

The Legion put together a five-run third inning highlighted by run-scoring triples by Ralph Lieterding and John DeRosa staking them to an early 5-1 lead. They followed that up with a four-run fifth keyed by a two-run single by Joe Barry and a run-scoring double by Williams giving the Legion a 10-3 advantage.

Barry, Williams, and Mike Corless finished the game with three hits each. Barry drove in three runs, and Williams, DeRosa, and Mike Arnold had two for the winners.

Legion pitcher Ralph Lieterding limited Crazy Flamingo to eight hits for the game.

Doreen's 12

Oyster Society 1

Doreen's pitcher Larry Anspach had the Oyster Society hitters tied up in knots as he limited their high-powered offense to ten hits leading Doreen's to the win.

Offensively, Doreen's was led by hot-hitting first baseman Hal Jurgensen who had four hits and three RBIs, and Jan Grossman and Don Schwartz who each contributed three hits. Anspach helped his own cause driving in a pair of runs in the contest.

With the loss, Oyster Society drops into second place, one game behind the American Legion.
