game, in New York.

Washington spoiled Sidney Crosby's return, routing Pittsburgh.

Martin Fehervary, Daniel Sprong, Conor Sheary, Evgeny Kuznetsov and Tom Wilson also scored for Washington, which won its fourth straight game and pulled even with Carolina atop the Metropolitan Division. The Capitals also trail Florida by a point for the NHL lead.

Jake Guentzel scored in the first period for the Penguins.

Oilers 5, Blues 4

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Kailer Yamamoto scored in the final minute as Edmonton beat St. Louis.

Connor McDavid, Ryan Nugent-Hopkins, Leon Draisaitl and Ryan Mc-Leod also scored for Edmonton, which won in St. Louis for the first time since Dec. 5, 2018.

Mikko Koskinen made 35 saves as the Oilers improved to 11-3-0 on the season.

Vladimir Tarasenko, Ivan Barbashev, Jordan Kyrou and Robert Bortuzzo scored for the Blues. Jordan Binnington had 27 saves, but St. Louis lost its third straight game.

Bruins 5, Canadiens 2

BOSTON - Charlie Coyle had an attempted clearing pass carom into the net off his head for his first of two goals, Charlie McAvoy also scored twice, and Boston beat Montreal Canadiens.

Jeremy Swayman stopped 27 shots for Boston, improving his career record to 8-0-0 at TD Garden. Taylor Hall added an empty-netter as the Bruins improved to 6-1 at home.

Joel Armia and Michael Pezzetta had the Canadiens' goals, and Sam Montembeault made 36 saves. Montreal fell to 1-6-1 on the road.

Flames 4, Senators 0

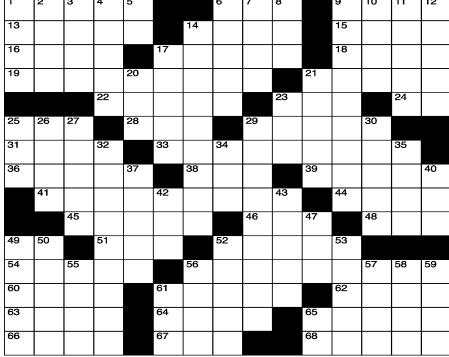

OTTAWA, Ontario - Dan Vladar made 27 saves for his first career shutout as Calgary snapped a three-game losing streak by beating Ottawa.

The Flames were led by Elias Lindholm with a goal and an assist, while Andrew Mangiapane, Matthew Tkachuk and Nikita Zadorov also scored, and Sean Monahan had two assists.

Anton Forsberg made 29 saves for the

SUDOKU Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to

The World Bridge Federation is planning on returning to normal, with championships in Salsomaggiore, Italy, in the spring of 2022.

The U.S. will send two teams for each event: Bermuda Bowl (open), Venice Cup (women), d'Orsi Trophy (seniors) and Wuhan Cup (mixed).

Opening lead: ♥ 7

The two Bermuda Bowl qualifiers are Nick Nickell-Ralph Katz, Eric Greco-Geoff Hampson and Bobby Levin-Steve Weinstein; and Warren Spector-John Kranyak-Gavin Wolpert and Kevin Bathurst-John Hurd (with Vince Demuy added as the sixth player).

Criminal Minds '14' @

Criminal Minds 'PG' @

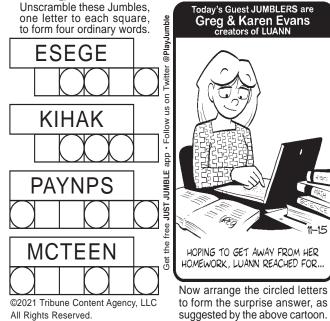

In the USA1 final, Nickell survived a close match against Spector. After 75 of the 120 boards, Spector led by 39 international match points (141-102). But in the next set, Nickell gained 53 IMPs (64-11), aided by this deal, and was never headed again, winning by 21 IMPs (220-199).

In the auction, Nickell (North) did well to bid four no-trump, showing both minors. Against five clubs, Spector (West) understandably, but fatally, led a low heart. Katz (South) won with his queen, crossed to the heart ace and ran the club jack. He repeated the finesse, and when West showed out, declarer claimed 11 tricks: two hearts, five diamonds and four clubs.

Note that five diamonds by North would surely have failed. East would have led a high spade and shifted to a heart.

At the other table, Weinstein (East) raised only to three hearts, and Bathurst (South) cautiously passed. Levin (West) lost one spade, one heart, two diamonds and one club to go down one, but Nickell won 11 IMPs.

T h e tanks

When my uncle asked to borrow the tanks, he was very cordial and polite. My husband graciously agreed to let him borrow them and told him to return them when he is finished with his project. About six weeks after he loaned them, my husband reached out to ask that they be returned for a project we would be working on. My uncle responded: "If you want to pick them up, you need to pay me $179 for the gas I needed to fill them up with in order to use them. I have an invoice for you.'

This is infuriating. First of all, he came to our house to borrow them; he needs to return them to us. We shouldn't have to come to him to get them back. Secondly, and more importantly, we should not have to pay him money to get our belongings back — belongings that he borrowed for free! After some back and forth texting, my uncle said that he needed to exchange the tanks before filling them, which also cost him more money.

My husband made it clear that we had no intention of reimbursing him for the gas he refilled: he can return them empty to us.

My husband also told him that he did not have our permission to exchange our tanks anyway. Then, my husband asked when he can expect to have the tanks returned, and my uncle said it could take up to a year for him to use up the

My husband reminded him that we let him borrow the tanks for a short-term project he needed. "I'm not going to wait a year to get my belongings back, and I'm also not going to pay you to get them back.'

My uncle hasn't told us when he plans on returning them, and we now need them.

This uncle is the pettiest person we've ever met, and we don't care about maintaining any relationship with him. He is a careless, selfish human being. We just want our tanks back!

Please suggest how to go about this. — Dealing with a Petty Uncle

Dear Dealing: You could take him to small claims court, and you'd have a good chance of winning. I would consider that option seriously. At the same time, don't let his pettiness and cruelty drag you down.

Without question, you are right, and he is wrong. You should not have to drive to get them back and pay him money, but if you really want the tanks back, that might be the fastest way to retrieve them.

He sounds like a very unhappy person, and when dealing with that type of person, the best way forward is to have compassion for them and focus on your own happiness. But never lend him anything again. Period.
