Oyster Society 21

Doreen's 4

The Oyster Society wasted no time taking control of this game as they pounded out 29 hits in a dominating performance over Doreen's.

Leading 5-1 after two innings, the Oyster Society strung together six consecutive hits to take a commanding 10-1 advantage. The inning began with a triple by Joe Kruse, followed by singles by Dave Droddy, Dean Leffelman, and Paul Glynn, a Bobby Smith triple, and capped with another single by Nick Brooks and the rout was on.

Smith had a big day for the Oystermen with three hits and four RBIs. He got plenty of help from Steve Chasin (four hits including a triple, two RBIs), Leffelman (three hits, three RBIs), Kruse (three hits), Brooks, Paul Shelton, and Jim Williams (all with two RBIs).

Andy Pressler and Ray Niemeyer both drove in a pair of runs for Doreen's, who were limited to 16 hits by Oyster Society pitcher Steve Chasin.

American Legion 15

Crazy Flamingo 10

After trading leads early, the American Legion pulled away from Crazy Flamingo scoring five times in their final two at-bats to claim the win, thereby remaining in a first-place tie with the Oyster Society.

The hitting stars for the Legion included Mike Corless, Bobby Williams, John DeRosa, and Mike Arnold all with three base knocks, Corless and Butch Coursen with three runs knocked in, and Brian Stuglik with two.

Brian Bergman crushed a two-run home run and finished the game with four RBIs to lead Crazy Flamingo. Steve Risch lashed out three hits and two RBIs, Don Mandetta and Mike Gallagher also had three hits, and Rich Klein drove in three runs in the contest.
