

Jim Dorey led Snook's offense with three hits while rookie Neal Newhouse had two RBIs. Pitcher Jack O'Brien had a triple for the Snook.

Stonewalls 15

Joey's Pizza 14

After being on the short end of several close games this season, Stonewalls broke through and won this one when pitcher Jerry Engel smacked a game winning single, breaking a 14-14 tie, good for Stonewalls fourth win of the season.

Stonewalls Mitch Eil (three hits, two RBI's) started the winning rally with infield single. Another single and intentional walk loaded the bases, setting the stage for Engel's walk off knock. Ed Boyle drove the Stonewalls offense with three hits and six RBIs. Among his hits was a two-run triple, part of a five-run Stonewalls uprising in the third inning. Chris Nolan continued his torrid hitting, stroking three hits for Stonewalls, helping to raise his batting average to over .600 on the season. And John Remhoff chipped in with three hits.

For Joey's, Bill Thompson provided the RBI muscle with five runs driven in. Kevin Smith contributed two RBIs for the Pizza Men.

Oyster Society 16

Crazy Flamingo 8

The Oyster Society erased a 7-5 deficit with back-to-back five run innings which propelled them to the victory over Crazy Flamingo.

Run scoring singles by Dave Chroust, Roger Fleming, and John Klebauskus highlighted the five run fourth, and by Dave Droddy, Dean Leffelman, Nick Brooks, and Paul Shelton keyed the five run fifth.

Leffelman and Droddy led the Oystermen with three hits each. Leffelman and Paul Glynn drove home three runs, and Droddy added two in the contest.

John Barrett led the Crazy Birds with a perfect three-for-three game, and Brian Bergman and Mick Keller both knocked in three runs in a losing cause.

Doreen's 16

American Legion 8

After the American Legion took a 6-5 lead with a five run fourth, Doreen's answered with 11 consecutive runs to cool off the red-hot Legion and claim the win.

Doreen's big fifth inning began with a double by Jan Grossman, followed by a run scoring triple by Fred Kramer, an RBI groundout, a Hal Jurgensen double, a pair of walks, and a run scoring hit by Larry Anspach (two RBIs). An error capped the scoring in the inning. Later, Al Schneider blasted a two-run homer and Ray Niemeyer (three RBIs) doubled in a pair of runs to give Doreen's a commanding lead. Frank Caso also punched out three hits for the winners.

Bobby Williams had a big day for the Legion with a solo four bagger and a run scoring triple, and Brian Stuglik contributed three hits in the game.
