

Stonewalls, the tournament's Cinderella team with two wins over higher-seeded opponents to start the tournament, was led by Rob York and Don Palmer, who each had two RBIs. Howie Reitz blasted a triple to aid Stonewalls attack.

Snook will now await the winner of the elimination game between Joey's Pizza and Stonewalls to see who it will play for the Marco Division tournament championship.

Joey's Pizza 17

Brewery 13

Saving the best for last, Joey's Pizza scored 10 runs in its final two at-bats, turning a four-run deficit into a four-run win. The win enabled Joey's to stay alive in the post-season tournament while the loss eliminated Brewery.

Trailing 11-7 as it came to bat in the bottom of the fifth inning, the Pizza Men got busy at the plate. Following an inning opening single, Jim Fairbanks (three hits) lashed a double, scoring one run and trimming Joey's deficit to 11-8. Joe Logisz (three hits) smacked a single to put two runners aboard, setting the table for Rick Herzog. The left-handed batter, who had three hits and four RBIs on the day, bashed a triple, scoring two more runs, bringing Joey's within one at 11-10. Jack Martin (four RBIs) then stroked a single, scoring Herzog and tying the game at 11-11. Jack Facciolo then capped the five-run rally with a clutch, two-out run scoring single, giving Joey's a 12-11 lead after five innings. Joey's would again turn to Fairbanks, Logisz, Herzog, and Martin for its winning rally in the sixth inning.

With the game tied at 12 following Brewery's sixth inning at bat, Charlie Lamb ignited Joey's, lacing a triple and scoring on a ground out. Following another ground out, Fairbanks, Logisz, and Herzog all smacked consecutive two-out singles, delivering one-run and upping Joey's lead to 14-12. Up stepped Martin, who drilled an opposite field three-run home run, good for a 17-12 Joey's lead. Not lost in the late inning hitting heroics for Joey's was Rick DiStasio, who boomed a solo homer earlier in the game.

Brewery, fresh from its epic comeback win over Sami's, was led by Jon Wiseman, who had three hits, including a solo home run. He had long ball support from Ray Capella, whose solo shot in the sixth inning tied the game at 12-12. Ray Kane added to the extra base hit total with a triple, while Gary Menzies and Mike Sweeney provided the RBI muscle with two apiece.
