

Mike Shone and Eric Phillips also participated in the triple parade for Verdi's with Shone tripling in two runs and Phillips three. Shone finished his clutch performance with six RBIs, Phillips four, and Marinaccio and Sheridan two. O'Toole banged out four hits, and Sheridan, Armstrong, and Gary Grefer each had three in the contest.

Paul Nussbaum crushed a two-run round tripper among three hits and three RBIs to lead Nacho's. Bob Masulis and Carl Parker pitched in with three hits, and Bruce Denlinger hammered a triple. Eric Jeanotte and John Gross both drove in a pair of runs in the game.

MARCO DIVISION

Monday, February 3, 2025

Sand Bar 14

Snook Inn 2

Sand Bar shortstop Nick Kopley supercharged the Sand Men's offense with three hits and three RBIs as it overwhelmed Snook Inn from start to finish.

Sand Bar led 5-1 after one inning and never looked back. Pitcher Jim Stewart helped his own cause by driving in two runs for Sand Bar.

For Snook, Bob Bejnerowicz was the lone bright spot on offense, with two RBIs.

Brewery 16

Stonewalls 14

Brewery held on to beat Stonewalls as the teams combined for five home runs.

Brewery pitcher Jim Cuevas led the attack with three hits and three RBIs. Teammate Jon Wiseman had three hits which included a triple while Murph Knapke also had three knocks. As for power, Gary Menzies led the way with three RBIs, two of which came on an opposite field two-run homer. Steve Friend (two RBIs) joined Brewery's home run derby with a two-run shot early in the game. Gary Pringle chipped in with two RBIs.

Mitch Eil topped Stonewall's offense with three hits and three RBIs. Ed Boyle slugged two, two-run home runs, good for a four RBI day. And Tom Gazzillo ripped a three-run home run, part of a four RBI day. Ralph Rohena also had three hits for Stonewalls.

Sami's 18

Joey's Pizza 13

Sami's did it again, winning its sixth straight game.

Sami's hitting was led by its pitcher, John Binns, who stroked four hits while driving in four runs. Sub Dave Manzello (Sand Bar) had four hits, good for two RBIs, while Tom Breslin had three hits and three RBI's (including a two-run homer). Outfielders Doug Stang (three hits, two RBIs) and Jon Krebs (two RBIs courtesy of a two-run HR) also sparked Sami's offense. George Giacobbi contributed three hits to Sami's attack.

Joey's pitcher Ed Kingsbury and Kevin Smith led the hit parade with three hits each. RBI muscle came from Jack Facciolo (four RBIs), while Tom Rensch and Rick Herzog each drove in two runs.

Wednesday, February 5, 2025