Verdi's 15

Dolphin Tiki 7

After a sluggish start which saw Verdi's trailing Dolphin Tiki 5-2 at the end of the fourth inning, Verdi's came to life scoring thirteen unanswered runs over the next four frames leading to the decisive victory over the Tiki.

Verdi's, which pounded out 29 hits in the game, was led by Scott Golan, Jim O'Toole, Chuck Stathopolous, and Gary Grefer all collecting four hits, and Vito Iacovazzi and Eric Phillips getting three. O'Toole and Randy Sheridan provided RBI muscle with three apiece, and Golan, Grefer, and Mike Shone each drove home two.

Dan Harrar punched out three hits, and Sal Tidona knocked in a pair of runs for the Tiki, which were limited to twelve hits, all singles, by Verdi's pitcher Jim O'Toole along with stellar defense.

Nacho Mama's 21

Salty Dog 13

Third baseman Matt Minik crushed a grand slam home run powering Nacho Mama's to the victory over Salty Dog. Engaged in a 10-all tie after three innings, Nacho's continued to tack on runs while holding the potent Salty Dog offense in check securing the victory for the Red and Green.

In addition to Minik's heroics (three hits, five RBIs), Nacho's got contributions from Paul Nussbaum (four hits, two RBIs), Jerry Shovan (four hits), Carl Parker (three hits), Brett Bartholomaeus (three hits, two RBIs), Randy Sheridan (three RBIs), and Bob Masulis, Bruce Denlinger, and John Gross (two RBIs each).

Tad Fabian launched a solo home run and added a two-run single to lead the Salty Dog attack. Bill Coyle, Terry Downs, David Falls, and George Grygorcewicz all lashed out three hits, including triples by Coyle and Downs. Grygorcewicz was responsible for three runs and Falls two for the Dog.

DaVinci's 19

Speakeasy 15

DaVinci's second baseman Lou Marinaccio blasted a grand slam round tripper in the third inning extending DaVinci's lead to 12-5, which they never relinquished in the defeat of Speakeasy.

Hitting stars for DaVinci's included Gary Revall, Matt Evangelista, Tom DeAngelo, and Dave O'Brien with three hits apiece. DeAngelo and Enrique Cuevas hammered triples, good for one run and two runs, respectively. Marinaccio finished the day with five RBIs, Doug Aksamit added four, and DeAngelo, Cuevas, and O'Brien two.
