

The Oyster Society seemingly had the game in hand leading 10-3 after six innings but the Crazy Flamingo came to life in the seventh scoring eight times to take an 11-10 lead only to have the Oystermen push across two runs in the bottom half to eke out the win.

Outfielder Dean Leffelman was the hero for the Oyster Society driving in the tying and winning runs with a walk-off double in the seventh. Leffelman and Paul Shelton each drove in three runs for the game, with Shelton's double plating a pair of runs in the sixth inning to give the Oystermen a 9-3 advantage.

Manager Mick Keller pounded out three hits and drove in four runs, three on a bases-clearing single to cap the eight-run sixth, to lead Crazy Flamingo. Barry Neale stroked three hits, John Robichaud tripled and drove in two runs, and Jim O'Meara also had two RBIs for the Crazy Birds.

American Legion 10

Doreen's 5

In a well-played game by both teams that featured four double plays, the American Legion scored seven runs in the first two innings and made it hold up as they defeated Doreen's and maintained a one-game lead in the Gulf Coast Division.

John DeRosa crushed a bases loaded triple in the second inning giving the Legion an early 6-0 advantage and later added a single and double to lead the offense. Paul Womack contributed three base knocks, and Tom Obermeier drove home a pair of runs for the winners.

Doreen's was unable to mount an offensive attack as Legion pitchers Ralph Lieterding and Rich Larkin combined to scatter 13 hits in the contest.
