Citrus tourism numbers high despite pandemic

MICHAEL D. BATES Staff writer

Citrus County can thank Floridians for boosting its tourism coffers this year.

The number of international and outof-state visitors has nosedived due to the pandemic so local hotels, restaurants and businesses had to rely on instate tourists to fill the gap.

And it's worked, said Anne Wittine, director of data analysis for Research Data Services (RDS), who gave her report to the Citrus County Tourist Development Council on Wednesday, Dec. 9.

John Pricher, Citrus County Visitors Florida 2020 Flagler Awards. Bureau director, also gave the board this positive: Tourist tax revenue for October 2020 was $149,000, a 44.68% increase from the $103,000 the same month last year.

Wittine attributed Citrus County's 'phenomenal outcome" — especially when other counties are seeing big downturns in tourism — to a strong scallop season and its tourist marketing efforts.

BUSTER THOMPSON Staff writer

Citrus County property owners being hooked up to Crystal River's expanding sewer system could expect to see an increase on their annual tax bills for the city's upcoming service.

These special assessments will help pay for building and maintenance costs for the city's septic-tosewer programs, Indian Waters and Southern Sewer, located in communities outside city limits to the northwest and south, respectively.

City council members will vote to reserve the ability to levy these sewer-expansion assessments at a public hearing during their 5:30 p.m. meeting Monday, Dec. 14, 2020, at city hall, 123 NW U.S. 19, Crystal River.

Crystal River was awarded outside funding assistance to help cover 75% of the projects' designs and constructions.

According to city staff, which recommend council approve the motion, the tax collection would start in November 2021.

Crystal River and county officials still need to formalize the city's taxing program with an inter-local agreement, and city council must also vote on a resolution adopting the new tax rolls.

Council will also vote Monday on whether to send a list of nine legislative priorities it wants state lawmakers to address during their upcoming session. Those items include:

A $1.65 million funding request to pay off the $4.6 million construction costs for the city's Riverwalk boardwalk along King's Bay; Supporting the transformation of North Turkey Oak Drive into a bypass for State Road 44; Modifying state law to provide anchoring limitation zones within King's Bay to help control boat congestion on the waterway;

Supporting measures to help protect planted seagrasses of the King's Bay Restoration Project; Convincing the Federal to create a program to assist homeowners with flood-proofing properties under FEMA's increasing flood zone maps;

Giving more control to local governments to regulate shortterm housing rentals;

Recognizing Crystal River's identity when it comes to drafting preemptive legislation;

And changing state law to allow local governments the ability to review water-bottling permits.

City council on Monday will also:

■ Get an update from Ernesto 'Tito'' Rubio, administrator of the Florida Health Department in Citrus County, about COVID-19's current impacts on Crystal River and Citrus County.

■ Vote on whether to approve a franchise agreement with lithe city to rent kayaks and paddle boards to customers at the city's Kings Bay Park.

Council's vote would also give ing with implementing a $5 pay for the city's Riverwalk.

Emergency Management Agency launch fee for commercial paddlecraft customers.

> ■ Vote on whether to approve a special events permit and open container waiver for the Citrus County Chamber of Commerce to host the 2021 Florida Manatee Festival planned for Jan. 16-17 in downtown Crystal River.

> However, those dates could move to March 27-28 if local COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations don't improve. Chamber officials are also taking other coronavirus precautions, like providing sanitation gear and limiting vendor and attendee capacity.

> ■ Nominate and elect a vice mayor for a one-year term, and assignment committee assignments for council members.

■ During a 5 p.m. meeting, sitting as members of the Crystal censed paddlecraft vendors in River Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) Board, council will vote on whether to approve a refinance agreement with Capital City for $3.5 million city staff the OK to start proceed- loan the CRA withdrew to help

Diverse TV holiday season includes all-Asian Lifetime movie

TERRY TANG Associated Press

In one scene from the Lifetime TV movie, "A Sugar & Spice Holiday," a co-worker says to Suzy, an Asian American architect in Los Angeles: "I didn't know if Christmas was a big deal where you're from."

Retorts Suzy: "I'm from Maine.'

A lot of viewers of a cozy Christmas film might just shrug off the insinuation that Suzy is somehow not American. But for an Asian audience, that brief exchange is a knowing reminder that microaggressions don't take a holiday. They especially haven't in the wake of the pandemic, which has triggered anti-Asian racism and terms like Hallmark Channel dropped important: The movie itself "Chinese virus" and "kung an ad that included a sameflu."

their lives to save the world and America. I see in our local paper that many people do not listen to the experts, i.e., refusing to wear masks.

Being generous and donating to vets is great. By not wearing a mask, we could be giving a vet COVID-19. We just don't know. I see in Sunday's paper friends from a local charity donating but not wearing masks and so many others doing the same thing. You don't follow good with bad.

Believe me, from one who always wore a mask and yet has just gone through this virus, I wouldn't wish it on my worst enemy. By not wearing one, you could be creating a double-edged sword.

Please do the correct thing – wear a mask.

Exhibit spits in memory of Jews

I am an 83-year-old white man with slightly dark skin, because I am a Jew from the former Soviet Union. I do not feel any pride of my origin, as well as any pain in it. I, like

This exhibition lowered the greatest world tragedy to the level of a vile farce that spits in memory of all the 6 million Jews who died. There is no justification or explanation. There are things that cannot be understood, much less accepted! These things dishonor anyone who justifies them. When we say "The Holocaust," we feel how this sorrowful word sounds about - we cry for the millions of Jews killed by the Nazis.

When anti-Semitism in the 21st century is gaining more and more force, ready to once again and once again arrange another circle of hell for the Jewish people, we understand who is doing it and by whose hands. As the columnist Caroline Glick wrote:

"The Florida Holocaust Museum in Orlando has taken a huge step towards transforming the annihilation of European Jewry into a farce. This is a travesty, an insult to the Jewish people throughout history. And I fear it is just a taste of the madness to come.'

The Orlando exhibition turned the facts upside down and favored collective insanity, adopting lies as the foundation in the monument to the drug overdose criminal. The worst thing about all this abomination is that everything is done by the hands of American Jews. How much one should not understand the history of one's people, how much one must be cynical in order to give birth to and materialize this dishonor in a sick mind!

Why would not photographer John Nolter show footage of destroyed city streets, burned-down businesses, portraits of killed and wounded police officers, chaos and fear on the faces of people unwittingly involved in this year's violent events? Or is the golden coffin and millions kneeling before it not enough?

Lisa Bachman, deputy executive director of the exhibition, said the placement and size of the photos was a strategic decision. The quotes accompanying the photos were in English and Spanish. And why did Miss Bachman disdain to add something else in Hebrew? But she hastened to lay the Jewish stone at the foot of the newly-minted "Great Martyr" George Floyd. And she also politically positioned American police as Nazis — an awful and criminal decision. The Orlando Holocaust Remembrance Center, as a mirror of Jewish American liberalism, does not hesitate to hate its people and its history, equating the photographs of 6 million victims of the tragedy of humanity with one who fell victim to his own addictions. Last week, Maitland saw the public and historic execution of 6 million European Jews by liberal American Jews as they aided the enemies of the State of Israel to destroy it. And only horrific photographs from Auschwitz, as a reminder, restore the historical truth, which has been skewed for the sake of political correctness and criminal stupidity.

This issue deserves scrutiny to protect the integrity of taxpayer funds, the transparent process through which individuals and businesses will have access to those funds, and to guard the two organizations receiving them against improper dispersion that would result in massive refunding at the expense of their membership or contributing class.

Unfortunately what we've seen instead are the chamber, the United Way, and the commission not being guilty of anything, but acting awfully suspicious as we approach Tuesday's vote.

We were so sad to read about the passing of Cindy Hazzard in the obituary section recently. She was the heart and soul of the Nature Coast Community Band. We spent many a Sunday afternoon at Cornerstone Church enjoying the NCCB concerts over the years. So many wonderful musicians played delightful music conducted by the very talented Cindy. Nancy Kennedy wrote a nice tribute about her in today's paper, Tuesday (Nov. 24's front-page Postscript, "Cindy Hazzard: A woman of note"). Thank you for the lovely story, Nancy. My father, leaving literally everything behind, managed to bring our family to the Urals, but could not persuade his mother and sister to run away with us from the city of Minsk almost on the day of the German invasion. My grandmother and aunt were killed in the Minsk ghetto, and such was the fate of thousands of other Jews from Belarus, Ukraine and the rest of Europe. The grief of the loss of relatives remained in the soul of my wife, who also lost her family members. Her Aunt and two little children were murdered in the gas chamber. Whenever my husband has asked the postmaster about changing the flags, he says, "Well, we're at the bottom of the maintenance list, so it takes a long time to get anybody to do anything." This is just disgusting. It is a slap in the face to any American and a double slap to any veteran that has fought for this country, including my husband. It is just disgusting. I want to cry when I look up at that flagpole and see nothing but a torn and tattered American flag and a POW flag. Come on, can't the post office get somebody to volunteer to go up there and get those flags down? How about the local fire department? Somebody should be able to do something. If nothing else, cut the rope and bring them down. I mean, please, it's disgusting. It's so heartbreaking. It's terrible.

Task force recommends stricter virus measures

ORLANDO — A White House Coronavirus Task Force report for Florida recommended stricter measures for stopping the virus including mask wearing at all times in public, increased physical distancing by reducing capacity or closing indoor spaces at restaurants and bars and limiting gatherings outside of immediate households.

The Dec. 6 report obtained by the Center for Public Integrity also urged leaders to begin warning about the risks of gathering during the December holiday season.

"Florida has seen stability in new cases, an increase in test positivity, and increasing hospitalizations and deaths, indicating unrelenting community spread and inadequate mitigation," the Dec. 6 report said.

Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis has ruled out further business restrictions or a mask mandate aimed at stopping the virus' spread.

BERLIN - An annual event bringing together Holocaust survivors from around the world to mark the start of Hanukkah was held online for the first time Sunday due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The event organized by the Jewish Claims Conference also paid tribute to those killed by the Nazis and raised awareness of anti-Semitism.

"Each survivor is a living example of the triumph of light over darkness, good over evil," said Gideon Taylor, president of the Claims Conference. "You are heroes to the Jewish people and to the world."

The event included a livestream of speeches by survivors, their advocates, musical performances and the menorah lighting from the Western Wall in Jerusalem and other locations around the world.

PHOENIX — This is the first winter in five years that Steve Monk and his wife, Linda, haven't driven to Arizona from their home in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

They typically leave Canada to hunker down in warmer climates for six months. They could fly, skirting travel restrictions at the border, but they'd rather "freeze their buns off" than go to the U.S. where COVID-19 infections and deaths are surging.

"It's not worth taking a chance. It's not nearly as bad in this country as it is down there," said Monk, 69. "Pretty much every Canadian person we do know that goes down (to the U.S.) is not going. It's pretty widespread."

"Snowbirds" like the Monks, often retirees who live somewhere warm like Arizona or Florida part time to escape cold weather, won't be flocking south this winter. For Canadians who drive, nonessential border travel is banned until at least Dec. 21. For some, it's fear of the virus.

While their absence is being felt by vacation rentals, restaurants and shops, RV parks and campgrounds are seeing an increase in campers as people travel closer to home.

A huge chunk of the snowbird population is Canadian. Evan Rachkovsky of the Canadian Snowbird Association said most people he's spoken with are suspending trips to the U.S.

But some are still adamant about going.

For those who go, they may face recommendations to quarantine for up to two weeks, though states often don't enforce it. They're also going into communities where hospitals are normally busiest during the winter months, and COVID-19 could overwhelm them.

Health insurance hurdles are deterring retired Toronto accountant Mel Greenglass, who for almost a decade has spent four months in southwest Florida near have international borders to Naples. Insurers "are not going to lay out a lot of money to cover everybody just by raising their premiums a little bit," said Greenglass, 78. He added that adapting to the Canadian winter won't be easy: "I don't even own a pair of boots."

make their annual drive from Salt Lake City to Arizona after Christmas.

Scott said she plans to mask up and practice social distancing to avoid burdening the medical system, adding that she's "not having any problem asking people about having been tested, about quarantining, about where they've been."

Snowbirds' plans have a huge impact on tourism. In Florida, 3.6 million Canadians visited last year, making up a quarter of its foreign tourists, according to the state tourism office. Visit Florida estimates that only 15,000 Canadians arrived between April and September, the last month with available statistics. That's about an 99% decrease from the same period last year.

The Arizona Office of Tourism said an estimated 964,000 Canadian visitors were responsible for $1 billion of the $26.5 billion in tourism spending last year. In September, visitors overall spent $752 million, down 60% from the $1.9 billion expected in a normal vear.

Bobby Cornwell, executive director of the Florida and Alabama RV Parks & Campground Association, believes it's not "all doom and gloom" for his industry. Snowbirds make up 30% of the business for Florida's RV parks, he said. There have been cancellations, but park operators are seeing people of all ages road-tripping.

"I really wanna hammer this home: From the people we're getting feedback from, many of our parks throughout the whole state, for every cancellation, there's one or two campers who come in,⁷ Cornwell said. "I haven't heard of

Iran summons EU envovs for protesting hanging of journalist

TEHRAN, Iran - Iran on Sunday summoned the German and French envoys to Tehran after the European Union condemned the execution of an Iranian journalist whose work helped inspire nationwide economic protests in 2017, Iranian state media reported.

IRNA said an Iranian Foreign Ministry official summoned the ambassadors because of EU statements on the exiled reporter Ruhollah Zam, 47, who was hanged on Saturday.

Zam had been jailed in Iran after Iranian authorities seized him while he was traveling in neighboring Iraq last year. Zam had been living in exile in France before his kidnapping.

The German Foreign Ministry on Saturday expressed its shock about the circumstances of Zam's sentencing and what it described as his "abduction from abroad" and forced return to Iran.

"This is a barbarous and unacceptable act," the French Foreign Ministry said in a statement, which condemned the hanging as a "grave blow" to freedom of speech in Iran.

Iranian state television referred to Zam as "the leader of the riots" in announcing his execution early Saturday.

TALLAHASSEE — Florida forward Keyontae Johnson remained in critical but stable condition at a hospital, the team reported Sunday, one day after he collapsed on the court during a game at Florida State.

There was no change in Johnson's condition from Saturday, when he was also critical but stable at Tallahassee Memorial.

No details have been released about what might have caused Johnson to crumple to the floor as teams came out of a timeout early in the game.

The Southeastern Conference's preseason player of the year was moved to a stretcher and carried off the court as teammates, coaches, staff, fans and others watched in disbelief.

ESPN declined to show any footage of the incident. According to some who witnessed Johnson's medical emergency, he was standing and suddenly fell forward and landed on his face. His eyes were open and he had blood on his face and neck, according to photos obtained by The Gainesville Sun.

The Gators announced that Johnson was in critical and stable condition less than an hour after his ordeal. The American Hospital Association defines patients in critical but stable condition as having "vital signs that are unstable and not within normal limits. Patient may be unconscious. Indicators are unfavorable.'

Cleveland Indians changing their name after 105 years

CLEVELAND - The Cleveland Indians are changing their name after 105 years.

Citing three people familiar with the decision, The New York Times reported Sunday night that the team is moving away from a name considered racist for decades. The Indians have been internally discussing a potential name change for months.

A team spokesman told The Associated Press the franchise has no immediate comment on the report.

The Times said the team could make a formal announcement later this week. It's not known when the name change will take affect or if the team has settled on a new moniker.

UCF's Milton commits to FSU; Brewer leaves Baylor

McKenzie Milton committed to transfer to Florida State as the former Central Florida guarterback looks to complete his comeback from a serious leg injury.

A Twitter post on Milton's account, complete with a photoshopped image of him in a Florida State uniform, said he was committed to the Seminoles. Milton confirmed his intentions to ESPN.

Also, Baylor quarterback Charlie Brewer posted on Twitter that he was leaving the Bears and intends to play elsewhere as a graduate transfer next season.

Mets hire Jared Porter as new GM with 4-year deal

NEW YORK - Jared Porter and the New York Mets have finalized a four-year contract that makes him the 14th general manager in franchise history.

The team announced the move on Sunday. The 41-year-old Porter spent the past four seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks as senior vice president and assistant general manager. He will report to Mets president Sandy Alderson, who has taken charge of baseball operations under new owner Steve Cohen.

"Jared has proven himself at every level and in every position he has held, earning respect from his peers throughout baseball," Alderson said in a statement. The Illini made one postseason appearance under Smith, losing 35-20 to California in the Redbox Bowl in 2019. They were 6-4 last season after a thrilling comeback victory at Michigan State, but then dropped their last three games.

Smith spent nine seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, leading the team to three NFC North titles, a Super Bowl appearance and an 81-63 record. He also went 8-24 in two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before he was hired by Illinois.

Auburn fires football coach Malzahn after 8 seasons

Auburn has fired coach Gus Malzahn, who led the Tigers to the national championship game in his first season but could never replicate that success.

Athletic director Allen Greene announced the firing on Sunday, a day after the Tigers finished the regular season with a 24-10 victory over Mississippi State. Auburn is 6-4 in a pandemic-shortened season of all Southeastern Conference opponents, losing by double digits to highly ranked teams Alabama, Georgia and Texas A&M.

They were also upset by a struggling South Carolina, which wound up firing coach Will Muschamp during the season.

"After evaluating the state of the Auburn football program, we've decided that it was time to make a change in leadership,' Greene said in a statement. "We appreciate everything that Gus did for the program over the last eight seasons. We will begin a search immediately for a coach that can help the Auburn program consistently com-

Defensive coordinator Kevin Steele will be interim coach. Auburn will owe Malzahn a $21.45 million buyout for the remaining four years of a seven-year, $49 million deal.

The school must pay half of that within 30 days.

Malzahn went 68-35 in eight seasons and was 39-27 against SEC opponents. He led the Tigers to an SEC title in 2013, his first season, losing to Florida State in the national championship game.

Arizona fires Sumlin following blowout loss

TUCSON, Ariz. — Arizona fired football coach Kevin Sumlin following a blowout loss to rival Arizona State that extended a record losing streak.

Sumlin was fired Saturday, less than 24 hours after a 70-7 loss to Arizona State that stretched the Wildcats' losing streak to 12 games spanning two seasons.

The school will honor the terms of Sumlin's existing contract, including a $7.5 million buyout.

Coastal breaks into top 10

RALPH D. RUSSO AP college football writer

The first top-10 shakeup in more than a month pushed Coastal Carolina to No. 9 in The Associated Press college football poll Sunday.

Alabama was a unanimous No. 1, followed by Notre Dame, Ohio State, Clemson and Texas A&M as those teams held their spots for a sixth straight week.

Surprising losses by Florida and Miami shuffled the rest of the top 10. No. 6 Cincinnati and No. 7 Indiana each moved up one spot and No. 8 Iowa State jumped two.

Then come the unbeaten Chanticleers (11-0), the first Sun Belt Conference team to crack the AP's top 10.

Georgia landed at No. 10 ahead of Florida at 11. The Gators dropped five spots after losing in bizarre and dramatic fashion to LSU in the fog Saturday night.

plummeted Miami 10 spots to No. 19 after getting blown out by North Carolina. The Tar Heels moved up four spots to No. 16.

POLL POINTS

Alabama has been ranked in 211 consecutive polls, matching Florida State (1989-2001) for the secondlongest streak in poll history.

likely move into second all by themselves after the Southeastern Conference championship game next week. To pass Nebraska's record of 348 consecutive poll appearances from need about eight more seasons in the Top 25.

IN-N-OUT

This pandemic-altered season has helped create some opportunities for ranked in a while — or ever before, like Coastal Carolina — to get into the Top 25.

No. 25 San Jose State is this week's upstart. The Spartans improved to 6-0 and earned a spot in the Mountain West title game for the first time with a second-half rally against Nevada on Friday night.

The last time San Jose State was ranked was 2012, when the Spartans moved into the rankings after the regular season was complete and finished No. 21 in the final poll.

"Love it. Love it, man. It's awesome," fourth-year coach Brent Brennan said to AP Sunday in a phone interview. "I think it's awethink it's awesome for these hard they worked. How they the boot.

The Crimson Tide will persevered through all kinds of challenges.

This San Jose State team showed progress last year, going 5-7 after winning three games total in Brennan's first two seasons.

The pandemic shutdown 1981-2002, Alabama will scattered his team in the spring and local COVID-19 restrictions have made the season a challenge at every turn. San Jose State had to relocate to practice at first and then to play.

The team and staff is curteams that have not been rently staying at a hotel in Las Vegas after playing Nevada at Boyd Stadium on Friday. The Spartans will "host" the Mountain West championship game against Boise State at Boyd Stadium on Saturday.

> "This is really a neat thing for our players to feel that sense of pride and that sense of excitement, of like, we've worked really hard for this and we've overcome so much and we're getting recognition on a national level," Brennan said of the ranking.

Also moving back into the rankings was No. 24 North Carolina State (8-3). The Wolfpack completed their season last week.

Falling out were Colorado, which lost for the first some for these players. I time this season, and Wisconsin, which lost for the player that can look at how third time and finally got

Westwood is Europe's No 1 again after Dubai

Associated Press

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates — As Matt Fitzpatrick lined up a short putt to win his second World Tour Championship, Lee Westwood was embracing his fiancée in the scoring tent in celebration of a notable achievement of his own.

Moments earlier amid a dramatic end to the most bizarre of years on the European Tour, Westwood — at the venerable age of 47 — had been confirmed as the oldest winner of the season-long Race to Dubai title.

He would be finishing a season as the tour's No. 1 player for a third time in his career, 20 years after the first. And, soon, he'd be hoisting the giant Harry Vardon Trophy high, despite having a sore back that nearly forced him to withdraw at the start of the week.

"I got my back back to pretty decent," Westwood said with a smile. "Now I've had to lift that massive trophy and strained it again."

It was worth the pain.

In what turned into a suspenseful final round in the season-ending event at Dubai's Jumeirah Golf Estates, Fitzpatrick birdied the first four holes Golf Club and forced the USGA to and held on grimly on the back nine to shoot 4-under 68 and win the World Tour Championship by one stroke from Westwood.

Westwood also shot 68 after getting up and down from a greenside bunker for birdie at the last hole, which left him in contention to win the Race to Dubai title at the expense of Fitzpatrick and Patrick Reed the former Masters champion looking to become the first American to be the European Tour's No. 1.

Westwood needed a collapse from some of his rivals over the final holes on the Earth Course, and that's what transpired.

Reed would have been Race to Dubai champion by finishing in outright third place or higher, but bogeys at the 16th and 17th saw him lose out. Still, chipping in from the fringe at No. 18, Reed shot 70 and finish tied for third with Viktor Hovland (69), ultimately two shots behind Fitzpatrick.

That left Laurie Canter, playing in the final group with Fitzpatrick, as the only player who could deny Westwood outright second place. However, Canter pulled his tee shot at the par-3 17th and required two shots just to get the ball up the bank and ing them. Se Ri Pak was the most onto the green.

The Englishman made doublebogey there and only parred the last, when he needed eagle to finish alongside Westwood.

Westwood was watching the action unfold on TV from inside the scoring tent next to his caddie, fiancée Helen, when he was confirmed as Race to Dubai champion. They hugged each other, their emotions partially covered by the fact they were wearing face masks.

He is five years older than the previous oldest winner — Colin Montgomerie, who was 42 when he won the last of his eight titles in 2005 — and ended up triumphing by a measly 17.8 points from Fitzpatrick.

"The most satisfying thing is doing it under pressure when it matters," Westwood said. "You know, coming out this week knowing nothing but a win or second will do, and pulling it off, really."

US Women's Open pushed to Monday because of storms

HOUSTON - The latest U.S. Women's Open on the calendar will last one more day because of relentless rain that drenched Champions suspend the final round until Monday.

Hinako Shibuno of Japan, who had a one-shot lead as she goes for a second major, never teed off.

The USGA moved up tee times as early as possible Sunday because of the forecast, and the final round was just over an hour old when thunderstorms in the area caused play to be stopped. It never resumed, with about three-quarters of an inch of rain falling before there was no point in trying to restart.

The turf in the December climate doesn't drain as quickly. Plus, heavy rain soaked the course Friday after the second round. There was standing water across Champions even during spells when the rain subsided.

The U.S. Women's Open was postponed from early June because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

It will be the first Monday finish for the U.S. Women's Open since So Yeon Ryu won at The Broadmoor in Colorado in 2011.

Shibuno won the Women's British Open last year in her major championship debut — and her first tournament outside Japan — and is bidding to become the third woman to win two majors the first time play-recent in 1998 at the LPGA Championship and U.S. Women's Open.

She was at 4-under 209, one shot ahead of Amv Olson, the 28-year-old from North Dakota who has not won in her seven years on the LPGA Tour. Only two other players, Moriya Jutanugarn and Ji Yeong Kim2, were under par.

Ariya Jutanugarn, a two-time major champion and former No. 1 player in the world, made birdie on her first hole before play was stopped. That pulled her within five Harris English broke a bunch of their own QBE Shootout records in a runaway victory at Tiburon Golf Club.

Kuchar and English became the first team to win the event three times, finished at 37-under 179 to break the mark of 34 under they set in 2013, and won by nine strokes to top their 2013 record of seven.

"That is laughable," Kuchar said. "It's hard to fathom just how good of golf that was. It's funny, as a player you stay in the moment pretty well and don't think too much about it."

Garza, No. 3 Iowa rout Northern Illinois

No. 4 Michigan St. stays unbeaten

Associated Press

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Joe Wieskamp and the rest of the starters for No. 3 Iowa got to take a second-half break Sunday.

Luka Garza scored 23 points and Wieskamp added 20 in the Hawkeyes' 106-53 romp over Northern Illinois.

Garza and Wieskamp left at the 15:22 mark of the second half and didn't return as coach Fran McCaffery used his reserves for most of the half. Eleven Hawkeyes played 10 or more minutes.

"You did your job when you're sitting on the bench for 16 minutes in the second half," Wieskamp said.

The Hawkeyes (6-0) played their third game in six days. After playing No. 16 North Carolina and Iowa State last week, and a game against top-ranked Gonzaga coming up Saturday, a little time off to be a spectator was just fine for Wieskamp.

"It was exciting to see those guys get a chance to play," Wieskamp said.

"It's incredibly valuable," Mc-Caffery said of getting to use his reserves more. "They have to get out there and execute our stuff, and understand how to play with each other. They have to experience some success, have the ability to make a mistake and play through it. And that's how you grow.'

Iowa had a 25-2 first-half run that included a stretch of 15 consecutive points. The Hawkeyes led 51-27 at halftime and were up 71-32 when McCaffery started sitting his starters.

'We jumped them early, kind of ended the game right away," Wieskamp said.

Iowa center Luka Garza drives to the basket past Northern Illinois center Adong Makuoi, right, during the first half of a game, Sunday, Dec. 13, 2020, in Iowa City, Iowa.

Patrick McCafferv had 14 points time you put him on the floor. I and freshman forward Keegan don't care who he plays against." Murray added 10 for the Hawkeyes.

Murray had eight of his points near the end of the Hawkeyes' first-half run. Murray has contributed off the bench all season, averaging 6.5 points in 15 minutes per game.

"We have a lot of great players on our team, a lot of players that can score really well," Murray said. "And that's something I'm not right now. If I can do the little things on the court, then Fran will build more trust in me."

"He's just going to keep getting better," Fran McCaffery said. "He's done it every game so far this year. He's done it every day in practice. He's a prime example of recruiting is not an exact science. Some guys get on a list, some guys produce. them since we heard we were

Redshirt freshman forward And that kid produces every

Garza, who came into the game leading the nation in scoring at 30.4 points per game, added eight rebounds. Garza, the lone unanimous selection to The Associated Press preseason All-America team, was 8 of 10 from the field and is shooting 69 1% for the season

Adong Makuoi had 14 points and Anthony Crump had 10 for Northern Illinois (0-5).

Iowa, ranked second in the country in scoring at 99.4 points per game, had its third game of 100 or more points. The Hawkeyes have scored 50 or more points in five consecutive halves.

They get this week to prepare for Gonzaga.

"I've been looking forward to playing them," Wieskamp said. "I think our whole team has. Like you said, we've been focused on one game at a time. But now that game is here.³

No. 4 Michigan State 109, Oakland 91

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Gabe Brown scored a career-high 20 points and No. 4 Michigan State used a 13-0 run early in the second half to pull away from Oakland.

Rashad Williams scored 23 of his 36 points in the first half for Oakland, his second straight huge game against a big-name opponent. The Golden Grizzlies (0-7) trailed by one shortly after halftime before Michigan State (6-0) quickly pushed the lead into double digits.

Aaron Henry scored 15 points and Joshua Langford contributed 13 for the Spartans.

Williams made 10 3-pointers in a 32-point effort at Oklahoma State on Dec. 5. He made six 3s in the first half Sunday, and Oakland trailed by just four at halftime despite struggling to keep Michigan State off the boards.

No. 11 West Virginia 87, No. 19 Richmond 71

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. - Miles McBride scored 20 points and West Virginia used a hot-shooting first half to beat Richmond.

Taz Sherman added 15 points and Sean McNeil and Oscar Tshiebwe each had 12 for the Mountaineers (5-1).

Tyler Burton had 14 points and 10 rebounds for Richmond (4-1).

No. 22 Ohio State 67, Cleveland State 61

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Duane Washington Jr. scored 17 points and Ohio State held off Cleveland State.

Coming off a road victory at Notre Dame on Tuesday, the Buckeyes (5-0) struggled to put away the Vikings (0-3). C.J. Walker added 16 points and freshman Zed Key had 12 points and 10 rebounds. D'Moi Hodge had 14 points for Cleveland State.

No. 23 Arizona State 71, Grand Canyon 70

PHOENIX - Remy Martin hit a 3-pointer with 9 seconds left and scored 31 points, lifting Arizona State past Grand Canyon.

Grand Canyon (4-1) rallied from an eight-point deficit to take a 70-68 lead in the final minute on consecutive 3-pointers by Jovan Blacksher Jr. and Alessandro Lever. Arizona State (4-2) called a timeout after Lever's 3 and worked the ball around to Martin in the corner. He made the shot and Blacksher's final attempt rimmed out.

Blacksher had 21 points and Lever 18 for the Antelopes.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Annie offers advice

Dear Annie: Your responders are showing the wonderful ways they are illustrating generosity and care this season, even at the expense of their own enjoyment of the holidays. A suggestion for making those benefits available past Jan. 1 would be to adopt a school or family or shelter, and to continue that commitment. Hunger has no season. Compassion has no limits.

Dear Compassion: I love your letter. The more we can give to others, the better we feel about o u r selves. It is a beautiful circle of joy. Thank you.

DEAR ANNIE

Dear Annie: I read the article about grown children living at home and disrespecting their parents. I, too, had to apply the "tough love" strategy to one of my children. In a nutshell, my oldest son left for college at 18, finished his freshman year, found a girlfriend and, at 19, decided to switch colleges. He moved into an apartment with a couple of high school friends and began his sophomore year at the university. I soon began to notice that whenever I called the apartment, he was never there. His friends would tell him to call home, which he would. I soon caught on that he was no longer living at the apartment I was paying for. He had moved in with his girlfriend, dropped classes so he could work to pay rent and run up every credit card he applied for. We finally had a family discussion about all this, and it was decided he would move home, get a fulltime job and start paying off his debts. His girlfriend did the same.

The problem was, once he returned home, he didn't find a job. He worked part time once in a while and kept hours well beyond our curfew. He was given an ultimatum: three strikes and you're out. After the third time he came home at 3 a.m. after partying, I knew what I had to do. I packed up all of his belongings, put them out on the driveway and told him he could no longer live under our roof. I also told him I loved him so very much and that was THE HARDEST decision I ever had to make. I cried all night the first night and hardly slept for a week. He bounced around from friend to friend for about a month. Then, he got a job; he got an apartment; and he started turning his life around. Two years later, he told me that he never blamed me for kicking him out and said that it was probably the best thing I had ever done for him. We have a great relationship. He is nearly 40 now, married with kids, and he has a solid career. I should note that our other children took notice and did not follow in his footsteps. Tough-Love Mom Dear Tough-Love Mom: Congratulations on doing one of the hardest and kindest things you could do for your son. You are correct that if you enable bad behavior, there really is little incentive to change. What you did for your son changed the trajectory of his life forever. Your tough love paid off. Kudos. Mike Lawrence, who is a threetime Bermuda Bowl world team champion, has written several excellent books. The title of his latest, "Insights on Bridge: Bidding, Play and Defense, Book 2" (Baron Barclay Bridge Supply) is self-explanatory. In each of 96 short chapters, Lawrence discusses one hand (a bidding problem) or two hands (declarer-play or defense). He says that these books "won't make you an expert. But (they) will start you on the path to being a good player and good partner."

In this deal from the book, cover the East and South hands. Against three no-trump, West leads his fourth-highest spade four: 10, three, eight. Declarer then plays a heart to his queen. How should West defend?

A good rule for authors is to keep the auction simple if it is a cardplay deal — unless the bidding supplies a key piece of information for declarer or a defender.

West should start by checking the high-card points. He has 10, dummy holds 12, and declarer indicated 15-17. That leaves 1-3 for East. He probably has one club honor: the jack, queen or king.

Next, usually third hand plays high, but when he cannot do that, he gives count. Here, East's lowest spade, the three, showed an odd number of spades: one or three. If he started with a singleton, the contract is surely cast-iron. But if he began with three spades, declarer is down to a singleton ace. West should win the second trick with his heart king and lead the spade two. When South's ace does come fluttering down, West waits to get in with his club ace to cash three spade winners.
