

Sami's 17Stonewalls 16

In an instant classic that featured clutch offense and late game drama, Sami's edged Stonewalls in extra innings.

Sami's Randy Wesolowski (two RBIs) singled home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning (the second extra inning) as Sami's ran its win streak to seven games in a row. Support came George Giacobbi who had three hits (among them a triple) and drove in four runs. Tom Breslin stroked three hits and had two RBIs for Sami's, while Dick Eddy and John Binns drove in two runs each.

For Stonewalls, Chris Nolan had a monster day with four hits, while Don Palmer had three knocks (including a solo home run) and two RBIs. Stonewalls RBI muscle came from Manager George Lancaster, Ed Boyle, Ralph Rohena, and Mitch Eil, with two each.

Sand Bar 10Brewery 8

Sand Bar made it three wins in a row, thanks to several key hits.

Trailing 8-6 in the fourth inning, Sand Bar's Jim Lencioni plated two runs with a single, tying the game at 8. In the fifth inning, Nick Kopley (three RBIs) doubled, scoring two runs for a 10-8 Sand Bar lead. Tim McKenna also got two RBIs for Sand Bar.

Brewery's offense was led by Gary Pringle who had two RBIs, while Gary Menzies ripped a triple. Defensively, the Brew Crew turned a rarely seen triple play.

Snook Inn 20Joey's Pizza 11

Snook Inn blasted three home runs as it powered its way past Joey's Pizza.

Dan Gulick (solo HR), Chuck McAlpine (two-run homer and four RBIs) and Bob Herrman (grand slam, four RBIs) led Snook's home run onslaught. Other Snook star hitters included John Cavanagh (four hits) and Jim Dorey and Jack O'Brien with three hits each. Snook rookie Neal Newhouse ripped a triple and drove in two runs.

Joey's pitcher Ed Kingsbury led the offense with three hits and three RBIs. Manager Todd Whitney had a triple (good for two RBIs), while Jack Martin also drove in two runs for the Pizza Men. Tom Rensch also had a triple for Joey's.
